The secretary may delegate to any[~~ such~~] person so appointed that[~~such~~] power and authority as the secretary[~~he~~] deems reasonable and proper for the effective administration of KRS 199.410 to 199.670.

(4) The secretary shall have the power and authority to elect coverage for the workers in the cabinet, under the provisions of KRS Chapter 341, and may elect coverage for these[~~such~~] workers under the workers' compensation law of this state. In the event the~~[such]~~ coverage is elected the payment of contributions under KRS Chapter 341 and premiums under the workers' compensation law shall be deemed a proper cost of administration.

(5) The salaries and expenses of the secretary and the secretary's~~[his]~~ staff shall be considered a proper cost of administration and charged to the funds allocated to the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~.

Section 135. KRS 199.440 is amended to read as follows:

The secretary may authorize the destruction of any~~[such]~~ original reports and records that~~[as]~~ have been properly recorded or summarized in the permanent records of the cabinet or are no longer considered necessary to the proper administration of the cabinet. The~~[Such]~~ destruction or disposition shall be made only by order of the secretary. Any money received from the disposition of the~~[such]~~ records shall be deposited and credited to the use of the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~.

Section 136. KRS 199.461 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "family service worker" means a social worker employed by the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~, Department for Social Services, to provide direct casework services in foster care, child protection, juvenile services, or adult protection.

(2) As used in this section, "active case" includes the total number of cases for which the family service worker has responsibility.

(3) The monthly statewide caseload average for family service workers in the area of foster care, child protection, juvenile services, or adult protection shall not exceed twenty-five (25) active cases.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent the department or a family service worker from handling emergencies to carry out statutory mandates. If the monthly statewide caseload average for family service workers exceeds twenty-five (25) active cases for ninety (90) consecutive days, the department shall report the fact to the Governor and to the Legislative Research Commission together with a description of the factors contributing thereto and shall make recommendations related thereto. The report shall include, by county and district, family service worker caseload averages; the number of established family service worker positions; and the number of vacant family service worker positions.

Section 137. KRS 199.462 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Before any applicant to provide foster care home services to a minor may be approved, the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ shall request from the Justice Cabinet records of all conviction information for the applicant. The Justice Cabinet shall furnish the information to the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ and shall also send a copy of the information to the applicant.

(2) The request for records shall be on a form approved by the Justice Cabinet and the Justice Cabinet may charge a fee to be paid by the applicant for the actual cost of processing the request.

Section 138. KRS 199.467 is amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to the requirements of the Adoption Assistance and Child Welfare Act of 1980, Public Law 96-272, the secretary for families and children~~[human resources]~~ shall adopt by regulation specific goals for each fiscal year for the cabinet as to the maximum number of children, (either in absolute numbers or as a percentage of all children in foster care with respect to whom assistance is provided in that year) who, at any time during such fiscal year, will remain in foster care after having been in such care for a period in excess of twenty-four (24) months, together with a description of the steps to be taken by the state to achieve such goals.

Section 139. KRS 199.473 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All persons other than a child-placing agency or institution, the department, or persons excepted by KRS 199.470(4) or (5) who wish to place or receive a child shall make written application to the secretary for permission to place or receive a child. Prior to the approval of an application to place or receive a child, together with the fee required pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, the secretary shall cause the investigation to be made by a Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ social worker unless the applicant specifies in the application that the investigation shall be done by an adoption worker of the home and the background of the person or persons wishing to receive the child. The portion of the investigation pertaining to the home and family background shall be valid for one (1) year following the date of its completion by an adoption worker. The purpose of the investigation shall be to determine the suitability of the applicants to receive a child, taking into account at all times the best interest of the child for whom application to receive has been made. The adoption worker making the investigation shall make a finding in writing recommending either that the application be granted or that the application be denied. In either case, reasons for the adoption worker's recommendation shall be given in writing. The recommendation of the adoption worker shall then be reviewed by the secretary. Based on the report and recommendation of the adoption worker making the investigation, the secretary shall grant or refuse permission for the applicant to place or receive a child as early as practicable, but, in any case, the decision shall be made within sixty (60) days after the receipt of the application. In reaching a~~[this]~~ decision, the secretary shall be guided by the ability of the persons wishing to receive the child to give the child a suitable home, and shall at all times consider the best interest of the child from a financial, medical, psychological, and psychiatric standpoint. If the application is refused, the secretary shall in general terms furnish in writing the reasons for his refusal.

(2) Upon a finding by the Circuit Court that the child should be placed prior to the secretary's ruling on the application, the Circuit Court may grant the applicant temporary custody of the child pending the decision of the secretary. If the application is denied, the temporary custody order shall be set aside and, upon motion of the cabinet or of the child's parent or parents, the Circuit Court may order the child returned to the biological parent or parents or the child's custody may be awarded to the cabinet, another licensed child-placing agency, or[~~ such~~] other individuals deemed appropriate by the court. This section shall not be deemed to permit the completion of any adoption proceeding without the approval of the secretary and compliance with KRS 615.030, if required.

(3) In any case where the cabinet refuses to approve the placement of a child for adoption when requested by the parent or parents of the child, or refuses the request of any person or persons that a child be placed with that person or those persons[~~him or them~~] for adoption, the decision of the secretary in so refusing shall be final unless within ten (10) days after notice of refusal, the biological or proposed adopting parent or parents shall appeal to the Circuit Court of the county in which the adoption is proposed. No placement shall be disapproved on the basis of the religious, ethnic, racial, or interfaith background of the adoptive applicant, if the placement is made with the consent of the parent. The cabinet may refuse to approve the placement of a child for adoption if the child's custodial parent is unwilling for the child to be placed for adoption with the proposed adoptive family. The cabinet may approve or deny the placement, in spite of the fact that the custodial parent or parents are unwilling to be interviewed by the cabinet or other approving entity, or if, after diligent efforts have been made, the adoption worker is unable to locate or interview the custodial parent or parents. The cabinet shall be made a party defendant to the appeal. In the hearing of an appeal, the court shall review the findings of the secretary and shall determine if the secretary has acted arbitrarily, unlawfully, or in[~~ such~~] a manner that constitutes[~~as to constitute~~] an abuse of discretion.

(4) If a child who does not fall within the exception provided for in KRS 199.470(4) or (5) is placed or received in a home without the permission of the secretary for families and children[~~human resources~~], or if permission to receive a child has been denied, a representative of the cabinet may petition the juvenile session of District Court of the county in which the child is found setting out the facts concerning the child. When the petition has been filed, the court shall take jurisdiction of the child and shall provide for it as it would provide for a dependent, neglected, or abused child under KRS Chapter 620, except that the child may not be placed in the home of the applicants who are to receive the child[~~him~~] unless permission to do so is granted by the secretary or the action is ordered by a Kentucky court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) When either the custodial parent or parents of the child to be placed or the persons wishing to receive the child reside out-of-state, the requirement of KRS 615.030, Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, shall be met before the cabinet gives approval for the child's placement.

(6) The secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~] shall be paid a nonrefundable fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) upon the filing of the written application for permission to place or receive a child. Payment shall be made by certified or cashier's check only. All funds collected under this section shall be deposited in a restricted account, which is hereby created, for the purpose of subsidizing an adoptive parent for suitable care of a special needs child as authorized in KRS 199.555.

(7) Nothing in this statute shall be construed to limit the authority of the cabinet or a child-placing institution or agency to determine the proper disposition of a child committed to it by the juvenile session of District Court or the Circuit Court, prior to the filing of an application to place or receive.

Section 140. KRS 199.490 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The petition shall allege:

(a) The name, date, place of birth, place of residence, and mailing address of each petitioner, and, if married, the date and place of their marriage;

(b) The name, date, place of birth, place of residence, and mailing address, if known, of the child sought to be adopted;

(c) Relationship, if any, of the child to each petitioner;

(d) Full name by which the child shall be known after adoption;

(e) A full description of the property, if any, of the child so far as it is known to the petitioner;

(f) The names of the parents of the child and the address of each living parent, if known. The name of the biological father of a child born out of wedlock shall not be given unless paternity is established in a legal action, or unless an affidavit is filed stating that the affiant is the father of the child. If certified copies of orders terminating parental rights are filed as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the name of any parent whose rights have been terminated shall not be given;

(g) The name and address of the child's guardian, if any, or of the cabinet, institution, or agency having legal custody of the child;

(h) Any further facts necessary for the location of the person or persons whose consent to the adoption is required, or whom KRS 199.480 requires to be made a party to or notified of the proceeding; and

(i) If any fact required by this subsection to be alleged is unknown to the petitioners, the lack of knowledge shall be alleged.

(2) There shall be filed with the petition certified copies of any orders terminating parental rights. Any consent to adoption shall be filed prior to the entry of the adoption judgment.

(3) If the petitioner was not excepted by KRS 199.470(4) or (5), a copy of the written approval of the secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~] or the secretary's designee shall be filed with the petition.

Section 141. KRS 199.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An adoption shall not be granted without the voluntary and informed consent of the living parent or parents of a child born in lawful wedlock or the mother of the child born out of wedlock, or the father of the child born out of wedlock if paternity is established in a legal action or if an affidavit is filed stating that the affiant is the father of the child, except that the consent of the living parent or parents shall not be required if:

(a) The parent or parents have been adjudged mentally disabled and the judgment shall have been in effect for not less than one (1) year prior to the filing of the petition for adoption;

(b) The parental rights of the parents have been terminated under KRS Chapter 625;

(c) The living parents are divorced and the parental rights of one (1) parent have been terminated under KRS Chapter 625 and consent has been given by the parent having custody and control of the child; or

(d) The biological parent has not established parental rights as required by KRS 625.065.

(2) A minor parent who is a party defendant may consent to an adoption but a guardian ad litem for the parent shall be appointed.

(3) In the case of a child twelve (12) years of age or older, the consent of the child shall be given in court. The court in its discretion may waive this requirement.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, an adoption may be granted without the consent of the biological living parents of a child if it is pleaded and proved as a part of the adoption proceedings that any of the provisions of KRS 625.090 exist with respect to the[~~such~~] child.

(5) An adoption shall not be granted or a consent for adoption be held valid if the consent for adoption is given prior to seventy-two (72) hours after the birth of the child. A voluntary and informed consent may be taken at seventy-two (72) hours after the birth of the child and shall become final and irrevocable twenty (20) days after either the interstate or the intrastate placement approval by the secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~], or twenty (20) days after the execution of the consent if placement approval was given prior to the signing of the consent, if approval is required.

Section 142. KRS 199.555 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A "special needs child" means:

(a) A child which the state has determined cannot or should not be returned to the home of the child's[~~his~~] parents; and

(b) A child which the state has first determined:

1. That there exists a specific factor or condition the existence of which leads to the reasonable conclusion that the child cannot be placed with adoptive parents without providing adoption assistance under this section or medical assistance under Title XIX; and

2. That except where it would be against the best interests of the child because of such factors as the existence of significant emotional ties with prospective adoptive parents while in the care of these[~~such~~] parents as a foster child, a reasonable, but unsuccessful, effort has been made to place the child with appropriate adoptive parents without providing adoption assistance under this section or medical assistance under Title XIX.

(2) "State-funded adoption assistance" means payment of monthly maintenance to assist in meeting the special needs of a child which was placed by the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~]. The state-funded adoption assistance shall also include payment of nonrecurring adoption expenses, and may include reimbursement of extraordinary medical expenses.

(3) "Nonrecurring adoption expenses" means those expenses which are incurred in the legal adoption of a special needs child for which parents are ultimately responsible which include reasonable and necessary adoption fees, court costs, attorney fees, and other expenses which are directly related to the special needs adoption and which are not incurred in violation of state or federal law.

(4) "Extraordinary medical expenses" means those expenses which are related to the child's special needs which existed prior to the adoption and are not reimbursed by private insurance, Medicaid, or other third-party payors or government programs.

(5) If the secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ or his designated representative finds that a child may benefit from being adopted and that the payment of a subsidy to adoptive parents after the adoption will increase the likelihood of adoption, funds may be paid to the adoptive parents after completion of the adoption of the child if the following conditions exist:

(a) The child was considered a special needs child prior to the adoption;

(b) The child is committed to the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ and the cabinet has authority to consent to the child's adoption; and

(c) The adoptive parents can give suitable care to the child if a subsidy is paid.

(6) Agreements for the payments of funds under this section shall be made prior to the adoption of the child. However, if the secretary for families and children~~[human resources]~~ or his designated representative finds that the adoption is likely to disrupt, extraordinary medical expenses may be reimbursed contingent upon availability of resources, if the following conditions exist:

(a) The child was placed for adoption by the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~;

(b) The child was considered a special needs child prior to the adoption;

(c) The parents have made a reasonable effort under the circumstances to meet the needs of the child without reimbursement for extraordinary medical expenses.

This subsection shall apply to any child meeting the conditions of this subsection who at the time of application for the post-adoption extraordinary medical expenses is under the age of eighteen (18). This subsection shall have retroactive as well as prospective effect.

(7) The payments shall be out of funds appropriated to the cabinet and those funds collected pursuant to KRS 199.473(5) which shall be deposited in a restricted account for the purpose of subsidizing special needs adoptions, and shall be in accordance with regulations promulgated by the secretary. The payments shall not exceed the amount which would be paid for foster care for the child. Monthly maintenance payments shall not exceed the amount which would be paid for foster care for the child and may include reimbursement for extraordinary medical expenses. Payment of nonrecurring adoption expenses shall only be reimbursed up to the limit established by the secretary for families and children~~[human resources]~~ in accord with 42 U.S.C. sec. 673. However, payments under agreements entered into under subsection (6) of this section shall be limited to reimbursement of authorized extraordinary medical expenses related to problems or conditions that existed prior to the adoption.

(8) State-funded adoption assistance payments shall not be made to parents if:

(a) The child has attained the age of eighteen (18), except that if the child is enrolled in a state or federal educational program, the payments may continue through age twenty-one (21);

(b) The cabinet determines the parents are no longer legally responsible for the support of the child; or

(c) The cabinet determines that the child is no longer receiving any support from the parents.

(9) Parents who have been receiving adoption assistance payments under this section shall keep the cabinet informed of circumstances which would, pursuant to subsection (8) of this section, make them ineligible for assistance, or eligible for assistance in a different amount.

(10) The cabinet shall establish criteria to be followed for the adoption of children under provisions of this section and shall promulgate the criteria by administrative regulations.

Section 143. KRS 199.557 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of this section, unless the context requires otherwise, "Federal Title IV-E adoption assistance" means the payment of monthly maintenance to assist in meeting the special needs of the child and of nonrecurring adoption expenses which include reasonable and necessary adoption fees, court costs, attorney fees, and other expenses which are directly related to legal adoption of a special needs child and which are not incurred in violation of state or federal law.

(2) If the secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ or his designated representative finds that payment of a subsidy to adoptive parents after the adoption will increase the likelihood of the~~[such]~~ adoption, funds may be paid to the adoptive parents after conclusion of the adoption if the child meets the eligibility criteria established at 42 U.S.C. sec. 673.

(3) Agreements for Federal Title IV-E adoption assistance under this section shall be made prior to the adoption of the child.

(4) Payment shall be out of funds appropriated to the cabinet and Federal Title IV-E funds of the Social Security Act as amended (42 U.S.C. sec. 673 et seq.). All payments shall be in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~. Payments shall not exceed the amount which would be paid for foster care for the child. Nonrecurring adoption expenses shall only be reimbursed up to the limit established by the secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~] or his designated representative in accordance with 42 U.S.C. sec. 673 et seq.

Section 144. KRS 199.570 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The files and records of the court during adoption proceedings shall not be open to inspection by persons other than parties to the[~~such~~] proceedings, their attorneys, and representatives of the cabinet except under order of the court expressly permitting inspection. Upon the entry of the final order in the case, the clerk shall place all papers and records in the case in a suitable envelope which shall be sealed and shall not be open for inspection by any person except on written order of the court, except that upon the written consent of the biological parents and upon written order of the Circuit Court all papers and records including all files and records of the Circuit Court during proceedings for termination of parental rights provided in KRS 625.108 shall be open for inspection to any adult adopted person who applies in person or in writing to the Circuit Court as provided in KRS 199.572. No person having charge of any adoption records shall disclose the names of any parties appearing in such records or furnish any copy of any such records, except upon order of the court which entered the judgment of adoption. Health information received pursuant to KRS 199.525 shall be added to the adoption case file. The clerk of the Circuit Court shall set up a separate docket and order book for adoption cases and these files and records shall be kept locked.

(2) After entry of the adoption judgment, the clerk of the Circuit Court shall promptly report to the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] of Kentucky full information as called for on forms furnished by the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~], necessary to make a new birth certificate conforming to the standard birth certificate form. Upon receipt of this information, the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] shall cause to be made a new record of the birth and it shall be filed with the original certificate, and the original certificate shall be stamped with the words, "CONFIDENTIAL – subject to copy and/or inspection only on written order of the court."

(3) The new certificate shall set forth the new name, if any, of the adopted child, the names of the adoptive parents and such other information deemed necessary in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] in issuing of birth certificates. If the adopted child is under eighteen (18) years of age, the birth certificate shall not contain any information revealing the child is adopted and shall show the adoptive parent or parents as the biological parent or parents of the child. If requested by the adoptive parents, the new birth certificate when issued shall contain the location of birth, hospital, and name of doctor or midwife. This information should be given only by an order of the court in which the child was adopted. The new birth certificate shall recite the residence of the adoptive parents as the birthplace of the child and this shall be deemed for all legal purposes to be the birthplace of the child. If no birth certificate is on file for a child born in Kentucky, the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] shall prepare a certificate of birth in accordance with the information furnished the cabinet by the clerk of the Circuit Court which issued the adoption order. The Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] shall furnish to the clerks of the Circuit Courts the necessary forms to carry out the provisions of this section. If the child was born in another state, the order of adoption shall be forwarded to the division of vital statistics of the state concerned to be changed in accordance with the laws of such state. If the child was born in a foreign country, the report of adoption shall be returned to the attorney or agency handling the adoption for submission to the appropriate federal agency.

(4) Thereafter when any copy of the certificate of birth of any child is issued it shall be a copy of the new certificate of birth, except when an order of the court granting the judgment of adoption shall request the issuance of the copy of the original certificate of the[~~ such~~] child's birth.

(5) If any judgment of adoption is reversed, modified, or vacated in any particular, the clerk of the Circuit Court shall notify the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] of the reversal or modification and the effect of same, and the cabinet shall make any necessary changes in its records.

Section 145. KRS 199.572 is amended to read as follows:

(1) At the time the biological parents give up the child for adoption, they shall be asked by the cabinet whether they consent to the inspection of the adoption records, to personal contact by the child, or to both when he becomes an adult. If consent is then given, it can later be revoked. If consent is withheld at that time, the biological parents may give consent at any later time. The initial written statement of consent or refusal of consent to inspection of records and personal contact shall be filed with the Circuit Court not later than the date of finalization of the adoption proceedings. When a written consent is on file, the records shall be available to the adult adopted person, upon his request therefor in writing.

(2) When any adult adopted person applies in person or in writing to the Circuit Court for authorization to inspect all papers and records pertaining to the adoption proceedings of that adult[~~such~~] adopted person as provided in KRS 199.570(1), and the biological parents have previously refused consent to inspection of records and to personal contact, the court may, if satisfied as to the identity of the[~~such~~] adult adopted person, authorize the adult adopted person to inspect the papers and records if written consent is obtained from the biological parents identified on the adult adopted person's original birth certificate.

(3) The Circuit Court shall, within seven (7) working days of the receipt of the request, direct the secretary of the cabinet to notify each biological parent identified on the adult adopted person's original birth certificate that the[~~said~~] person has applied to the court for information identifying the~~[such]~~ biological parent. Within six (6) months of receiving the notice of the request of the adult adopted person, the secretary of the cabinet shall make complete and reasonable efforts to notify each biological parent identified on the adult adopted person's original birth certificate. The secretary may charge a reasonable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) to the adult adopted person for making this~~[such a]~~ search. Every child-caring facility and child-placing agency in the Commonwealth shall cooperate with the secretary in his efforts to notify these~~[such]~~ biological parents.

(4) The notification of the biological parents shall not be by mail and shall be by personal and confidential contact. The notification shall be done without disclosing the identity of the adult adopted person. The personal and confidential contact with the biological parents shall be evidenced by filing with the Circuit Court an affidavit of notification executed by the person who notified each parent and certifying each parent was given the following information:

(a) The nature of the information requested by the adult adopted person;

(b) The date of the request of the adult adopted person;

(c) The right of the biological parent to file, within sixty (60) days of receipt of the notice, an affidavit with the Circuit Court stating that the adult adopted person shall be authorized to inspect all papers and records pertaining to his adoption proceedings;

(d) The right of the biological parent to file at any time an affidavit authorizing the adult adopted person to inspect all papers and records pertaining to his adoption proceedings; and

(e) The right of a biological parent to file an affidavit with the Circuit Court stating that all papers and records pertaining to the adoption proceedings of the adult adopted person shall not be open for inspection by the adult adopted person.

(5) The adult adopted person shall not be authorized to inspect the papers and records pertaining to his or her adoption proceedings unless those biological parents identified on the original birth certificate agree in writing to that~~[such]~~ inspection.

(6) If after diligent and reasonable effort, the secretary of the cabinet certifies that both biological parents identified in the original birth certificate are deceased or the secretary is unable to locate said parents, then a judge of the Circuit Court, upon motion of the adult adopted person, may order that all papers and records of the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ and those of the Circuit Court pertaining to the adoption shall be open for inspection to the~~[such]~~ adult adopted person. In any case, the court shall order that only identifying information about the biological parents be shared with the adult adopted person.

Section 146. KRS 199.575 is amended to read as follows:

In situations where a pre-adoptive brother or sister relationship existed, and one (1) or more of these siblings was then adopted, the following procedures shall be followed on an inquiry by one (1) or more of the siblings to the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ seeking information about his brother or sister:

(1) In all cases, an adopted person eighteen (18) years of age or older or a pre-adoptive sibling eighteen (18) years of age or older of an adopted person may file information concerning himself, his present location, and his known antecedents with the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~, stating his interest in being reunited with his pre-adoptive siblings and authorizing the cabinet to release such information to his pre-adoptive siblings who may make similar inquiry.

(2) In any case in which a person eighteen (18) years of age or older requests information about or expresses a desire in being reunited with a pre-adoptive sibling, the cabinet shall first determine whether such sibling has made similar inquiry pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. If the~~[such]~~ sibling has previously authorized release of information about himself, the cabinet shall release the~~[such]~~ information to the sibling making inquiry.

Section 147. KRS 199.590 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A person, corporation, or association shall not advertise in any manner that it will receive children for the purpose of adoption. A newspaper published in the Commonwealth of Kentucky or any other publication which is prepared, sold, or distributed in the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall not contain an advertisement which solicits children for adoption or solicits the custody of children.

(2) A person, agency, institution, or intermediary shall not sell or purchase or procure for sale or purchase any child for the purpose of adoption or any other purpose, including termination of parental rights. This section shall not prohibit a child-placing agency from charging a fee for adoption services. This section shall not be construed to prohibit in vitro fertilization. For purposes of this section, "in vitro fertilization" means the process by which an egg is removed from a woman, and fertilized in a receptacle by the sperm of the husband of the woman in whose womb the fertilized egg will thereafter be implanted.

(3) No person, association, or organization, other than the cabinet or a child-placing institution or agency shall place a child or act as intermediary in the placement of a child for adoption or otherwise, except in the home of a stepparent, grandparent, sister, brother, aunt, or uncle, or upon written approval of the secretary. This subsection shall not be construed to limit the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ in carrying out its public assistance under Title IV-A of the federal Social Security Act~~[Aid to Dependent Children]~~ Program in accordance with KRS Chapter 205. This section shall not be construed to prohibit private independent adoption or the right to seek legal services relating to a private independent adoption.

(4) A person, agency, institution, or intermediary shall not be a party to a contract or agreement which would compensate a woman for her artificial insemination and subsequent termination of parental rights to a child born as a result of that artificial insemination. A person, agency, institution, or intermediary shall not receive compensation for the facilitation of contracts or agreements as proscribed by this subsection. Contracts or agreements entered into in violation of this subsection shall be void.

(5) A person, organization, group, agency, or any legal entity, except a child-placing agency, shall not accept any fee for bringing the adoptive parents together with the child to be adopted or the biological parents of the child to be adopted. This section shall not interfere with the legitimate practice of law by an attorney.

(6) (a) In every adoption proceeding, the expenses paid, including but not limited to any fees for legal services, placement services, and expenses of the biological parent or parents, by the prospective adoptive parents for any purpose related to the adoption shall be submitted to the court, supported by an affidavit, setting forth in detail a listing of expenses for the court's approval or modification.

(b) In the event the court modifies the expense request as it relates to legal fees and legal expenses only, the attorney for the adoptive parents shall not have any claim against the adoptive parents for the amount not approved.

Section 148. KRS 199.595 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The General Assembly finds that:

(a) Finding adoptive families for children, for whom state assistance is desirable pursuant to KRS 199.555, and assuring the protection of the interests of the children affected during the entire assistance period, require special measures when the adoptive parents move to other states or are residents of another state; and

(b) Provision of medical and other necessary services for children, with state assistance, encounters special difficulties when the provision of services takes place in other states.

(2) The purposes of KRS 199.5951 to 199.5955 are to:

(a) Authorize the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ to enter into interstate agreements with agencies of other states for protection of children on behalf of whom adoption assistance is being provided by the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~; and

(b) Provide procedures for interstate children's adoption assistance payments, including medical payments.

Section 149. KRS 199.5951 is amended to read as follows:

In determining the rates of reimbursement for long-term care facilities participating in the Medical Assistance Program, the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, not allow the following items to be considered as a cost to the facility for purposes of reimbursement:

(a) Motor vehicles that are not owned by the facility, including motor vehicles that are registered or owned by the facility but used primarily by the owner or family members thereof;

(b) The cost of motor vehicles, including vans or trucks, used for facility business shall be allowed up to fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per facility, adjusted annually for inflation according to the increase in the consumer price index-u for the most recent twelve (12) month period, as determined by the U. The facility shall keep a record of all work actually performed by family members;

(d) The cost of contracts, loans, or other payments made by the facility to owners, administrators or both, unless the payments are for services which would otherwise be necessary to the operation of the facility and the services are required by regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~]. (e) Private club memberships for owners or administrators, travel expenses for trips outside the state for owners or administrators, and other indirect payments made to the owner, unless the payments are deemed part of the owner's compensation in accordance with maximum limits established by regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~]; and

(f) Payments made to related organizations supplying the facility with goods or services shall be limited to the actual cost of the goods or services to the related organization, unless it can be demonstrated that no relationship between the facility and the supplier exists. A relationship shall be considered to exist when an individual, including brothers, sisters, father, mother, aunts, uncles, and in-laws, possesses a total of five percent (5%) or more of ownership equity in the facility and the supplying business. It shall not be necessary that the amount of payments for units of services be uniform for the entire state but amounts may vary from county to county and from city to city, as well as among hospitals, based on the prevailing cost of medical care in each locale and other local economic and geographic conditions, except that insofar as allowed by applicable federal law and regulation, the maximum amounts reimbursable for similar services rendered by physicians within the same specialty of medical practice shall not vary according to the physician's place of residence or place of practice, as long as the place of practice is within the boundaries of the state.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to deprive a woman of all appropriate medical care necessary to prevent her physical death.

(7) To the extent permitted by federal law, no medical assistance recipient shall be recertified as qualifying for a level of long-term care below the recipient's current level, unless the recertification includes a physical examination conducted by a physician licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 311 or by an advance registered nurse practitioner licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 314 and acting under the physician's supervision.

(1) A certificate of death or a provisional certificate of death for each death which occurs in the Commonwealth shall be filed with the cabinet or as otherwise directed by the state registrar prior to final disposition, and it shall be registered if it has been completed and filed in accordance with this section. (c) If the place of death is unknown but the dead body is found in the Commonwealth, the certificate of death shall be completed and filed in accordance with this section. The place where the body is found shall be shown as the place of death. If the date of death is unknown, it shall be determined by approximation subject to amendment upon completion of any postmortem examination required to be performed.

(d) If death occurs in a moving conveyance in the United States and the body is first removed from the conveyance in the Commonwealth, the death shall be registered in Kentucky, and the place where it is first removed shall be considered the place of death. No embalmer or funeral director shall charge more for embalming the remains of a person with a communicable disease which requires blood and body fluid precautions than the price for embalming services listed on the price list funeral providers are required to maintain and provide to consumers pursuant to 16 C.F.R. Sec. 453.2 (1988).

(9) A burial-transit permit for the final disposition issued under the law of another state which accompanies a dead body or fetus brought into the Commonwealth shall be the authority for final disposition of the body or fetus in the Commonwealth and may be accepted in lieu of a certificate of death. There shall be noted on the face of the record made for return to the local registrar that the body was shipped to Kentucky for interment and the actual place of death.

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to delay, beyond a reasonable time, the interment or other disposition of a body unless the services of the coroner or the health officer are required or the Department for Public Health[~~ Services~~] deems it necessary for the protection of the public health. If compliance with this section would result in unreasonable delay in the disposition of the body the funeral director, or person acting as such, shall file with the local registrar or deputy registrar prior to interment a provisional certificate of death which shall contain the name, date and place of death of the deceased, the name of the medical certifier, and an agreement to furnish within ten (10) days a complete and satisfactory certificate of death.

(11) No sexton or other person in charge of any place in which interment or other disposition of dead bodies is made shall inter or allow interment or other disposition of a dead body or fetus unless it is accompanied by a copy of the provisional certificate of death. (12) Authorization for disinterment, transportation, and reinterment or other disposition shall be required prior to disinterment of any human remains. The authorization shall be issued by the state registrar upon proper application. and place of death. The provisions of KRS 381.765 shall not apply to remains removed for scientific study and the advancement of knowledge.

(13) After a death certificate has been on file for five (5) years, it may not be changed in any manner except upon order of a court. Prior to that time, requests for corrections, amendments, or additions shall be accompanied by prima facie evidence which supports the requested change.

Section 387. KRS 213.111 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 311.300 to 311.350, any hospital or institution of higher learning may make application to any medical school incorporated within the Commonwealth for the loan of unclaimed whole dead bodies or parts thereof for educational or scientific purposes if the approval of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ has first been obtained. Section 393. KRS 214.020 is amended to read as follows:

When the Cabinet for Health Services[~~human resources~~] believes that there is a probability that any infectious or contagious disease will invade this state, it shall take such action and adopt and enforce such rules and regulations as it deems efficient in preventing the introduction or spread of such infectious or contagious disease or diseases within this state, and to accomplish these objects shall establish and strictly maintain quarantine and isolation at such places as it deems proper.

Section 394. KRS 214.034 is amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in KRS 214.036:

(1) All parents, guardians, and other persons having care, custody, or control of any child shall have the child tested for tuberculosis and immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, pertussis, measles, rubella, mumps, hepatitis B, and haemophilis influenzae disease in accordance with testing and immunization schedules established by regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~. Additional immunizations may be required by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ through the promulgation of an administrative regulation pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A if recommended by the United States Public Health Service or the American Academy of Pediatrics. All parents, guardians, and other persons having care, custody, or control of any child shall also have any child found to be infected with tuberculosis tested, examined, and treated according to administrative regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A. The persons shall also have booster immunizations administered to the child in accordance with the regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~.

(2) Each child entering the public schools shall have proof of having been tested for tuberculosis prior to enrollment. (3) All public or private primary or secondary schools, and preschool programs shall require a current immunization certificate for any child enrolled as a regular attendee, as provided by administrative regulation of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~, promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, to be on file within two (2) weeks of the child's attendance.

(4) For each child cared for in a day care center, certified family child care home, or any other licensed facility which cares for children, a current immunization certificate, as provided by administrative regulation of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~, promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, shall be on file in the center, home, or facility within thirty (30) days of entrance into the program or admission to the facility.

(5) Any forms relating to exemption from immunization requirements shall be available at public or private primary or secondary schools, preschool programs, day care centers, certified family child care homes, or other licensed facilities which care for children.

Section 395. KRS 214.036 is amended to read as follows:

Nothing contained in KRS 158.035, 214.010, 214.020, 214.032 to 214.036, and 214.990 shall be construed to require the testing for tuberculosis or the immunization of any child at a time when, in the written opinion of his attending physician, such testing or immunization would be injurious to the child's health. Nor shall KRS 158.035, 214.010, 214.020, 214.032 to 214.036, and 214.990 be construed to require the immunization of any child whose parents are opposed to medical immunization against disease, and who object by a written sworn statement to the immunization of such child on religious grounds. Provided, however, that in the event of an epidemic in a given area, the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ may, by emergency regulation, require the immunization of all persons within the area of epidemic, against the disease responsible for such epidemic.

Section 396. KRS 214.155 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The administrative officer or other person in charge of each institution caring for infants twenty-eight (28) days or less of age and the person required in pursuance of the provisions of KRS 213.046 shall register the birth of a child, and cause to have administered to every such infant or child in its or his care tests for inborn errors of metabolism, including but not limited to phenylketonuria (PKU), in accordance with rules or regulations prescribed by the secretary of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~. Testing, recording, and reporting of the results of such tests shall be performed at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed by the secretary of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ or his designee. The secretary of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ shall by regulation establish and collect fees to cover the cost of analyzing the testing samples for inborn errors of metabolism.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the testing of any child whose parents are members of a nationally recognized and established church or religious denomination, the teachings of which are opposed to medical tests, and who object in writing to the testing of such child on that ground.

Section 397. KRS 214.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every physician and every other person legally permitted to engage in attendance upon a pregnant woman in this state shall take or cause to be taken from the woman a specimen of blood for serological test for syphilis as soon as he is engaged to attend the woman and has reasonable grounds for suspecting that pregnancy exists. If the woman is in labor at the time the diagnosis of pregnancy is made, which may make it inadvisable to obtain a blood specimen at that time, the specimen shall be obtained within ten (10) days after delivery. The specimen of blood shall be submitted to the laboratory of the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ or a laboratory approved by the cabinet, for the purpose of having made a serological test for syphilis. The test shall be of a type approved by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~.

(2) The Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ shall, as often as necessary, publish a list of the five (5) most frequently abused substances, including alcohol, by pregnant women in the Commonwealth. Any physician and any other person legally permitted to engage in attendance upon a pregnant woman in this state may perform a screening for alcohol or substance dependency or abuse, including a comprehensive history of such behavior. Any physician may administer a toxicology test to a pregnant woman under the physician's care within eight (8) hours after delivery to determine whether there is evidence that she has ingested alcohol, a controlled substance, or a substance identified on the list provided by the cabinet, or if the woman has obstetrical complications that are a medical indication of possible use of any such substance for a nonmedical purpose.

(3) Any physician or person legally permitted to engage in attendance upon a pregnant woman may administer to each newborn infant born under that person's care a toxicology test to determine whether there is evidence of prenatal exposure to alcohol, a controlled substance, or a substance identified on the list provided by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~, if the attending person has reason to believe based on a medical assessment of the mother or the infant, that the mother used any such substance for a nonmedical purpose during the pregnancy.

(4) The circumstances surrounding any positive toxicology finding shall be evaluated by the attending person to determine if abuse or neglect of the infant, as defined under KRS 600.020(1), has occurred and whether investigation by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ is necessary.

(5) No prenatal screening for alcohol or other substance abuse or positive toxicology finding shall be used as prosecutorial evidence.

(6) No person shall conduct or cause to be conducted any toxicological test pursuant to this section on any pregnant woman without first informing the pregnant woman of the purpose of the test.

Section 398. KRS 214.170 is amended to read as follows:

Every physician or other person who takes or causes to be taken from a woman in pregnancy, or suspected pregnancy, a blood specimen for serological tests for syphilis, shall identify the specimen as being from a pregnant woman submitting it for tests. The laboratory shall report the result of the test if reactive on forms prepared and furnished by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ to the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ not later than one (1) week after the examination is made.

Section 399. KRS 214.175 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ may conduct periodic anonymous surveys to determine the prevalence within the Commonwealth of drug and alcohol use during pregnancy. These periodic surveys may include, but are not limited to, toxicology tests to determine the presence of alcohol, controlled substances, or other drugs which have not been prescribed due to medical necessity.

(2) All hospitals and any other health facilities licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 216B which provide for obstetrical services, including delivery of newborn infants, shall, as a condition of licensure, participate in any periodic surveys conducted by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ for the purposes of determining the prevalence of alcohol or other substance abuse among pregnant women and newborn infants.

(3) Any surveys conducted pursuant to this section shall be conducted according to guidelines established by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~. The toxicology test may be performed without a physician's order and without patient or parental consent. For the purpose of this section any toxicology test performed shall be considered medically necessary.

(4) The results of any individual toxicology tests performed pursuant to this section shall remain confidential and shall only be released to the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~. Any results shall be collected and compiled in aggregate form without the name of the hospital, patient, or other means of identifying the individual subject of the test.

(5) No test result obtained pursuant to this section shall be admissible in any court or other hearing as evidence in any proceeding, criminal or civil, against the individual subject of the test.

(6) No hospital shall incur any liability, except for negligence, for performing any test required or authorized under KRS 214.160 and 214.175 or for reporting the result of the test pursuant to any administrative regulation promulgated by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ under KRS Chapter 13A in accordance with this section.

(7) The cabinet may use any state appropriation and any gifts, grants, or federal funds that become available for the purposes of implementing the provisions of this section.

Section 400. KRS 214.181 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The General Assembly finds that the use of tests designed to reveal a condition indicative of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection can be a valuable tool in protecting the public health. The General Assembly finds that despite current scientific knowledge that zidovudine (AZT) prolongs the lives of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome victims, and may also be effective when introduced in the early stages of human immunodeficiency virus infection, many members of the public are deterred from seeking testing because they misunderstand the nature of the test or fear that test results will be disclosed without their consent. The General Assembly finds that the public health will be served by facilitating informed, voluntary, and confidential use of tests designed to detect human immunodeficiency virus infection.

(2) A person who has signed a general consent form for the performance of medical procedures and tests is not required to also sign or be presented with a specific consent form relating to medical procedures or tests to determine human immunodeficiency virus infection, antibodies to human immunodeficiency virus, or infection with any other causative agent of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome that will be performed on the person during the time in which the general consent form is in effect. However, a general consent form shall instruct the patient that, as part of the medical procedures or tests, the patient may be tested for human immunodeficiency virus infection, hepatitis, or any other blood-borne infectious disease if a doctor orders the test for diagnostic purposes. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5)(c) of this section, the results of a test or procedure to determine human immunodeficiency virus infection, antibodies to human immunodeficiency virus, or infection with any probable causative agent of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome performed under the authorization of a general consent form shall be used only for diagnostic or other purposes directly related to medical treatment.

(3) In any emergency situation where informed consent of the patient cannot reasonably be obtained before providing health care services, there is no requirement that a health care provider obtain a previous informed consent.

(4) The physician who orders the test pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, or the attending physician, shall be responsible for informing the patient of the results of the test if the test results are positive for human immunodeficiency virus infection. If the tests are positive, the physician shall also be responsible for either:

(a) Providing information and counseling to the patient concerning his infection or diagnosis and the known medical implications of such status or condition; or

(b) Referring the patient to another appropriate professional or health care facility for the information and counseling.

(5) (a) No person in this state shall perform a test designed to identify the human immunodeficiency virus, or its antigen or antibody, without first obtaining the informed consent of the person upon whom the test is being performed, except as specified in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(b) No test result shall be determined as positive, and no positive test result shall be revealed to any person, without corroborating or confirmatory tests being conducted.

(c) No person, who has obtained or has knowledge of a test result pursuant to this section, shall disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person upon whom a test is performed, or the results of the test in a manner which permits identification of the subject of the test, except to the following persons:

1. The subject of the test or the subject's legally authorized representative;

2. Any person designated in a legally effective release of the test results executed prior to or after the test by the subject of the test or the subject's legally authorized representative;

3. A physician, nurse, or other health care personnel who has a legitimate need to know the test result in order to provide for his protection and to provide for the patient's health and welfare;

4. Health care providers consulting between themselves or with health care facilities to determine diagnosis and treatment;

5. The cabinet, in accordance with rules for reporting and controlling the spread of disease, as otherwise provided by state law;

6. A health facility or health care provider which procures, processes, distributes, or uses:

a. A human body part from a deceased person, with respect to medical information regarding that person; or

b. Semen provided prior to the effective date of this section for the purpose of artificial insemination;

7. Health facility staff committees, for the purposes of conducting program monitoring, program evaluation, or service reviews;

8. Authorized medical or epidemiological researchers who shall not further disclose any identifying characteristics or information;

9. A person allowed access by a court order which is issued in compliance with the following provisions:

a. No court of this state shall issue an order to permit access to a test for human immunodeficiency virus performed in a medical or public health setting to any person not authorized by this section or by KRS 214.420. A court may order an individual to be tested for human immunodeficiency virus only if the person seeking the test results has demonstrated a compelling need for the test results which cannot be accommodated by other means. In assessing compelling need, the court shall weigh the need for testing and disclosure against the privacy interest of the test subject and the public interest which may be disserved by disclosure which deters blood, organ, and semen donation and future human immunodeficiency virus-related testing or which may lead to discrimination. This paragraph shall not apply to blood bank donor records;

b. Pleadings pertaining to disclosure of test results shall substitute a pseudonym for the true name of the subject of the test. The disclosure to the parties of the subject's true name shall be communicated confidentially, in documents not filed with the court;

c. Before granting any order, the court shall provide the individual whose test result is in question with notice and a reasonable opportunity to participate in the proceedings if he is not already a party;

d. Court proceedings as to disclosure of test results shall be conducted in camera, unless the subject of the test agrees to a hearing in open court or unless the court determines that a public hearing is necessary to the public interest and the proper administration of justice;

e. Upon the issuance of an order to disclose test results, the court shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure, which shall specify the persons who may have access to the information, the purposes for which the information shall be used, and appropriate prohibitions on future disclosure.

No person to whom the results of a test have been disclosed shall disclose the test results to another person except as authorized by this subsection. When disclosure is made pursuant to this subsection, it shall be accompanied by a statement in writing which includes the following or substantially similar language: "This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by state law. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of such information without the specific written consent of the person to whom such information pertains, or as otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose." An oral disclosure shall be accompanied by oral notice and followed by a written notice within ten (10) days.

(6) (a) The Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ shall establish a network of voluntary human immunodeficiency virus testing programs in every county in the state. These programs shall be conducted in each public health department established under the provisions of KRS Chapter 211. Additional programs may be contracted to other private providers to the extent that finances permit and local circumstances dictate;

(b) Each public health department shall have the ability to provide counseling and testing for the human immunodeficiency virus to each patient who receives services and shall offer the testing on a voluntary basis to each patient who requests the test;

(c) Each public health department shall provide a program of counseling and testing for human immunodeficiency virus infection, on an anonymous or confidential basis, dependent on the patient's desire. The cabinet shall continue to provide for anonymous testing and counseling;

(d) The result of a serologic test conducted under the auspices of the cabinet shall not be used to determine if a person may be insured for disability, health, or life insurance or to screen or determine suitability for, or to discharge a person from, employment. Any person who violates the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(7) No public health department and no other private or public facility established for the primary purpose of conducting a testing program for acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome related complex, or human immunodeficiency virus status without first registering with the cabinet, complying with all other applicable provisions of state law, and meeting the following requirements:

(a) The program shall be directed by a person who has completed an educational course approved by the cabinet in the counseling of persons with acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome related complex, or human immunodeficiency virus infection;

(b) The program shall have all medical care supervised by a physician licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapter 311;

(c) The program shall have all laboratory procedures performed in a laboratory licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapter 333;

(d) Informed consent shall be required prior to testing. Informed consent shall be preceded by an explanation of the test, including its purpose, potential uses, and limitations and the meaning of its results;

(e) The program, unless it is a blood donor center, shall provide pretest counseling on the meaning of a test for human immunodeficiency virus, including medical indications for the test; the possibility of false positive or false negative results; the potential need for confirmatory testing; the potential social, medical, and economic consequences of a positive test result; and the need to eliminate high-risk behavior;

(f) The program shall provide supplemental corroborative testing on all positive test results before the results of any positive test is provided to the patient;

(g) The program shall provide post-test counseling, in person, on the meaning of the test results; the possible need for additional testing; the social medical, and economic consequences of a positive test result; and the need to eliminate behavior which might spread the disease to others;

(h) Each person providing post-test counseling to a patient with a positive test result shall receive specialized training, to be specified by regulation of the cabinet, about the special needs of persons with positive results, including recognition of possible suicidal behavior, and shall refer the patient for further health and social services as appropriate;

(i) When services are provided for a charge during pretest counseling, testing, supplemental testing, and post-test counseling, the program shall provide a complete list of all charges to the patient and the cabinet;

(j) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require a facility licensed under KRS Chapter 333 or a person licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapters 311, 312 or 313 to register with the cabinet if he does not advertise or hold himself out to the public as conducting testing programs for human immunodeficiency virus infection or specializing in such testing.

(8) Any violation of this section by a licensed health care provider shall be a ground for disciplinary action contained in the professional's respective licensing chapter.

(9) Except as provided in subsection (6)(d) of this section, insurers and others participating in activities related to the insurance application and underwriting process shall be exempt from this section.

(10) The cabinet shall develop a program standards consistent with the provisions of this section for counseling and testing persons for the human immunodeficiency virus.

Section 401. KRS 214.185 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any physician, upon consultation by a minor as a patient, with the consent of such minor may make a diagnostic examination for venereal disease, pregnancy, alcohol or other drug abuse or addiction and may advise, prescribe for and treat such minor regarding venereal disease, alcohol and other drug abuse or addiction, contraception, pregnancy or childbirth, all without the consent of or notification to the parent, parents, or guardian of such minor patient, or to any other person having custody of such minor patient. Treatment under this section does not include inducing of an abortion or performance of a sterilization operation. In any such case, the physician shall incur no civil or criminal liability by reason of having made such diagnostic examination or rendered such treatment, but such immunity shall not apply to any negligent acts or omissions.

(2) Any physician may provide outpatient mental health counseling to any child age sixteen (16) or older upon request of such child without the consent of a parent, parents, or guardian of such child.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, and without limiting cases in which consent may be otherwise obtained or is not required, any emancipated minor or any minor who has contracted a lawful marriage or borne a child may give consent to the furnishing of hospital, medical, dental or surgical care to his or her child or himself or herself and such consent shall not be subject to disaffirmance because of minority. The consent of the parent or parents of such married or emancipated minor shall not be necessary in order to authorize such care. For the purpose of this section only, a subsequent judgment of annulment of marriage or judgment of divorce shall not deprive the minor of his adult status once obtained. The provider of care may look only to the minor or spouse for payment for services under this section unless other persons specifically agree to assume the cost.

(4) Medical, dental, and other health services may be rendered to minors of any age without the consent of a parent or legal guardian when, in the professional's judgment, the risk to the minor's life or health is of such a nature that treatment should be given without delay and the requirement of consent would result in delay or denial of treatment.

(5) The consent of a minor who represents that he may give effective consent for the purpose of receiving medical, dental, or other health services but who may not in fact do so, shall be deemed effective without the consent of the minor's parent or legal guardian, if the person rendering the service relied in good faith upon the representations of the minor.

(6) The professional may inform the parent or legal guardian of the minor patient of any treatment given or needed where, in the judgment of the professional, informing the parent or guardian would benefit the health of the minor patient.

(7) Except as otherwise provided in this section, parents, the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~], or any other custodian or guardian of a minor shall not be financially responsible for services rendered under this section unless they are essential for the preservation of the health of the minor.

Section 402. KRS 214.310 is amended to read as follows:

(2) Any individual who has reason to believe that the provisions of KRS 214.280 to 214.300 have been or are being violated may present the relevant facts to the board of health or any of its deputies. It shall then be the duty of the board of health to make an investigation of the facts, and if the board is of the opinion that there is or has been a violation it shall prosecute the person guilty thereof.

(3) Any individual may institute proceedings to enforce KRS 214.280 to 214.300 and to punish violations of their provisions.

Section 404. KRS 214.420 is amended to read as follows:

(2) All information, records and reports in the possession of local health departments or the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ and which concern persons infected with or suspected of being infected with or tested for or identified in an epidemiologic investigation for sexually transmitted disease are hereby declared to be strictly confidential and only personnel of local health departments and the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ who are assigned to sexually transmitted disease control activities shall have access to such information, records and reports.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing:

(a) The release of medical information to the physician retained by the person infected with or suspected of being infected with a sexually transmitted disease;

(b) The release of medical or epidemiological data or information for statistical purposes in a manner so that no individual person can be identified;

(c) The release of medical information with the written consent of all persons identified in the information to be released;

(2) All blood establishments shall test blood for the human immunodeficiency virus and for any known causative agent for any blood-borne communicable disease, using tests approved and required, for purposes of blood donation, by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

(3) It shall be the duty of the administrator of any blood establishment which collects blood for the purpose of distributing to another health service, health facility, or health care provider the blood for transfusion to:

(a) Secure donor consent and a signed written risk factor history and donor consent form for each potential paid or volunteer donor for the purpose of determining if the potential donor is at high risk for infection with the human immunodeficiency virus, or has tested confirmatory positive for infection with the human immunodeficiency virus; or has acquired immune deficiency syndrome; or has tested confirmatory positive for infection with any causative agent for acquired immune deficiency syndrome recognized by the United States Centers for Disease Control; or has a blood-borne communicable disease;

(b) Provide a means for a potential donor to self-elect not to donate blood;

For purposes of this section, the patient's "next of kin" means, in the following order;

The cancer patient data management system shall be administered by the Lucille Parker Markey Cancer Center.

(2) Each licensed health facility which provides diagnostic services, or diagnostic services and treatment, or treatment to cancer patients shall report to the Kentucky Cancer Registry, through the cancer patient data management system and in a format prescribed by the Kentucky Cancer Registry, each case of cancer seen at that health facility. The planning shall include collecting information from the facilities and programs which educate and train the licensed professionals affected by the licensure requirements of those sections listed above and shall also include developing administrative regulations for the implementation of the licensure requirements.

(2) The Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ shall develop instructional material on the human immunodeficiency virus, including information related to methods of transmission, education, and infection control. The materials developed under this section shall be provided to persons licensed under KRS Chapters 317 and 317A. Section 413. KRS 214.625 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The General Assembly finds that the use of tests designed to reveal a condition indicative of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection can be a valuable tool in protecting the public health. The General Assembly finds that despite current scientific knowledge that zidovudine (AZT) prolongs the lives of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome victims, and may also be effective when introduced in the early stages of human immunodeficiency virus infection, many members of the public are deterred from seeking testing because they misunderstand the nature of the test or fear that test results will be disclosed without their consent. The General Assembly finds that the public health will be served by facilitating informed, voluntary, and confidential use of tests designed to detect human immunodeficiency virus infection.

(2) A person who has signed a general consent form for the performance of medical procedures and tests, is not required to also sign or be presented with a specific consent form relating to medical procedures or tests to determine human immunodeficiency virus infection, antibodies to human immunodeficiency virus, or infection with any other causative agent of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome that will be performed on the person during the time in which the general consent form is in effect. However, a general consent form shall instruct the patient that, as part of the medical procedures or tests, the patient may be tested for human immunodeficiency virus infection, hepatitis, or any other blood-borne infectious disease if a doctor orders the test for diagnostic purposes. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5)(c) of this section, the results of a test or procedure to determine human immunodeficiency virus infection, antibodies to human immunodeficiency virus, or infection with any probable causative agent of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome performed under the authorization of a general consent form shall be used only for diagnostic or other purposes directly related to medical treatment.

(3) In any emergency situation where informed consent of the patient cannot reasonably be obtained before providing health care services, there is no requirement that a health care provider obtain a previous informed consent.

(4) The physician who orders the test pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, or the attending physician, shall be responsible for informing the patient of the results of the test if the test results are positive for human immunodeficiency virus infection. If the tests are positive, the physician shall also be responsible for either:

(a) Providing information and counseling to the patient concerning his infection or diagnosis and the known medical implications of such status or condition; or

(b) Referring the patient to another appropriate professional or health care facility for the information and counseling.

(5) (a) No person in this state shall perform a test designed to identify the human immunodeficiency virus, or its antigen or antibody, without first obtaining the informed consent of the person upon whom the test is being performed, except as specified in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(b) No test result shall be determined as positive, and no positive test result shall be revealed to any person, without corroborating or confirmatory tests being conducted.

(c) No person, who has obtained or has knowledge of a test result pursuant to this section, shall disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person upon whom a test is performed, or the results of the test in a manner which permits identification of the subject of the test, except to the following persons:

1. The subject of the test or the subject's legally authorized representative;

2. Any person designated in a legally effective release of the test results executed prior to or after the test by the subject of the test or the subject's legally authorized representative;

3. A physician, nurse, or other health care personnel who has a legitimate need to know the test result in order to provide for his protection and to provide for the patient's health and welfare;

4. Health care providers consulting between themselves or with health care facilities to determine diagnosis and treatment;

5. The cabinet, in accordance with rules for reporting and controlling the spread of disease, as otherwise provided by state law;

6. A health facility or health care provider which procures, processes, distributes, or uses:

a. A human body part from a deceased person, with respect to medical information regarding that person; or

b. Semen provided prior to July 13, 1990, for the purpose of artificial insemination;

7. Health facility staff committees, for the purposes of conducting program monitoring, program evaluation, or service reviews;

8. Authorized medical or epidemiological researchers who shall not further disclose any identifying characteristics or information;

9. A parent, foster parent, or legal guardian of a minor; a crime victim; or a person specified in KRS 438.250;

10. A person allowed access by a court order which is issued in compliance with the following provisions:

a. No court of this state shall issue an order to permit access to a test for human immunodeficiency virus performed in a medical or public health setting to any person not authorized by this section or by KRS 214.420. A court may order an individual to be tested for human immunodeficiency virus only if the person seeking the test results has demonstrated a compelling need for the test results which cannot be accommodated by other means. In assessing compelling need, the court shall weigh the need for testing and disclosure against the privacy interest of the test subject and the public interest which may be disserved by disclosure which deters blood, organ, and semen donation and future human immunodeficiency virus-related testing or which may lead to discrimination. This paragraph shall not apply to blood bank donor records;

b. Pleadings pertaining to disclosure of test results shall substitute a pseudonym for the true name of the subject of the test. The disclosure to the parties of the subject's true name shall be communicated confidentially, in documents not filed with the court;

c. Before granting any order, the court shall provide the individual whose test result is in question with notice and a reasonable opportunity to participate in the proceedings if he is not already a party;

d. Court proceedings as to disclosure of test results shall be conducted in camera, unless the subject of the test agrees to a hearing in open court or unless the court determines that a public hearing is necessary to the public interest and the proper administration of justice;

e. Upon the issuance of an order to disclose test results, the court shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure, which shall specify the persons who may have access to the information, the purposes for which the information shall be used, and appropriate prohibitions on future disclosure.

No person to whom the results of a test have been disclosed shall disclose the test results to another person except as authorized by this subsection. When disclosure is made pursuant to this subsection, it shall be accompanied by a statement in writing which includes the following or substantially similar language: "This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by state law. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of such information without the specific written consent of the person to whom such information pertains, or as otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose." An oral disclosure shall be accompanied by oral notice and followed by a written notice within ten (10) days.

(6) (a) The Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] shall establish a network of voluntary human immunodeficiency virus testing programs in every county in the state. These programs shall be conducted in each public health department established under the provisions of KRS Chapter 211. Additional programs may be contracted to other private providers to the extent that finances permit and local circumstances dictate;

(b) Each public health department shall have the ability to provide counseling and testing for the human immunodeficiency virus to each patient who receives services and shall offer the testing on a voluntary basis to each patient who requests the test;

(c) Each public health department shall provide a program of counseling and testing for human immunodeficiency virus infection, on an anonymous or confidential basis, dependent on the patient's desire. The cabinet shall continue to provide for anonymous testing and counseling;

(d) The result of a serologic test conducted under the auspices of the cabinet shall not be used to determine if a person may be insured for disability, health, or life insurance or to screen or determine suitability for, or to discharge a person from, employment. Any person who violates the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(7) No public health department and no other person in this state shall conduct or hold themselves out to the public as conducting a testing program for acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome related complex, or human immunodeficiency virus status without first registering with the cabinet, complying with all other applicable provisions of state law, and meeting the following requirements:

(a) The program shall be directed by a person who has completed an educational course approved by the cabinet in the counseling of persons with acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome related complex, or human immunodeficiency virus infection;

(b) The program shall have all medical care supervised by a physician licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapter 311;

(c) The program shall have all laboratory procedures performed in a laboratory licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapter 333;

(d) Informed consent shall be required prior to testing. Informed consent shall be preceded by an explanation of the test, including its purpose, potential uses, and limitations and the meaning of its results;

(e) The program, unless it is a blood donor center, shall provide pretest counseling on the meaning of a test for human immunodeficiency virus, including medical indications for the test; the possibility of false positive or false negative results; the potential need for confirmatory testing; the potential social, medical, and economic consequences of a positive test result; and the need to eliminate high-risk behavior;

(f) The program shall provide supplemental corroborative testing on all positive test results before the results of any positive test is provided to the patient;

(g) The program shall provide post-test counseling, in person, on the meaning of the test results; the possible need for additional testing; the social medical, and economic consequences of a positive test result; and the need to eliminate behavior which might spread the disease to others;

(h) Each person providing post-test counseling to a patient with a positive test result shall receive specialized training, to be specified by regulation of the cabinet, about the special needs of persons with positive results, including recognition of possible suicidal behavior, and shall refer the patient for further health and social services as appropriate;

(i) When services are provided for a charge during pretest counseling, testing, supplemental testing, and post-test counseling, the program shall provide a complete list of all charges to the patient and the cabinet;

(j) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require a facility licensed under KRS Chapter 333 or a person licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapters 311, 312 or 313 to register with the cabinet if he does not advertise or hold himself out to the public as conducting testing programs for human immunodeficiency virus infection or specializing in such testing.

(8) Any violation of this section by a licensed health care provider shall be a ground for disciplinary action contained in the professional's respective licensing chapter.

(9) Except as provided in subsection (6)(d) of this section and KRS 304.12-013, insurers and others participating in activities related to the insurance application and underwriting process shall be exempt from this section.

(10) The cabinet shall develop a program standards consistent with the provisions of this section for counseling and testing persons for the human immunodeficiency virus.

Section 414. KRS 214.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every head of a family who willfully fails or refuses and every physician who fails or refuses to comply with KRS 214.010 shall be guilty of a violation for each day he neglects or refuses to report. Repeated failure to report is sufficient cause for the revocation of a physician's certificate to practice medicine in this state.

(2) Any owner or person having charge of any public or private conveyance, including watercraft, who refuses to obey the rules and regulations made by the Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~ under KRS 214.020 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

Only a test which is recommended by the Centers for Disease Control or by the Food and Drug Administration is deemed to be reliable for the purposes of this section. If a specific Centers for Disease Control or Food and Drug Administration recommended test indicates the existence or possible existence of human immunodeficiency virus infection or a health condition related to the human immunodeficiency virus infection, before relying on a single test to deny issuance of an insurance contract, limit coverage under an insurance contract, or to establish the premium for an insurance contract, the insurer shall follow the applicable Centers for Disease Control or Food and Drug Administration recommended test protocol and shall utilize any applicable Centers for Disease Control or Food and Drug Administration recommended follow-up tests or series of tests to confirm the indication.

(b) Prior to testing, the insurer shall disclose in writing its intent to test the applicant for the human immunodeficiency virus infection or for a specific health condition derived therefrom and shall obtain the applicant's written informed consent to administer the test. 3. The benefits of locating and counseling any person by whom the infected person may have been exposed to human immunodeficiency virus and any person whom the infected person may have exposed to the virus; and
4. The availability, if any, of the services of public health authorities with respect to locating and counseling any person described in subparagraph 3 of this paragraph.

(d) A medical test for human immunodeficiency virus infection or for a health condition derived from the infection shall only be required or given to an applicant for an insurance contract on the basis of the applicant's health condition or health history, on the basis of the amount of insurance applied for, or if the test is required of all applicants.

(e) An insurer may ask whether an applicant for an insurance contract has been tested positive for human immunodeficiency virus infection or other health conditions derived from such infection. Insurers shall not inquire whether the applicant has been tested for or has received a negative result from a specific test for human immunodeficiency virus infection or for a health condition derived from such infection.

(f) Insurers shall maintain strict confidentiality of the results of tests for human immunodeficiency virus infection or a specific health condition derived from human immunodeficiency virus infection. Information regarding specific test results shall be disclosed only as required by law or pursuant to a written request or authorization by the applicant. Insurers may disclose results pursuant to a specific written request only to the following persons:

1. The applicant;
2. A licensed physician or other person designated by the applicant;
3. An insurance medical information exchange under procedures that are used to assure confidentiality, such as the use of general codes that also cover results of tests for other diseases or conditions not related to human immunodeficiency virus infection;
4. For the preparation of statistical reports that do not disclose the identity of any particular applicant;
5. Reinsurers, contractually retained medical personnel, and insurer affiliates if these entities are involved solely in the underwriting process and under procedures that are designed to assure confidentiality;
6. To insurer personnel who have the responsibility to make underwriting decisions; and
7. To outside legal counsel who needs the information to represent the insurer effectively in regard to matters concerning the applicant.

(g) Insurers shall use for the processing of human immunodeficiency virus related tests only those laboratories that are certified by the United States Department of Health and Human Services under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Act of 1967, which permit testing of specimens in interstate commerce, and which subject themselves to ongoing proficiency testing by the College of American Pathologists, the American Association of Bio Analysts, or an equivalent program approved by the Centers for Disease Control.

(5) (a) An insurance contract shall not exclude coverage for human immunodeficiency virus infection. An insurance contract shall not contain benefit provisions, terms, or conditions which apply to human immunodeficiency virus infection in a different manner than those which apply to any other health condition. Insurance contracts which violate this paragraph shall be disapproved by the commissioner pursuant to KRS 304.14-130(1)(a), 304.32-160, 304.38-050, and 304.43-030.

(b) A health insurance contract shall not be canceled or nonrenewed solely because a person or persons covered by the contract has been diagnosed as having or has been treated for human immunodeficiency virus infection.

(c) Sexual orientation shall not be used in the underwriting process or in the determination of which applicants shall be tested for exposure to the human immunodeficiency virus infection. Neither the marital status, the living arrangements, the occupation, the gender, the beneficiary designation, nor the zip code or other territorial classification of an applicant's sexual orientation.

The notice shall inform patients and health care providers of their right to appeal adverse determinations of the private review agent to the Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] under the dispute resolution process established pursuant to KRS 211.464(1)(g). The notice shall also include instructions on filing an appeal to the cabinet; and

(e) The court shall hold a hearing on the merits of the petition before reaching a decision. The court shall hear evidence at the hearing relating to the emotional development, maturity, intellect, and understanding of the minor; the nature, possible consequences, and alternatives to the abortion; and any other evidence that the court may find useful in determining whether the minor should be granted majority rights for the purpose of consenting to the abortion or whether the abortion is in the best interest of the minor.

Section 574. KRS 387.600 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The court may appoint as limited guardian, guardian, limited conservator, or conservator any suitable person or any entity, public or private, capable of conducting an active guardianship or conservatorship program. The court shall not ordinarily or customarily appoint the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ or any other person or entity, public or private, that is directly providing services to the respondent unless no other suitable person or entity is available and willing to be appointed. Appointment of the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ shall be consistent with the provisions of KRS 210.290.

(2) Prior to the appointment, the court shall make a reasonable effort to question the respondent concerning his preference regarding the person or entity to be appointed limited guardian, guardian, limited conservator, or conservator, and any preference indicated shall be given due consideration. If the respondent has designated another as his attorney in fact or agent by executing a power of attorney in writing, that designation shall be treated as an indication of the respondent's preference as to the person or entity to be appointed as his limited guardian, guardian, limited conservator, or conservator, and that preference shall be given due consideration. The court shall appoint the person or entity best qualified and willing to serve.

Section 575. KRS 387.610 is amended to read as follows:

Prior to the expiration of a term of guardianship or conservatorship, the limited guardian, guardian, limited conservator, or conservator may petition, pursuant to KRS 387.620, for a renewal of his appointment for a period not to exceed five (5) years. Section 576. KRS 402.320 is amended to read as follows:

Every physician examining applicants for a marriage license may obtain an appropriate blood specimen from each applicant and forward same to the Division of Laboratory Services, Cabinet for Health Services~~[Human Resources]~~, or to a laboratory approved by the cabinet, to ascertain the existence or nonexistence of sickle cell trait or sickle cell disease, or any other genetically-transmitted disease which affects hemoglobin. In the event the laboratory tests indicate that both applicants are carriers of a trait or disease, the physician may provide genetic counseling or refer the applicants to the cabinet or to an agency approved by the cabinet for such counseling.

Section 577. KRS 402.340 is amended to read as follows:

The secretary for health services~~[human resources]~~ shall adopt rules and regulations for the proper administration and enforcement of KRS 402.310 to 402.340.

Section 578. KRS 403.211 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An action to establish or enforce child support may be initiated by the parent, custodian, or agency substantially contributing to the support of the child. The action may be brought in the county in which the child resides or where the defendant resides.

(2) At the time of initial establishment of a child support order, whether temporary or permanent, or in any proceeding to modify a support order, the child support guidelines in KRS 403.212 shall serve as a rebuttable presumption for the establishment or modification of the amount of child support. Courts may deviate from the guidelines where their application would be unjust or inappropriate. Any deviation shall be accompanied by a written finding or specific finding on the record by the court, specifying the reason for the deviation.

(3) A written finding or specific finding on the record that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case shall be sufficient to rebut the presumption and allow for an appropriate adjustment of the guideline award if based upon one (1) or more of the following criteria:

(a) A child's extraordinary medical or dental needs;

(b) A child's extraordinary educational, job training, or special needs;

(c) Either parent's own extraordinary needs, such as medical expenses;

(d) The independent financial resources, if any, of the child or children;

(e) Combined parental income in excess of the Kentucky child support guidelines;

(f) The parents of the child, having demonstrated knowledge of the amount of child support established by the Kentucky child support guidelines, have agreed to child support different from the guideline amount. However, no such agreement shall be the basis of any deviation if public assistance is being paid on behalf of a child under the provisions of Part D of Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act; and.

(g) Any similar factor of an extraordinary nature specifically identified by the court which would make application of the guidelines inappropriate.

(4) "Extraordinary" as used in this section shall be determined by the court in its discretion.

(5) When a party has defaulted or the court is otherwise presented with insufficient evidence to determine gross income, the court shall order child support based upon the needs of the child or the previous standard of living of the child, whichever is greater. An order entered by default or due to insufficient evidence to determine gross income may be modified upward and arrearages awarded from the date of the original order if evidence of gross income is presented within two (2) years which would have established a higher amount of child support pursuant to the child support guidelines set forth in KRS 403.212.

(6) The court shall allocate between the parents, in proportion to their adjusted gross income, reasonable and necessary child care costs incurred due to employment, job search, or education leading to employment, in addition to the amount ordered under the child support guidelines.

(7) (a) The court shall order the cost of health care of the child to be paid by either or both parents of the child regardless of who has physical custody. The court order shall include:

1. A judicial directive designating which parent shall have financial responsibility for providing health care for the dependent child, which shall include, but not be limited to, insurance coverage, payments of necessary health care deductibles or copayments; and

2. A statement providing that if the designated parent's health care coverage provides for covered services for dependent children beyond the age of majority, then any unmarried children up to twenty-five (25) years of age who are full-time students enrolled in and attending an accredited educational institution and who are primarily dependent on the insured parent for maintenance and support shall be covered.

(b) If health care insurance coverage is not reasonable and available at the time the request for the coverage is made, the court order shall provide for health care insurance coverage at the time it becomes reasonable and available.

(8) The cost of extraordinary medical expenses shall be allocated between the parties in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes. "Extraordinary medical expenses" means uninsured expenses in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) per child per calendar year. "Extraordinary medical expenses" includes, but is not limited to, the costs that are reasonably necessary for medical, surgical, dental, orthodontal, optometric, nursing, and hospital services; for professional counseling or psychiatric therapy for diagnosed medical disorders; and for drugs and medical supplies, appliances, laboratory, diagnostic, and therapeutic services.

(9) In any case administered by the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~], if the parent ordered to provide health care coverage is enrolled through an insurer but fails to enroll the child under family coverage, the other parent or the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~] may, upon application, enroll the child.

Section 579. KRS 403.213 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Kentucky child support guidelines may be used by the parent, custodian, or agency substantially contributing to the support of the child as the basis for periodic updates of child support obligations and for modification of child support orders for health care. The provisions of any decree respecting child support may be modified only as to installments accruing subsequent to the filing of the motion for modification and only upon a showing of a material change in circumstances that is substantial and continuing.

(2) Application of the Kentucky child support guidelines to the circumstances of the parties at the time of the filing of a motion or petition for modification of the child support order which results in equal to or greater than a fifteen percent (15%) change in the amount of support due per month shall be rebuttably presumed to be a material change in circumstances. Application which results in less than a fifteen percent (15%) change in the amount of support due per month shall be rebuttably presumed not to be a material change in circumstances. For the one (1) year period immediately following enactment of this statute, the presumption of material change shall be a twenty-five percent (25%) change in the amount of child support due rather than the fifteen percent (15%) stated above.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child shall be terminated by emancipation of the child unless the child is a high school student when he reaches the age of eighteen (18). In cases where the child becomes emancipated because of age, but not due to marriage, while still a high school student, the court-ordered support shall continue while the child is a high school student, but not beyond completion of the school year during which the child reaches the age of nineteen (19) years. Provisions for the support of the child shall not be terminated by the death of a parent obligated to support the child. If a parent obligated to pay support dies, the amount of support may be modified, revoked, or commuted to a lump-sum payment, to the extent just and appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) The child support guidelines table shall be reviewed at least once every four (4) years by a commission consisting of the following persons:

(a) The secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children[~~Human Resources~~] or a supervisory staff person designated by him;

(b) Two (2) members of the Kentucky Bar Association who have at least six (6) consecutive years' experience and are presently practicing domestic relations cases, one (1) member from a metropolitan or large urban area and one (1) member from a less populated area;

(c) Two (2) Circuit Judges appointed by the Chief Justice of the Kentucky Supreme Court, one (1) from a metropolitan or large urban area, and one (1) from a less populated area;

(d) One (1) District Judge appointed by the Chief Justice of the Kentucky Supreme Court;

(e) Two (2) county attorneys appointed by the president of the County Attorneys Association, one (1) from a metropolitan or large urban area and one (1) from a less populated area; and

(f) The Attorney General or his designee, who shall be an attorney from his office.

(5) The commission shall make a recommendation to the Kentucky General Assembly to ensure that the child support guidelines table results in a determination of appropriate child support amounts.

Section 580. KRS 403.7505 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Cabinet for Health Services[~~Human Resources~~] shall, by administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A, establish certification standards for mental health professionals providing court-mandated treatment services for domestic violence offenders.

(2) The standards created by the cabinet shall be based on the following principles:

(a) Domestic violence is a pattern of coercive control which includes physical, sexual, psychological, and environmental abuse, and is considered to be criminal conduct;

(b) The primary goal of treatment programs for domestic violence offenders shall be the cessation of violence which will provide for the safety of victims and their children; and

(c) Domestic violence offenders are responsible and shall be held accountable for the violence which they choose to perpetrate.

(3) The standards created by the cabinet shall address the following:

(a) Qualifications of providers of court-mandated domestic violence offender treatment services which shall include appropriate requirements for degree, experience, training, and continuing education;

(b) Procedures for application by providers to receive certification which shall include methods of appeal if certification is denied, and sanctions for noncompliance with the standards which may include revocation of certification;

(c) Admittance and discharge criteria for domestic violence offenders to enter court-mandated treatment services provided pursuant to this section;

(d) Written protocols for referral by a court to certified providers and for progress reports to be made to the court by providers;

(e) Contracts for domestic violence offenders to sign prior to entering court-ordered treatment services provided pursuant to this section. The contract shall specify that certified providers may contact the victims of the offender if the victim chooses to be contacted. The contract shall authorize the provider to release information regarding the offender's progress in treatment to the court, victims, probation and parole officers, and other individuals authorized by the court to receive the information;

(f) Written procedures in compliance with KRS 202A.400, 209.030, and 620.030;

(g) Payment protocols which require the offender to pay the actual cost for any court-mandated evaluation or treatment pursuant to this section, subject to the offender's ability to pay; and

(h) Other provisions which shall further the availability and quality of court-mandated domestic violence offender services.

(4) The cabinet shall:

(a) Maintain a list of providers certified pursuant to this section and regularly submit the list to the Administrative Office of the Courts; and

(b) Collect data from certified providers, which shall include the number of domestic violence offenders served by the certified providers, to be compiled annually and submitted to the Governor, the Chief Justice of the Kentucky Supreme Court, and the Legislative Research Commission.

Section 581. KRS 403.783 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of KRS 403.783 to 403.785, "law enforcement agency" means any agency of state, county, city, or metropolitan government, or a combination of these, responsible for employing and directing the action of peace officers, including sheriffs and their deputies, sworn police officers, sworn enforcement officers of the Kentucky State Police or other duly-authorized state law enforcement agency whose officers are persons with authority to make arrests under the provisions of KRS 403.760(2).

(2) The secretary of the Justice Cabinet, or a designee, in consultation with legal, victims services, victim advocacy, and mental professionals with an expertise in domestic violence, shall develop a written model policy and procedures manual related to domestic violence for law enforcement agencies. The model policy shall set forth the core elements required to be addressed in each law enforcement agency's policy. The model policy shall also recommend procedures which may be included in local policies. The model policy shall be developed to comply with the provisions of KRS 403.715 to 403.785. The policy shall include purpose statements; definitions; supervisory responsibilities; procedures for twenty-four (24) hour access to protective orders; procedures for enforcement of court orders or relief when protective orders are violated; procedures for timely and contemporaneous reporting of adult abuse and domestic violence to the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~, Department for Social Services; victim rights, assistance and service responsibilities; and duties related to timely completion of records. The model policy shall be completed no later than four (4) months after July 15, 1996. The cabinet shall distribute a copy of the model policy to each law enforcement agency in the Commonwealth.

(3) No later than January 1 after July 15, 1996 and July 31 of every even numbered year which follows, every law enforcement agency shall submit a copy of the agency's written domestic violence policy to the Justice Cabinet.

(4) If a law enforcement agency fails to submit a copy of the agency's written domestic violence policy in a timely manner, the secretary shall promptly notify the law enforcement agency in writing of the requirements contained in this section.

(5) If the secretary determines that a law enforcement agency has submitted a domestic violence policy which is inadequate, the secretary shall reject the policy and provide assistance to the agency in developing an adequate domestic violence policy.

Section 582. KRS 403.785 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each law enforcement agency shall report all incidents of actual or suspected domestic violence and abuse within their knowledge to the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~, Department for Social Services, within forty-eight (48) hours of learning of the incident or of the suspected incident.

(2) When a law enforcement officer has reason to suspect that a family member, member of an unmarried couple, or household member has been the victim of domestic violence and abuse, the officer shall use all reasonable means to prevent further abuse, including but not limited to:

(a) Remaining at the location of the domestic violence and abuse so long as the officer reasonably suspects there is danger to the physical safety of individuals present without the presence of a law enforcement officer;

(b) Assisting the victim of domestic violence and abuse in obtaining medical treatment, including transporting the victim to the nearest medical facility capable of providing the necessary treatment; and

(c) Advising the victim immediately of the rights available to them, including the provisions of KRS 403.715 to 403.785.

Section 583. KRS 405.465 is amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply only to those child support, medical support, maintenance, and medical support insurance orders that are established, modified, or enforced by the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ or those court orders obtained in administering Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act.

(2) All child support orders and medical support insurance orders being established, modified, or enforced by the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~, or those orders obtained pursuant to the administration of Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for income withholding which shall begin immediately.

(3) The court shall order either or both parents who are obligated to pay child support, medical support, or maintenance under this section to assign to the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~ or the domestic relations clerk of the court or other officer designated by the court to receive the payment, that portion of salary or wages of the parent due and to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the child support amount ordered by the court.

(4) The order shall be binding upon the employer or any subsequent employer upon the service by certified mail of a copy of the order upon the employer and until further order of the court. The employer may deduct the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order.

(5) The employer shall notify the cabinet when an employee, for whom a wage withholding is in effect, terminates employment and provide the terminated employee's last known address and the name and address of the terminated employee's new employer, if known.

(6) Any assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(7) No assignment under this section by an employee shall constitute grounds for dismissal of the obligor, refusal to employ, or taking disciplinary action against any obligor subject to withholding required by this section.

Section 584. KRS 405.467 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All support orders issued by the Cabinet for Families and Children~~[Human Resources]~~, including those issued pursuant to Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for immediate withholding of earnings of the parent or parents obligated to pay child support and medical support as is necessary to pay the child support obligation, except where one (1) of the parties demonstrates, and the court or administrative order finds that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding, or a written agreement is reached by both parties which provides for an alternative arrangement.

(2) In any case in which a parent is required to pay court ordered or administratively determined child support, medical support, maintenance, and medical support insurance, wage withholding is not in effect, and an arrearage accrues that is equal to the amount of support payment for one (1) month, upon request of the absent parent, request of the custodial parent, or upon administrative determination, the secretary shall issue an order for withholding of earnings of the parent as is necessary to comply with the order plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, if any.

(3) In any case in which a parent is required either by court order or administrative order to provide medical insurance coverage for the child and the parent has failed to make application to obtain coverage for the child, the secretary shall issue an order for withholding of the employee's share, if any, of premiums for health coverage and to pay the share of premiums to the insurer.

(4) Advance notice shall be sent to the obligor prior to the issuance of the order to withhold earnings. The only basis for contesting the withholding shall be a mistake of fact or law. If the parent contests the withholding, the cabinet shall give the obligor an opportunity to present his or her case at an administrative hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and decide if the withholding will occur, based on an evaluation of the facts within forty-five (45) days from the date of the advance notice. The cabinet shall notify the obligor of the decision of whether the withholding is to occur, the date on which it will begin, and shall furnish the obligor with the information contained in any order served on the employer with respect to the withholding.

(5) The cabinet shall combine any administrative or judicial wage withholding order, or multiple administrative or judicial orders for child support and medical support into a single wage withholding order when payable through the cabinet to a single family or to multiple family units.

(6) The cabinet shall serve the order to withhold earnings or notice of multiple wage withholding orders specifying wage withholding requirements on the employer of an obligor by certified mail, return receipt requested. The order shall state the amount to be withheld, or the requirement to enroll the child under the health insurance coverage, including amounts to be applied to arrearages, plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, if any, and the date the withholding is to begin. The total amount to be withheld, including current support and payment on arrearages plus interest, and medical insurance coverage may not exceed the limit permitted under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b).

(7) If there is more than one (1) notice for child support withholding against a single absent parent, the cabinet shall allocate amounts available for withholding, giving priority to current child support, up to the limits imposed under Section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b). The allocation by the cabinet shall not result in a withholding for one (1) of the support obligations not being implemented. Amounts resulting from wage withholding shall be allocated on a proportionate basis between multiple family units. Any custodial parent adversely affected by the provisions of this subsection shall have standing to challenge any proportionate allocations and, for good cause shown, a District Court, Circuit Court, or Family Court of competent jurisdiction may set aside the cabinet's proportional allocations as to the custodial parent.

(8) If the amounts to be withheld preclude collection of the total amount of combined child support and medical support due to the limits of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b), the actual amount received shall be applied first to the current monthly child support obligation amount. Any payment exceeding the current monthly child support obligation shall then be applied by the cabinet to the administratively-ordered or judicially-ordered medical support obligation.

(9) The employer shall be held liable to the cabinet for any amount which the employer fails to withhold from earnings due an obligor following receipt of an order to withhold earnings.

(g) An order of restitution shall not preclude the owner of property or the victim who suffered personal physical or mental injury or out-of-pocket loss of earnings or support or other damages from proceeding in a civil action to recover damages from the defendant. A civil verdict shall be reduced by the amount paid under the criminal restitution order.

(4) In addition to any other terms and conditions imposed under this section, the court may require the probationer, as a condition of his probation, to make one (1) payment to a crime stoppers organization in an amount not to exceed the amount of the reward paid by a crime stoppers organization, as defined by KRS 431.570, relative to the probationer.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 15.420 is amended to read as follows:

As used in KRS 15.410 to 15.510, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Local unit of government" means any city or county, or any combination of cities and counties, or county sheriff's office of the Commonwealth.

(2) "Police officer" means a full-time member of a lawfully organized police department of county or city government, a sheriff, or full-time deputy sheriff appointed pursuant to KRS 70.030 and 64.345 or to KRS 70.030 and 64.530, who is responsible for the prevention and detection of crime and the enforcement of the general criminal laws of the state, but does not include Kentucky State Police, any special~~[elected officer, sheriff,]~~ deputy sheriff appointed pursuant to KRS 70.045, any constable, deputy constable, district detective, deputy district detective, special local peace officer, auxiliary police officer or any other peace officer not specifically authorized in KRS 15.410 to 15.510.

(3) "Council" means the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council.

Section 2. KRS 15.440 is amended to read as follows:

Each local unit of government which meets the following requirements shall be eligible to share in the distribution of funds from the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund:

(1) Employs one (1) or more police officers;

(2) Pays every police officer a minimum annual salary of four thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($4,350);

(3) Maintains the minimum educational requirement of a high school degree, or its equivalent as determined by the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council, for employment of police officers on or after July 1, 1972; provided, however, that all police officers employed prior to July 1, 1972, shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this subsection, and all sheriffs serving in office on the effective date of this Act and all deputy sheriffs employed prior to the effective date of this Act shall also be deemed to have met the requirements of this subsection;

(4) Requires all police officers employed on or after July 1, 1972, to successfully complete a basic training course of at least four hundred (400) hours' duration within one year of the date of employment at a school certified or recognized by the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council; notwithstanding the authority of any department or administrative agency of state government to promulgate administrative regulations, no such department or administrative agency may, by administrative action, increase the minimum number of hours for a basic training course specified in this subsection;

(5) Requires all police officers, whether originally employed before or after July 1, 1972, to successfully complete each calendar year an in-service training course, appropriate to the officer's rank and responsibility and the size and location of his department, of at least forty (40) hours' duration at a school certified or recognized by the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council;

(6) Requires compliance with all provisions of law applicable to local police, or sheriffs and their deputies, including transmission of data to the centralized criminal history record information system as required by KRS 17.150;

(7) Requires compliance with all reasonable rules and regulations, appropriate to the size and location of the local police department, or sheriff's office, issued by the Justice Cabinet to facilitate the administration of the fund and further the purposes of KRS 15.410 to 15.510;

(8) Provided, however, that no local unit of government which meets the criteria of this section shall be eligible to continue sharing in the distribution of funds from the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund unless the local police department or sheriff's office actually begins and continues to comply with the requirements of this section; provided, further, that no local unit shall be eligible to share in the distribution of funds from the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund until the local police department or sheriff's office has substantially complied with subsections (6) and (7) of this section, except each sheriff or deputy who is eligible for participation, and whose office meets the criteria of this section, shall be allowed to receive his share of the fund regardless of the participation of any other member of that sheriff's office.

Section 3. KRS 15.460 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Beginning July 1, 1982, an eligible local unit of government shall be entitled to receive annually a supplement of three[~~two~~] thousand[~~ five hundred~~] dollars ($3,000)[~~($2,500)~~] for each qualified police officer it employs, plus an amount equal to the required employer's contribution on the supplement to the defined benefit pension plan to which the officer belongs, but no more than the required employer's contribution to the County Employees Retirement System hazardous duty category. In the case of County Employees Retirement System membership, the pension contribution on the supplement shall be paid whether the officer enters the system under hazardous duty coverage or nonhazardous coverage. The local unit of government shall pay the amount received for retirement coverage to the appropriate retirement system to cover the required employer contribution on the pay supplement. Should the foundation program funds be insufficient to pay employer contributions to the system, then the total amount available for pension payments shall be prorated to each eligible government so that each receives the same percentage of required pension costs attributable to the cash salary supplement.

(2) Each qualified police officer, whose local government receives a supplement pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, shall be paid by the local government the supplement which his qualifications brought to the local government. The supplement paid each police officer shall be in addition to his regular salary.

(3) (a) Each qualified sheriff who receives the maximum salary allowed by Section 246 of the Constitution of Kentucky, and KRS 64.527 shall not receive the supplement;

(b) Each qualified sheriff who does not receive the maximum salary allowed by Section 246 of the Kentucky Constitution and KRS 64.527 shall, upon final settlement with the fiscal court pursuant to KRS 134.310, receive that portion of the supplement which will bring his compensation up to the maximum salary. The expense allowance provided by KRS 70.170 shall not be considered in computing the maximum salary;

(c) Each qualified sheriff who seeks to participate in the fund shall forward a copy of the final settlement, prepared pursuant to KRS 134.310, to the fund. The fund shall be reimbursed by the sheriff if an audit of the final settlement, conducted pursuant to KRS 134.310, reflects that the sheriff received all or a portion of the supplement in violation of this section. A sheriff who fails to provide a copy of the final settlement to the fund or to reimburse the fund after correction by audit, if required, shall not be qualified to participate in the fund for a period of two (2) years; and

(d) The sheriff shall designate who administers his payroll to the administrator of the fund. The administrator of the fund shall disburse the supplement to that designee for distribution to the qualified deputies. Each deputy to whom a payment is due shall receive that payment as a salary supplement. The failure of a sheriff to comply with the provisions of this section shall not affect the qualification of his deputies for participation in the fund.

Section 4. KRS 95A.250 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Beginning July 1, 1982, an eligible local government shall be entitled to receive annually a supplement of three[~~two~~] thousand[~~ five hundred~~] dollars ($3,000)[~~($2,500)~~] for each qualified professional firefighter it employs, plus an amount equal to the required employer's contribution on the supplement to the defined benefit pension plan, or to a plan qualified under Section 401(a) or Section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended, provided that the employer's contribution on the supplement to any of these plans shall not exceed that amount which is required of employers under the County Employees Retirement System pursuant to KRS Chapter 78, to which the officer belongs, but no more than the required employer's contribution to the County Employees Retirement System hazardous duty category. In the case of County Employees Retirement System membership, the pension contribution on the supplement shall be paid whether the officer enters the system under hazardous duty coverage or nonhazardous coverage. The local unit of government shall pay the amount received for retirement coverage to the appropriate retirement system to cover the required employer contribution on the pay supplement. Should the foundation program funds be insufficient to pay employer contributions to the system, then the total amount available for pension payments shall be prorated to each eligible government so that each receives the same percentage of required pension costs attributable to the cash salary supplement.

(2) Each qualified professional firefighter, whose local government receives a supplement pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, shall be paid by that local government the supplement which his qualifications brought to the local government. The supplement paid each qualified firefighter shall be in addition to his regular salary.

Section 5. KRS 95A.262 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall, in cooperation with the Cabinet for Human Resources, develop and implement a continuing program to inoculate every paid and volunteer firefighter in Kentucky against hepatitis B. The program shall be funded from revenues allocated to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund pursuant to KRS 136.392 and 42.190. Any fire department which has inoculated its personnel during the period of July 1, 1991 to July 14, 1992, shall be reimbursed from these revenues for its costs incurred up to the amount allowed by the Cabinet for Human Resources for hepatitis B inoculations.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section and KRS 61.316, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall allot on an annual basis a share of the funds accruing to and appropriated for volunteer fire department aid to volunteer fire departments in cities of all classes, fire protection districts organized pursuant to KRS Chapter 75, county districts established under authority of KRS 67.083, and volunteer fire departments created as nonprofit corporations pursuant to KRS Chapter 273. The commission shall allot seven[~~five~~] thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500)[~~($5,000)~~] annually to each qualifying department. Any qualifying department which fails to participate satisfactorily in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system as described in KRS 304.13-380 shall forfeit annually five hundred dollars ($500) of its allotment. The commission shall recommend to the commissioner of the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A to define satisfactory participation in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system. Administrative regulations for determining qualifications shall be based on the number of both paid firefighters and volunteer firemen within a volunteer fire department, the amount of equipment, housing facilities available, and such other matters or standards as will best effect the purposes of the volunteer fire department aid law. A qualifying department shall include at least twelve (12) firefighters, a chief, and at least one (1) operational fire apparatus or one (1) on order. Fifty percent (50%) of the firefighters shall have completed at least one half (1/2) of one hundred fifty (150) training hours toward certification within the first six (6) months of the first year of the department's application for certification, and there shall be a plan to complete the one hundred fifty (150) training hours within the second year. These personnel, equipment, and training requirements shall not be made more stringent by the promulgation of administrative regulations. No allotment shall exceed the total value of the funds, equipment, lands, and buildings made available to the local fire units from any source whatever for the year in which the allotment is made. A portion of the funds provided for above may be used to purchase group or blanket health insurance and shall be used to purchase workers' compensation insurance, and the remaining funds shall be distributed as set forth in this section.

(3) There shall be allotted two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund that shall be allocated each fiscal year of the biennium to the firefighters training center fund, which is hereby created and established, for the purposes of constructing new or upgrading existing training centers for firefighters. If any moneys in the training center fund remain uncommitted, unobligated, or unexpended at the close of the first fiscal year of the biennium, then such moneys shall be carried forward to the second fiscal year of the biennium, and shall be reallocated to and for the use of the training center fund, in addition to the second fiscal year's allocation of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Prior to funding any project pursuant to this subsection, a proposed project shall be approved by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education as provided in subsection (4) of this section and shall comply with state laws applicable to capital construction projects.

(4) Applications for funding low-interest loans and firefighters training centers shall be submitted to the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education for their recommendation, approval, disapproval, or modification. The commission shall review applications periodically, and shall, subject to funds available, recommend which applications shall be funded and at what levels, together with any terms and conditions the commission deems necessary.

(5) Any department or entity eligible for and receiving funding pursuant to this section shall have a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of its personnel certified as recognized by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education.

(6) Upon the written request of any department, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall make available a certified training program in a county of which such department is located.

(7) The amount of reimbursement for any given year for costs incurred by the department for administering these funds, including, but not limited to the expenses and costs of commission operations, shall be determined by the commission and shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the total amount of moneys accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund which are allotted for the purposes specified in this section during any fiscal year.

(8) The commission shall withhold from the general distribution of funds under subsection (2) of this section an amount which it deems sufficient to reimburse volunteer fire departments for equipment lost or damaged beyond repair due to hazardous material incidents.

(9) Moneys withheld pursuant to subsection (8) of this section shall be distributed only under the following terms and conditions:

(a) A volunteer fire department has lost or damaged beyond repair items of personal protective clothing or equipment due to that equipment having been lost or damaged as a result of an incident in which a hazardous material (as defined in any state or federal statute or regulation) was the causative agent of the loss;

(b) The volunteer fire department has made application in writing to the commission for reimbursement in a manner approved by the commission and the loss and the circumstances thereof have been verified by the commission;

(c) The loss of or damage to the equipment has not been reimbursed by the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident or by any other person;

(d) The commission has determined that the volunteer fire department does not have the fiscal resources to replace the equipment;

(e) The commission has determined that the equipment sought to be replaced is immediately necessary to protect the lives of the volunteer firefighters of the fire department;

(f) The fire department has agreed in writing to subrogate all claims for and rights to reimbursement for the lost or damaged equipment to the Commonwealth to the extent that the Commonwealth provides reimbursement to the department; and

(g) The department has shown to the satisfaction of the commission that it has made reasonable attempts to secure reimbursement for its losses from the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident and has been unsuccessful in the effort.

(10) If a volunteer fire department has met all of the requirements of subsection (9) of this section, the commission may authorize a reimbursement of equipment losses not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or the actual amount of the loss, whichever is less.

(11) Moneys which have been withheld during any fiscal year which remain unexpended at the end of the fiscal year shall be distributed in the normal manner required by subsection (2) of this section during the following fiscal year.

(12) No volunteer fire department may receive funding for equipment losses more than once during any fiscal year.

(13) The commission shall make reasonable efforts to secure reimbursement from the responsible party for any moneys awarded to a fire department pursuant to this section.

(14) There shall be allotted each year of the 1992-93 biennium one million dollars ($1,000,000), and each year of the 1994-95, 1996-97, 1998-99, and 2000-01 bienniums one million dollars ($1,000,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund for the purpose of creating a revolving low-interest loan fund, which shall thereafter be self-sufficient and derive its operating revenues from principal and interest payments. The commission, in accordance with the procedures in subsection (4) of this section, may make low-interest loans, and the interest thereon shall not exceed three percent (3%) annually or the amount needed to sustain operating expenses of the loan fund, whichever is less, to volunteer fire departments for the purposes of major equipment purchases and facility construction. Loans shall be made to departments which achieve the training standards necessary to qualify for volunteer fire department aid allotted pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and which do not have other sources of funds at rates which are favorable given their financial resources. The proceeds of loan payments shall be returned to the loan fund for the purpose of providing future loans. If a department does not make scheduled loan payments, the commission may withhold any grants payable to the department pursuant to subsection (2) of this section until the department is current on its payments. Money in the low-interest loan fund shall be used only for the purposes specified in this subsection. Any funds remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year for the purposes of the fund.

Section 6. KRS 42.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On June 1, 1982, and then on or before the first day of each December, March, June, and September thereafter, the cabinet shall request in writing of the administrator of the Firefighters Foundation Program fund, which is established by KRS 95A.220, and of the administrator of the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund, which is established by KRS 15.430, cost projections of their respective funds for the next quarter. Based on these projections, the cabinet shall determine the proportionate share of total insurance premium surcharge proceeds, prescribed in KRS 136.392, to accrue to each fund.

(2) On or before the first day of each quarter, the cabinet shall certify to the State Treasurer a distribution schedule describing the proportionate share of total insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to each fund during such quarter, and the State Treasurer shall pay into each fund's trust and agency account its proportionate share of all deposited tax moneys as set forth and in the manner as prescribed in KRS 136.392.

(3) Moneys deposited in the Firefighters Foundation Program fund's trust and agency account, and in the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund's trust and agency account, shall be invested by the state in accordance with state investment practices, and all earnings from such investments shall accrue to, and be paid into the respective account from which such investments are made. All moneys remaining on deposit at the close of the state's fiscal year in the Firefighters Foundation Program fund's trust and agency account and all earnings from investments made from moneys in this account in excess of three[~~one~~] million dollars $3,000,000[~~($1,000,000), beginning with fiscal year 1994-95,~~] shall lapse, except that moneys in the revolving loan fund established in KRS 95A.262 shall not lapse. All moneys remaining on deposit at the close of the state's fiscal year in the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund's trust and agency account, and all earnings from investments made from moneys in this account, in excess of three[~~one~~] million dollars ($3,000,000[~~($1,000,000), beginning with fiscal year 1994-95,~~] shall lapse.

(4) The cabinet shall provide monthly financial reports to the administrator of the Firefighters Foundation Program fund and the administrator of the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund respecting the amount of funds received and on deposit in each fund and the amount of earnings accruing to each fund from their investment.

Section 5. KRS 95A.262 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall, in cooperation with the Cabinet for Human Resources, develop and implement a continuing program to inoculate every paid and volunteer firefighter in Kentucky against hepatitis B. The program shall be funded from revenues allocated to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund pursuant to KRS 136.392 and 42.190. Any fire department which has inoculated its personnel during the period of July 1, 1991 to July 14, 1992, shall be reimbursed from these revenues for its costs incurred up to the amount allowed by the Cabinet for Human Resources for hepatitis B inoculations.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section and KRS 61.316, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall allot on an annual basis a share of the funds accruing to and appropriated for volunteer fire department aid to volunteer fire departments in cities of all classes, fire protection districts organized pursuant to KRS Chapter 75, county districts established under authority of KRS 67.083, and volunteer fire departments created as nonprofit corporations pursuant to KRS Chapter 273. The commission shall allot six[~~five~~] thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500)[~~($5,000)~~] annually to each qualifying department, and beginning on July 1 of 1999, the commission shall allot seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) annually to each qualifying department. Any qualifying department which fails to participate satisfactorily in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system as described in KRS 304.13-380 shall forfeit annually five hundred dollars ($500) of its allotment. The commission shall recommend to the commissioner of the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A to define satisfactory participation in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system. Administrative regulations for determining qualifications shall be based on the number of both paid firefighters and volunteer firemen within a volunteer fire department, the amount of equipment, housing facilities available, and such other matters or standards as will best effect the purposes of the volunteer fire department aid law. A qualifying department shall include at least twelve (12) firefighters, a chief, and at least one (1) operational fire apparatus or one (1) on order. Fifty percent (50%) of the firefighters shall have completed at least one half (1/2) of one hundred fifty (150) training hours toward certification within the first six (6) months of the first year of the department's application for certification, and there shall be a plan to complete the one hundred fifty (150) training hours within the second year. These personnel, equipment, and training requirements shall not be made more stringent by the promulgation of administrative regulations. No allotment shall exceed the total value of the funds, equipment, lands, and buildings made available to the local fire units from any source whatever for the year in which the allotment is made. A portion of the funds provided for above may be used to purchase group or blanket health insurance and shall be used to purchase workers' compensation insurance, and the remaining funds shall be distributed as set forth in this section.

(3) There shall be allotted two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund that shall be allocated each fiscal year of the biennium to the firefighters training center fund, which is hereby created and established, for the purposes of constructing new or upgrading existing training centers for firefighters. If any moneys in the training center fund remain uncommitted, unobligated, or unexpended at the close of the first fiscal year of the biennium, then such moneys shall be carried forward to the second fiscal year of the biennium, and shall be reallocated to and for the use of the training center fund, in addition to the second fiscal year's allocation of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Prior to funding any project pursuant to this subsection, a proposed project shall be approved by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education as provided in subsection (4) of this section and shall comply with state laws applicable to capital construction projects.

(4) Applications for funding low-interest loans and firefighters training centers shall be submitted to the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education for their recommendation, approval, disapproval, or modification. The commission shall review applications periodically, and shall, subject to funds available, recommend which applications shall be funded and at what levels, together with any terms and conditions the commission deems necessary.

(5) Any department or entity eligible for and receiving funding pursuant to this section shall have a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of its personnel certified as recognized by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education.

(6) Upon the written request of any department, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall make available a certified training program in a county of which such department is located.

(7) The amount of reimbursement for any given year for costs incurred by the department for administering these funds, including, but not limited to the expenses and costs of commission operations, shall be determined by the commission and shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the total amount of moneys accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund which are allotted for the purposes specified in this section during any fiscal year.

(8) The commission shall withhold from the general distribution of funds under subsection (2) of this section an amount which it deems sufficient to reimburse volunteer fire departments for equipment lost or damaged beyond repair due to hazardous material incidents.

(9) Moneys withheld pursuant to subsection (8) of this section shall be distributed only under the following terms and conditions:

(a) A volunteer fire department has lost or damaged beyond repair items of personal protective clothing or equipment due to that equipment having been lost or damaged as a result of an incident in which a hazardous material (as defined in any state or federal statute or regulation) was the causative agent of the loss;

(b) The volunteer fire department has made application in writing to the commission for reimbursement in a manner approved by the commission and the loss and the circumstances thereof have been verified by the commission;

(c) The loss of or damage to the equipment has not been reimbursed by the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident or by any other person;

(d) The commission has determined that the volunteer fire department does not have the fiscal resources to replace the equipment;

(e) The commission has determined that the equipment sought to be replaced is immediately necessary to protect the lives of the volunteer firefighters of the fire department;

(f) The fire department has agreed in writing to subrogate all claims for and rights to reimbursement for the lost or damaged equipment to the Commonwealth to the extent that the Commonwealth provides reimbursement to the department; and

(g) The department has shown to the satisfaction of the commission that it has made reasonable attempts to secure reimbursement for its losses from the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident and has been unsuccessful in the effort.

(10) If a volunteer fire department has met all of the requirements of subsection (9) of this section, the commission may authorize a reimbursement of equipment losses not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or the actual amount of the loss, whichever is less.

(11) Moneys which have been withheld during any fiscal year which remain unexpended at the end of the fiscal year shall be distributed in the normal manner required by subsection (2) of this section during the following fiscal year.

(12) No volunteer fire department may receive funding for equipment losses more than once during any fiscal year.

(13) The commission shall make reasonable efforts to secure reimbursement from the responsible party for any moneys awarded to a fire department pursuant to this section.

(14) There shall be allotted each year of the 1992-93 biennium one million dollars ($1,000,000), and each year of the 1994-95, 1996-97, 1998-99, and 2000-01 bienniums one million dollars ($1,000,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund for the purpose of creating a revolving low-interest loan fund, which shall thereafter be self-sufficient and derive its operating revenues from principal and interest payments. The commission, in accordance with the procedures in subsection (4) of this section, may make low-interest loans, and the interest thereon shall not exceed three percent (3%) annually or the amount needed to sustain operating expenses of the loan fund, whichever is less, to volunteer fire departments for the purposes of major equipment purchases and facility construction. Loans shall be made to departments which achieve the training standards necessary to qualify for volunteer fire department aid allotted pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and which do not have other sources of funds at rates which are favorable given their financial resources. The proceeds of loan payments shall be returned to the loan fund for the purpose of providing future loans. If a department does not make scheduled loan payments, the commission may withhold any grants payable to the department pursuant to subsection (2) of this section until the department is current on its payments. Money in the low-interest loan fund shall be used only for the purposes specified in this subsection. Any funds remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year for the purposes of the fund.

HB 104, AN ACT relating to school district superintendents.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 160.350 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After considering the recommendations of a screening committee, as provided in KRS 160.352, each board of education shall appoint a superintendent of schools whose term of office shall begin on July 1, following his appointment. The appointment may be for a term of no more than four (4) years. In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of superintendent prior to the expiration of the term set by the board, the term shall expire on the date the vacancy occurs. Therefore, the board may appoint a superintendent for a new term as provided in this subsection, which shall begin on the date of the superintendent's appointment, except when the vacancy occurs after a school board election and before the newly elected members take office. When a vacancy occurs during this period, the position shall not be filled until the new members take office, but the board may appoint an acting superintendent to serve a term not to exceed six (6) months. This appointment may be renewed once for a period not to exceed three (3) months.[~~The person appointed to serve as acting superintendent shall not be an applicant for, nor be appointed to, the position of superintendent.~~] If a vacancy occurs, a local board may also appoint an acting superintendent during the period the screening committee pursuant to KRS 160.352 conducts its business and prior to the actual appointment of the new superintendent. No superintendent shall resign his term and accept a new term from the same board of education prior to the expiration date of his present term. In the case of a vacancy in the office for an unexpired term, the board of education shall make the appointment so that the term will end on June 30. The board shall set the salary of the superintendent to be paid in regular installments.

(2) Before any superintendent assumes his duties, he shall present to the board of education that appointed him a statement signed by the chief state school officer that the superintendent has been duly issued a certificate of administration and supervision issued in accordance with the provisions of law and which qualifies him to hold the position to which he has been appointed, and he shall hold such certificate throughout the period of his employment. A superintendent candidate who is to begin his duties after June 30, 1994, shall successfully complete the training program and assessment center process within one (1) year of assuming his duties as superintendent. A superintendent shall not serve as director or officer of a bank, trust company, or savings or loan association which has his school district funds on deposit. Following appointment, the superintendent shall establish residency in Kentucky.

(3) A superintendent of schools may be removed for cause by a vote of four-fifths (4/5) of the membership of a board of education and upon approval by the chief state school officer. However, if the dismissal of the superintendent has been recommended by a Kentucky distinguished educator pursuant to KRS 158.6455 and the action is approved by the chief state school officer, the board shall terminate the superintendent's contract. Written notice setting out the charges for removal shall be spread on the minutes of the board and given to the superintendent. The board shall seek approval by the chief state school officer for removing the superintendent. The chief state school officer shall investigate the accuracy of the charges made, evaluate the superintendent's overall performance during his appointment, and consider the educational performance of the students in the district. Within thirty (30) days of notification, he shall either approve or reject the board's request.

HB 185, AN ACT relating to student activities.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 158.153 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless the action is taken pursuant to KRS 158.150, no school, school administrator, teacher, or other school employee shall expel or punish a child based on information contained in a record of an adjudication of delinquency or conviction of an offense received by the school pursuant to KRS 610.345 or from any other source. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit a local school board or school official from instituting disciplinary proceedings against any student for violating the discipline policy of the school or school district or taking actions necessary to protect staff and students. Actions to protect staff and students may be taken only after the principal makes a determination that the conduct of the student reflected in the records of the school or obtained by the school from the court indicates a substantial likelihood of an immediate and continuing threat that the student will cause harm to students or staff, and that the restrictions to be ordered represent the least restrictive alternative available and appropriate to remedy the threat, and that the determination and supporting material be documented in the child's record. The action of the principal, in addition to or in lieu of any other procedure available, may be appealed by the child or the child's parent or guardian to the superintendent of the school system or to the Circuit Court in the county in which the school is located, and the appealing party may be represented by counsel.

(2) No school, school administrator, teacher, or other school employee who has custody of records received or maintained by the school pursuant to KRS 610.345 or who has received information contained in or relating to a record received by the school pursuant to KRS 610.345 shall disclose the fact of the record's existence, or any information contained in the record or received from the record to any other person, including but not limited to other teachers, school employees, pupils, or parents other than the pupil, or parents of the pupil who is the subject of the record.

(3) The child and his parent or guardian shall have a civil cause of action against the school board and against any school administrator violating subsection (1) or (2) of this section or divulging information in violation of KRS 610.345 or 610.340. This civil cause of action shall be in addition to any other criminal or administrative remedy provided by law.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a local board of education from establishing district-wide standards of behavior for students who participate in extracurricular and cocurricular activities, including athletics. A school principal may deny or terminate a student's eligibility to participate in extracurricular or cocurricular activities if the student has violated the local district behavior standards or the council's criteria for participation, as described in KRS 160.345(2)(i)8. A student's right to participate in extracurricular or cocurricular activities, including athletics may be suspended, pending investigation of an allegation that the standards of behavior have been violated.

(1) The polls shall be opened on the day of a primary, runoff primary, special election, or regular election at 6 a.m., prevailing time, and shall remain open~~[continuously]~~ until each~~[6 p.m., prevailing time. Any]~~ voter who is waiting in line at the polls at 6 p.m., prevailing time, has voted. At 6 p.m., prevailing time, if voters are waiting at the polls to vote, the precinct election sheriff shall announce that a voter wishing to vote must immediately get in line. When all voters waiting at the polls at that time are in line, the precinct election sheriff shall then determine which voter is the last in line, and that voter shall be the last voter permitted to vote. The precinct election sheriff shall wait in line with the last voter who shall be permitted to vote until that voter has voted and shall inform a voter who subsequently arrives at the polls that no one shall be permitted to vote after the last voter in line at 6 p.m., prevailing time. After the last voter waiting in line at 6 p.m., prevailing time, has voted, the polls shall then be closed~~[to cast his vote at closing time, and who has been unable to cast his vote before closing time because of the large numbers of voters casting their votes, shall be allowed to cast his vote as soon after closing time as practicable; provided, however, that no vote shall be cast after 7 p.m. No voter who arrives at the polls after 6 p.m., prevailing time, shall be allowed to cast his vote]~~.

(2) As provided in Section 148 of the Constitution of Kentucky, any person entitled to a vote at any election in this state shall, if he has made application for leave prior to the day he appears before the county clerk to request an application for or to execute an absentee ballot, be entitled to absent himself from any services or employment in which he is then engaged or employed for a reasonable time, but not less than four (4) hours on the day he appears before the clerk to request an application for or to execute an absentee ballot, during normal business hours of the office of the clerk or to cast his ballot on the day of the election between the time of opening and closing the polls. The employer may specify the hours during which an employee may absent himself.

No person shall refuse an employee the privilege hereby conferred, or discharge or threaten to discharge an employee or subject an employee to a penalty, because of the exercise of the privilege.

Section 2. Whereas the date of the next political party primary precedes the normal effective date for legislation enacted during this regular session, and whereas some voters in that primary may be disenfranchised without the change in the time for closing the polls as prescribed in this Act being applied to that primary, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law.

No person other than the candidate or slate of candidates shall contribute for special election expenses after the date of the special election.

(18) Nothing in subsections (14) to (17) of this section shall be deemed to prohibit a slate of candidates from receiving transfers from the election campaign fund established by KRS 121A.020 for which it is eligible for matches of qualifying contributions received prior to the date of the election but for which no transfer from the fund had been made prior to the date of the election.

(19) The provisions of subsections (14) and (16) of this section shall apply only to those candidates in a primary or regular election which shall be conducted subsequent to January 1, 1989. However, it shall not be a violation of this subsection for a state employee to receive a solicitation directed to him as a registered voter in an identified precinct as part of an overall plan to contact voters not identified as state employees.

(26)[~~(25)~~] (a) A candidate for elective public office, except slates of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, shall not accept contributions from permanent committees which, in the aggregate, exceed fifty percent (50%) of the total contributions accepted by the candidate in any one (1) election or ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in any one (1) election, whichever is the greater amount. Section 3. KRS 121.180 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee shall be exempt from filing any preelection finance reports required by subsection (3) of this section or KRS 121A.020(5), whichever is applicable, if the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman files a form prescribed and furnished by the registry stating that contributions will not be accepted or expended in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election to further the candidacy or to support or oppose a constitutional amendment or public question which will appear on the ballot. For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing preelection campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (k)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(b) Any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee shall be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports required by subsections (3) and (4) of this section or KRS 121A.020(5), whichever is applicable, if the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman files a form prescribed and furnished by the registry stating that currently no contributions have been received and that contributions will not be accepted or expended in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) in any one (1) election. For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (k)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(c) For a primary election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than the deadline for filing nomination papers and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. For a runoff primary election, a slate of candidates shall file its request for exemption not later than five (5) days after the date of the preceding primary election and shall be bound by its terms unless rescinded in writing not later than ten (10) days after the date of the preceding primary election. For a regular election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file or rescind in writing a request for exemption not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date of the preceding primary election, or runoff primary, if one is held, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection. For a special election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the candidate or slate of candidates is nominated for a special election and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date on which the nomination for a special election is made. A political issues committee chairman shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the date on which the committee registers with the registry and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the date on which the request for exemption is filed.

(d) 1. A candidate or slate of candidates that revokes a request for exemption in a timely manner may exercise the remaining option or may file all reports required of a candidate intending to raise or spend in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in an election. If a candidate or slate of candidates elects to exercise a different option, the candidate or slate of candidates shall file the appropriate form with the officer who received the filing papers of the candidate or slate of candidates not later than the deadline for filing a revocation.

2. A candidate for any city or county office or for any school board office, who is exempted from some or all campaign finance reporting requirements pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection but who accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the exempted amount in an election, shall file all applicable reports required for the remainder of that election, based upon the amount of contributions or expenditures the candidate accepts or receives in that election. The filing of applicable required reports by a candidate after the exempted amount is exceeded shall serve as notice to the registry that the initial exemption has been rescinded. No further notice to the registry shall be required and no penalty for exceeding the initial exempted amount shall be imposed against the candidate, except for failure to file applicable reports required after the exempted amount is exceeded.

(e) Any candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline and that intends to execute a request for exemption shall file the appropriate request for exemption not later than the filing deadline and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. A candidate or slate of candidates that is covered by this paragraph shall have the same reversion rights as those provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(f) Any candidate or slate of candidates that will appear on the ballot in a regular election that has signed either request for exemption for that election may exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection if a candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline subsequently files in opposition to the candidate or slate of candidates. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, a candidate or slate of candidates covered by this paragraph shall comply with the deadline for rescission provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(g) Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption for a regular election that later is opposed by a person who has filed a declaration of intent to receive write-in votes may rescind the request for exemption and exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(h) Any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption may petition the registry to determine whether another person is campaigning as a write-in candidate prior to having filed a declaration of intent to receive write-in votes, and, if the registry determines upon a preponderance of the evidence that a person who may later be a write-in candidate is conducting a campaign, the candidate or slate of candidates, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, may petition the registry to permit the candidate or slate of candidates to exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(i) If the opponent of a candidate or slate of candidates is replaced due to his withdrawal because of death, disability, or disqualification, the candidate or slate of candidates, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, may exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection not later than fifteen (15) days after the party executive committee nominates a replacement for the withdrawn candidate or slate of candidates.

(j) A person intending to be a write-in candidate for any office in a regular or special election may execute a request for exemption under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than the date of the regular or special election. A person intending to be a write-in candidate who revokes a request for exemption in a timely manner may exercise the remaining exemption option or may file all reports required of a candidate intending to raise or spend in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in an election. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, a person intending to be a write-in candidate who elects to exercise a different exemption option shall file the appropriate form with the officer who received the initial request for exemption not later than the date of the regular or special election.

(k) Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, the campaign committee of any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption or a political issues committee whose chairman has filed a request for exemption shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in a timely manner and no new request for exemption has been executed.

(l)[~~(k)~~] 1. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee that is exempt from filing campaign finance reports pursuant to paragraph (a), (b),[~~ or~~] (e), or (j) of this subsection that accepts contributions or makes expenditures, or whose campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures, in excess of the applicable limit in any one (1) election without rescinding the request for exemption in a timely manner shall comply with all applicable reporting requirements and, in lieu of other penalties prescribed by law, pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) plus the amount by which the spending limit was exceeded.

2. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, a candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, or political issues committee that is exempt from filing campaign finance reports pursuant to paragraph (a), (b),[~~ or~~] (e), or (j) of this subsection that knowingly accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the applicable spending limit in any one (1) election without rescinding the request for exemption in a timely manner shall comply with all applicable reporting requirements and shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

The receipts and expenditures of funds remitted to each political party under KRS 141.071 to 141.073 shall be separately accounted for and reported to the registry in the manner required by KRS 121.230. The separate report may be made a separate section within the report required, by this subsection, to be in the hands of the registry or postmarked within five (5) days after the thirtieth day following[~~submitted within thirty (30) days after~~] each regular election.

(3) (a) Except for candidates or slates of candidates, campaign committees, or political issues committees exempted from reporting requirements pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, each campaign treasurer of a candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, or political issues committee who accepts contributions or expends, expects to accept contributions or expend, or contracts to expend more than three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election, and each fundraiser who secures contributions in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election, shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry, of all money, loans, or other things of value, received from any source, and expenditures authorized, incurred, and made, since the date of the last report, including:

1. Candidates as defined in KRS 121.015(8), campaign committees, political issues committees, and fundraisers which register in the year before the year an election in which the candidate or public question shall appear on the ballot, shall file financial reports with the registry at the end of the first calendar quarter after the person becomes a candidate or following registration of the committee or fundraiser, and each calendar quarter thereafter, ending with the last calendar quarter of that year. (5) In making the preceding reports, the total gross receipts from each of the following categories shall be listed: proceeds from the sale of tickets for events such as testimonial affairs, dinners, luncheons, rallies, and similar fundraising events, mass collections made at the events, and sales of items such as campaign pins, buttons, hats, ties, literature, and similar materials. When any individual purchase or the aggregate purchases of any item enumerated above from a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office or a campaign committee for a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), the purchaser shall be identified by name, address, age, if less than the legal voting age, occupation, and employer and the employer of the spouse of the purchaser or, if the purchaser or the spouse of the purchaser is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business, and the amount of the purchase. When any individual purchase or the aggregate purchases of any item enumerated above from any candidate or campaign committee other than a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office or campaign committee for a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), the purchaser shall be identified by name, address, age if less than the legal voting age, occupation, and employer, or if the purchaser is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business, and the amount of the purchase. The lists shall be maintained by the campaign treasurer, political issues committee treasurer, registered fundraiser, or other sponsor for inspection by the registry for six (6) years following the date of the election.

(6) Each permanent committee, except a federally-registered out-of-state permanent committee, inaugural committee, or contributing organization shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry of all money, loans, or other things of value, received by it from any source, and all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, since the date of the last report, including:

(a) For each contribution of any amount made by a permanent committee, the name and business address of the permanent committee, the date of the contribution, the amount contributed, and a description of the major business, social, or political interest represented by the permanent committee;

(b) For other contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), the full name, address, age if under the legal voting age, the date of the contribution, the amount of the contribution, and the employer and occupation of each contributor. If the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business shall be listed;

(c) An aggregate amount of cash contributions, the amount contributed by each contributor, and the date of each contribution; and

(d) A complete statement of all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, including independent expenditures. This report shall be made by a permanent committee, inaugural committee, or contributing organization to the registry on the last day of the first calendar quarter following the registration of the committee with the registry and on the last day of each succeeding calendar quarter until such time as the committee terminates. A contributing organization shall file a report of contributions received and expenditures made on forms prescribed by the registry not later than the last day of each calendar quarter in which contributions are received or expenditures are made. All reports to the registry shall be postmarked or received not later than five (5) days after each filing deadline.

(7) If the final statement of a candidate, campaign committee, or political issues committee shows an unexpended balance of contributions, continuing debts and obligations, or an expenditure deficit, the campaign treasurer shall file with the registry a supplemental statement of contributions and expenditures not more than thirty (30) days after the deadline for filing the final statement. Subsequent supplemental statements shall be filed annually, to be in the hands of the registry or postmarked not later than ten (10) days after November 1 of each year, until the account shows no unexpended balance, continuing debts and obligations, expenditures, or deficit, or until the year before the candidate seeks to appear on the ballot for the same office for which the funds in the campaign account were originally contributed, in which case the candidate shall file the supplemental annual report not later than ten (10) days after November 1 of that year or at the end of the first calendar quarter of that year after the candidate files his nomination papers for the next year's primary or regular election. All contributions shall be subject to KRS 121.150.

(8) All reports filed under the provisions of this chapter shall be a matter of public record open to inspection by any member of the public immediately upon receipt of the report by the registry. A duplicate copy of each report filed with the registry shall be filed by the candidate, slate of candidates, or committee with the county clerk in the county in which the candidate or persons running as a slate of candidates reside at the same time. County clerks shall maintain these reports for public inspection for a period of one (1) year from the date the last report is required to be filed.

(9) A candidate or slate of candidates is relieved of the duty personally to file reports and keep records of receipts and expenditures if the candidate or slate states in writing or on forms provided by the registry that:

(a) Within five (5) business days after personally receiving any contributions, the candidate or slate of candidates shall surrender possession of the contributions to the treasurer of their principal campaign committee without expending any of the proceeds thereof. No contributions shall be commingled with the candidate's or slated candidates' personal funds or accounts. Contributions received by check, money order, or other written instrument shall be endorsed directly to the campaign committee and shall not be cashed or redeemed by the candidate;

(b) The candidate or slate of candidates shall not make any unreimbursed expenditure for the campaign, except that this paragraph does not preclude a candidate or slate from making an expenditure from personal funds to the designated principal campaign committee, which shall be reported by the committee as a contribution received; and

(c) The waiver shall continue in effect as long as the candidate or slate of candidates complies with the conditions under which it was granted.

(10) No candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, political issues committee, or contributing organization shall use or permit the use of contributions or funds solicited or received for the person or in support of or opposition to a public issue which will appear on the ballot to further the candidacy of the person for a different public office, to support or oppose a different public issue, or to further the candidacy of any other person for public office; except that nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to prohibit a candidate or slate of candidates from using funds in the campaign account to purchase admission tickets for any fundraising event or testimonial affair for another candidate or slate of candidates if the amount of the purchase does not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per event or affair. Any funds or contributions solicited or received by or on behalf of a candidate, slate of candidates, or any committee, which has been organized in whole or in part to further any candidacy for the same person or to support or oppose the same public issue, shall be deemed to have been solicited or received for the current candidacy or for the election on the public issue if the funds or contributions are solicited or received at any time prior to the regular election for which the candidate, slate of candidates, or public issue is on the ballot. Except as provided in KRS 121A.080(6), any unexpended balance of funds not otherwise obligated for the payment of expenses incurred to further a political issue or the candidacy of a person shall, in whole or in part, at the election of the candidate or committee, escheat to the State Treasury, be returned pro rata to all contributors, or, in the case of a partisan candidate, be transferred to the state or county executive committee of the political party of which the candidate is a member except that a candidate, committee, or an official may retain the funds to further the same public issue or to seek election to the same office or may donate the funds to any charitable, nonprofit, or educational institution recognized under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and any successor thereto.

(11) Any publisher of newspapers or magazines, owner or lessor of billboards, a radio or television station or network, or any other person, company, corporation, or business organization offering its communications or advertising services for hire to the public who receives funds for the purchase of advertising services or material, shall file with the registry a copy of the material or communication purchased which supports or opposes any slate of candidates or committee; a copy of the receipt for the funds paid; the name and address of each purchaser; and the source of the funds for the purchase if different than the purchaser. All information shall be reported to the registry on the thirtieth day preceding and the thirtieth day following the primary and regular elections subsequent to the date that the broadcasting or printing of the advertisement occurs. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to purchases of advertising services or material to support or oppose a slate of candidates for election to the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor. Notwithstanding KRS 121.990 and KRS 121A.990, penalties for violation of this subsection shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of KRS 121.140(2).

Section 4. KRS 121A.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The minimum threshold qualifying amount for a slate of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor in a primary or regular election that elects to be eligible to receive a transfer from the fund shall be three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) in qualifying contributions and the maximum threshold qualifying amount for a primary or regular election shall be six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) in qualifying contributions for any one (1) election. Not more than fifty percent (50%) of a threshold qualifying amount shall be received from residents of the same congressional district. No qualifying slate of candidates shall accept qualifying contributions in any one (1) election which in the aggregate exceed the maximum threshold qualifying amount unless a qualifying slate of candidates has been released from expenditure limitations pursuant to KRS 121A.080(4) or (5). A qualifying slate which discovers that it has received qualifying contributions in excess of the maximum threshold qualifying amount shall, without penalty, dispose of qualifying contributions received after the maximum threshold qualifying amount was reached by returning the excess contributions to the contributors. The excess contributions returned to the contributors shall not be considered as qualifying contributions and shall not be matched by transfers from the fund. After the expenditure limit amounts are adjusted under KRS 121A.030(1) in accordance with the consumer price index for all urban workers, the threshold qualifying amounts shall be increased or decreased accordingly. The adjusted maximum threshold qualifying amount shall be one-third (1/3) of the adjusted expenditure limit amount for a primary or regular election campaign, and the adjusted minimum threshold qualifying amount shall be one-half (1/2) of the adjusted maximum threshold qualifying amount. The[~~in accordance with the consumer price index for all urban workers, and the~~] registry shall make the adjustments in the threshold qualifying amounts[~~that adjustment~~] in a year in which a Governor and Lieutenant Governor are elected not later than the filing deadline for the primary election.

(2) In order to become a qualifying slate of candidates for the purpose of receiving a transfer from the fund in a primary or regular election, or both, a slate of candidates shall request certification from the registry in a form and in the manner which the registry shall prescribe by administrative regulations promulgated in accordance with this chapter.

(3) The registry shall immediately review the request of a slate of candidates for certification to receive a transfer from the fund. The request for certification shall include:

(a) A statement of intent accepting maximum expenditure limitations;

(b) A copy of the slate's nomination papers;

(c) The financial reports filed by or on behalf of the slate of candidates as of the date of the request for certification which indicate that the slate of candidates has raised a threshold qualifying amount in individual qualifying contributions for a transfer from the fund at a two (2) for one (1) matching ratio; and

(d) Any other information reasonably necessary that is required by the registry.

(4) The registry shall certify whether a slate of candidates is eligible to receive a primary election transfer no later than seven (7) working days after the slate submits the required documentation.

(5) The registry shall certify whether a slate of candidates is eligible to receive a regular election transfer not later than seven (7) working days after the slate submits the required documentation; except that if the slate is required to take part in a primary election, the results of the primary election shall have been certified by the registry.

(6) A separate determination and certification shall be made for a primary and a regular election.

(7) The certification issued by the registry shall indicate:

(a) Whether a slate of candidates is eligible to receive a transfer; and

(b) The amount of fund transfers the slate of candidates is eligible to receive based on the amount of qualifying contributions that the slate has received at the time that it requests a transfer eligibility certification.

(8) A slate of candidates may make multiple requests for fund transfer eligibility certification in the course of a primary or regular election at the times and in the manner which the registry shall prescribe by administrative regulation.

(9) If a slate of candidates that has filed a statement of intent to accept a transfer is not eligible to receive a transfer, the certification shall:

(a) State the reasons why the slate of candidates is not eligible to receive a transfer; and

(b) What action, if any, the slate of candidates may take to qualify for a transfer.

(10) A slate of candidates may file with the registry a written request to review the determination of the registry no later than seven (7) calendar days after the date of certification. The registry shall issue a ruling not later than ten (10) days after receiving a request to review its determination.

(11) A slate of candidates denied certification by the registry may appeal an adverse ruling within twenty (20) days by filing a notice of appeal in the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure and the appeal of a ruling by the registry shall be advanced on the docket to permit a timely decision.

(12) No threshold qualifying amount shall be required for a slate of candidates participating in a runoff primary. A qualifying slate of candidates shall be certified to receive a fund transfer for the runoff primary, if one shall be held, upon the registry's certification that the qualifying slate of candidates received the highest or next highest number of votes for its party's nomination for Governor and Lieutenant Governor at the primary election or that a qualifying slate of candidates was determined by lot to be eligible to participate in a runoff primary pursuant to KRS 118.245(6).

(13) No qualifying slate of candidates seeking its party's nomination for Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall be eligible to receive transfers from the fund in a primary or regular election unless at least one (1) opposing slate of candidates has received and deposited in its candidate campaign account funds in an amount not less than the minimum threshold qualifying amount established in subsection (1) of this section. After this requirement has been met in a primary or regular election, qualifying slates may independently qualify for subsequent transfers in that election without regard to the ability of another qualifying slate in that election to qualify for subsequent transfers in that election.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 121.180 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee shall be exempt from filing any preelection finance reports required by subsection (3) of this section or KRS 121A.020(5), whichever is applicable, if the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman files a form prescribed and furnished by the registry stating that contributions will not be accepted or expended in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election to further the candidacy or to support or oppose a constitutional amendment or public question which will appear on the ballot. For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing preelection campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (k)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(b) Any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee shall be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports required by subsections (3) and (4) of this section or KRS 121A.020(5), whichever is applicable, if the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman files a form prescribed and furnished by the registry stating that currently no contributions have been received and that contributions will not be accepted or expended in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) in any one (1) election. For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (k)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(c) For a primary election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than the deadline for filing nomination papers and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. For a runoff primary election, a slate of candidates shall file its request for exemption not later than five (5) days after the date of the preceding primary election and shall be bound by its terms unless rescinded in writing not later than ten (10) days after the date of the preceding primary election. For a regular election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file or rescind in writing a request for exemption not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date of the preceding primary election, or runoff primary, if one is held, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection. For a special election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the candidate or slate of candidates is nominated for a special election and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date on which the nomination for a special election is made. A political issues committee chairman shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the date on which the committee registers with the registry and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the date on which the request for exemption is filed.

(d) 1. A candidate or slate of candidates that revokes a request for exemption in a timely manner may exercise the remaining option or may file all reports required of a candidate intending to raise or spend in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in an election. If a candidate or slate of candidates elects to exercise a different option, the candidate or slate of candidates shall file the appropriate form with the officer who received the filing papers of the candidate or slate of candidates not later than the deadline for filing a revocation.

2. A candidate for any city or county office or for any school board office, who is exempted from some or all campaign finance reporting requirements pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection but who accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the exempted amount in an election, shall file all applicable reports required for the remainder of that election, based upon the amount of contributions or expenditures the candidate accepts or receives in that election. The filing of applicable required reports by a candidate after the exempted amount is exceeded shall serve as notice to the registry that the initial exemption has been rescinded. No further notice to the registry shall be required and no penalty for exceeding the initial exempted amount shall be imposed against the candidate, except for failure to file applicable reports required after the exempted amount is exceeded.

(e) Any candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline and that intends to execute a request for exemption shall file the appropriate request for exemption not later than the filing deadline and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. A candidate or slate of candidates that is covered by this paragraph shall have the same reversion rights as those provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(f) Any candidate or slate of candidates that will appear on the ballot in a regular election that has signed either request for exemption for that election may exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection if a candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline subsequently files in opposition to the candidate or slate of candidates. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, a candidate or slate of candidates covered by this paragraph shall comply with the deadline for rescission provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(g) Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption for a regular election that later is opposed by a person who has filed a declaration of intent to receive write-in votes may rescind the request for exemption and exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(h) Any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption may petition the registry to determine whether another person is campaigning as a write-in candidate prior to having filed a declaration of intent to receive write-in votes, and, if the registry determines upon a preponderance of the evidence that a person who may later be a write-in candidate is conducting a campaign, the candidate or slate of candidates, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, may petition the registry to permit the candidate or slate of candidates to exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(i) If the opponent of a candidate or slate of candidates is replaced due to his withdrawal because of death, disability, or disqualification, the candidate or slate of candidates, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, may exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection not later than fifteen (15) days after the party executive committee nominates a replacement for the withdrawn candidate or slate of candidates.

(j) Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, the campaign committee of any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption or a political issues committee whose chairman has filed a request for exemption shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in a timely manner and no new request for exemption has been executed.

(k) 1. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee that is exempt from filing campaign finance reports pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), or (e) of this subsection that accepts contributions or makes expenditures, or whose campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures, in excess of the applicable limit in any one (1) election without rescinding the request for exemption in a timely manner shall comply with all applicable reporting requirements and, in lieu of other penalties prescribed by law, pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) plus the amount by which the spending limit was exceeded.

2. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, a candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, or political issues committee that is exempt from filing campaign finance reports pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), or (e) of this subsection that knowingly accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the applicable spending limit in any one (1) election without rescinding the request for exemption in a timely manner shall comply with all applicable reporting requirements and shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(2) State and county executive committees shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry, of all money, loans, or other things of value, received from any source, and expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, since the date of the last report, including:

(a) For each contribution of any amount made by a permanent committee, the name and business address of the permanent committee, the date of the contribution, the amount contributed, and a description of the major business, social, or political interest represented by the permanent committee;

(b) For other contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), the full name, address, age if less than the legal voting age, the date of the contribution, the amount of the contribution, and the employer and occupation of each contributor. If the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business shall be listed;

(c) The total amount of cash contributions received during the reporting period; and

(d) A complete statement of expenditures authorized, incurred, or made. The complete statement of expenditures shall include the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure is made in excess of twenty-five dollars ($25), and the amount, date, and purpose of each expenditure. This report shall be made to the registry within thirty (30) days after the primary, runoff primary if slates of candidates of that party participate, and regular elections. If an individual gives a reportable contribution to a state or county executive committee with the intention that the contribution or a portion of the contribution go to a candidate or slate of candidates, the name of the contributor and the sum shall be indicated on the committee report. The receipts and expenditures of funds remitted to each political party under KRS 141.071 to 141.073 shall be separately accounted for and reported to the registry in the manner required by KRS 121.230. The separate report may be made a separate section within the report required, by this subsection, to be submitted within thirty (30) days after each regular election.

(3) (a) Except for candidates or slates of candidates, campaign committees, or political issues committees exempted from reporting requirements pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, each campaign treasurer of a candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, or political issues committee who accepts contributions or expends, expects to accept contributions or expend, or contracts to expend more than three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election, and each fundraiser who secures contributions in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election, shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry, of all money, loans, or other things of value, received from any source, and expenditures authorized, incurred, and made, since the date of the last report, including:

1. For each contribution of any amount made by a permanent committee, the name and business address of the permanent committee, the date of the contribution, the amount contributed, and a description of the major business, social, or political interest represented by the permanent committee;

2. For each contribution in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) made to a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office, or to a campaign committee for a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office, the date, name, address, occupation, and employer of each contributor and the spouse of the contributor or, if the contributor or spouse of the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business, and the amount contributed by each contributor; and

3. For each contribution in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) made to any candidate or campaign committee other than those specified in subparagraph 2. or a political issues committee, the full name, address, age if less than the legal voting age, the date of the contribution, the amount of the contribution, and the employer and occupation of each other contributor. If the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business shall be listed;

4. The total amount of cash contributions received during the reporting period; and

5. A complete statement of all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made. The complete statement of expenditures shall include the name, address, and occupation of each person to whom an expenditure is made in excess of twenty-five dollars ($25), and the amount, date, and purpose of each expenditure.

(b) Reports of all candidates, campaign committees, political issues committees, and registered fundraisers shall be made as follows:

1. Candidates as defined in KRS 121.015(8), campaign committees, political issues committees, and fundraisers which register in the year before the year an election in which the candidate or public question shall appear on the ballot, shall file financial reports with the registry at the end of the first calendar quarter after the person becomes a candidate or following registration of the committee or fundraiser, and each calendar quarter thereafter, ending with the last calendar quarter of that year. Candidates, committees, and registered fundraisers shall make all reports required by this section during the year in which the election takes place;

2. All candidates, campaign committees, political issues committees, and registered fundraisers shall make reports on the thirty-second day preceding an election, including all previous contributions and expenditures;

3. All candidates, campaign committees, political issues committees, and registered fundraisers shall make reports on the fifteenth day preceding the date of the election; and

4. All reports to the registry shall be in the hands of the registry or postmarked within five (5) days after each filing deadline.

(4) Except for candidates, slates of candidates, and political issues committees, exempted pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section, all candidates, regardless of funds received or expended, campaign committees, political issues committees, and registered fundraisers shall make post-election reports within thirty (30) days after the election.

(5) In making the preceding reports, the total gross receipts from each of the following categories shall be listed: proceeds from the sale of tickets for events such as testimonial affairs, dinners, luncheons, rallies, and similar fundraising events, mass collections made at the events, and sales of items such as campaign pins, buttons, hats, ties, literature, and similar materials. When any individual purchase or the aggregate purchases of any item enumerated above from a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office or a campaign committee for a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), the purchaser shall be identified by name, address, age, if less than the legal voting age, occupation, and employer and the employer of the spouse of the purchaser or, if the purchaser or the spouse of the purchaser is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business, and the amount of the purchase. When any individual purchase or the aggregate purchases of any item enumerated above from any candidate or campaign committee other than a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office or campaign committee for a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), the purchaser shall be identified by name, address, age if less than the legal voting age, occupation, and employer, or if the purchaser is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business, and the amount of the purchase. The lists shall be maintained by the campaign treasurer, political issues committee treasurer, registered fundraiser, or other sponsor for inspection by the registry for six (6) years following the date of the election.

(6) Each permanent committee, except a federally-registered out-of-state permanent committee, inaugural committee, or contributing organization shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry of all money, loans, or other things of value, received by it from any source, and all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, since the date of the last report, including:

(a) For each contribution of any amount made by a permanent committee, the name and business address of the permanent committee, the date of the contribution, the amount contributed, and a description of the major business, social, or political interest represented by the permanent committee;

(b) For other contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), the full name, address, age if under the legal voting age, the date of the contribution, the amount of the contribution, and the employer and occupation of each contributor. If the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business shall be listed;

(c) An aggregate amount of cash contributions, the amount contributed by each contributor, and the date of each contribution; and

(d) A complete statement of all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, including independent expenditures. This report shall be made by a permanent committee, inaugural committee, or contributing organization to the registry on the last day of the first calendar quarter following the registration of the committee with the registry and on the last day of each succeeding calendar quarter until such time as the committee terminates. A contributing organization shall file a report of contributions received and expenditures made on forms prescribed by the registry not later than the last day of each calendar quarter in which contributions are received or expenditures are made. All reports to the registry shall be postmarked or received not later than five (5) days after each filing deadline.

(7) If the final statement of a candidate, campaign committee, or political issues committee shows an unexpended balance of contributions, continuing debts and obligations, or an expenditure deficit, the campaign treasurer shall file with the registry a supplemental statement of contributions and expenditures not more than thirty (30) days after the deadline for filing the final statement. Subsequent supplemental statements shall be filed annually, to be in the hands of the registry or postmarked not later than ten (10) days after November 1 of each year, until the account shows no unexpended balance, continuing debts and obligations, expenditures, or deficit, or until the year before the candidate seeks to appear on the ballot for the same office for which the funds in the campaign account were originally contributed, in which case the candidate shall file the supplemental annual report not later than ten (10) days after November 1 of that year or at the end of the first calendar quarter of that year after the candidate files his nomination papers for the next year's primary or regular election. All contributions shall be subject to KRS 121.150.

(8) All reports filed under the provisions of this chapter shall be a matter of public record open to inspection by any member of the public immediately upon receipt of the report by the registry. A duplicate copy of each report filed with the registry shall be filed by the candidate, slate of candidates, or committee with the county clerk in the county in which the candidate or persons running as a slate of candidates reside at the same time. County clerks shall maintain these reports for public inspection for a period of one (1) year from the date the last report is required to be filed.

(9) A candidate or slate of candidates is relieved of the duty personally to file reports and keep records of receipts and expenditures if the candidate or slate states in writing or on forms provided by the registry that:

(a) Within five (5) business days after personally receiving any contributions, the candidate or slate of candidates shall surrender possession of the contributions to the treasurer of their principal campaign committee without expending any of the proceeds thereof. No contributions shall be commingled with the candidate's or slated candidates' personal funds or accounts. Contributions received by check, money order, or other written instrument shall be endorsed directly to the campaign committee and shall not be cashed or redeemed by the candidate;

(b) The candidate or slate of candidates shall not make any unreimbursed expenditure for the campaign, except that this paragraph does not preclude a candidate or slate from making an expenditure from personal funds to the designated principal campaign committee, which shall be reported by the committee as a contribution received; and

(c) The waiver shall continue in effect as long as the candidate or slate of candidates complies with the conditions under which it was granted.

(10) (a) No candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, political issues committee, or contributing organization shall use or permit the use of contributions or funds solicited or received for the person or in support of or opposition to a public issue which will appear on the ballot to further the candidacy of the person for a different public office, to support or oppose a different public issue, or to further the candidacy of any other person for public office; except that nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to prohibit a candidate or slate of candidates from using funds in the campaign account to purchase admission tickets for any fundraising event or testimonial affair for another candidate or slate of candidates if the amount of the purchase does not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per event or affair. Any funds or contributions solicited or received by or on behalf of a candidate, slate of candidates, or any committee, which has been organized in whole or in part to further any candidacy for the same person or to support or oppose the same public issue, shall be deemed to have been solicited or received for the current candidacy or for the election on the public issue if the funds or contributions are solicited or received at any time prior to the regular election for which the candidate, slate of candidates, or public issue is on the ballot.

(b) Except as provided in KRS 121A.080(6), any unexpended balance of funds not otherwise obligated for the payment of expenses incurred to further a political issue or the candidacy of a person shall, in whole or in part, at the election of the candidate or committee, escheat to the State Treasury, be returned pro rata to all contributors, or, in the case of a partisan candidate, be transferred to the state or county executive committee of the political party of which the candidate is a member except that a candidate, committee, or an official may retain the funds to further the same public issue or to seek election to the same office or may donate the funds to any charitable, nonprofit, or educational institution recognized under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and any successor thereto.

(c) A candidate who has an unexpended and unobligated balance of funds in an existing campaign account who changes political party affiliations shall not use the unexpended funds in a campaign for nomination or election to the same office for which the campaign account was established but shall dispose of the unexpended and unobligated funds that were in the existing campaign account on the date of the change in political party affiliation according to the other options provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, except that the political party of which the candidate was a member prior to his change of political party affiliations, not the candidate's new political party, shall be the recipient of any campaign funds transferred to a state or county political party executive committee.

(11) Any publisher of newspapers or magazines, owner or lessor of billboards, a radio or television station or network, or any other person, company, corporation, or business organization offering its communications or advertising services for hire to the public who receives funds for the purchase of advertising services or material, shall file with the registry a copy of the material or communication purchased which supports or opposes any slate of candidates or committee; a copy of the receipt for the funds paid; the name and address of each purchaser; and the source of the funds for the purchase if different than the purchaser. All information shall be reported to the registry on the thirtieth day preceding and the thirtieth day following the primary and regular elections subsequent to the date that the broadcasting or printing of the advertisement occurs. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to purchases of advertising services or material to support or oppose a slate of candidates for election to the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor. Notwithstanding KRS 121.990 and KRS 121A.990, penalties for violation of this subsection shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of KRS 121.140(2).

(4) "Contributing organization" means a group which merely contributes to candidates, campaign committees, or executive committees from time to time from funds derived solely from within the group, and which does not solicit or receive funds from sources outside the group itself. Section 2. KRS 121.150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No contribution shall be made or received, directly or indirectly, other than an independent expenditure, to support inauguration activities or to support or defeat a candidate, slate of candidates, constitutional amendment, or public question which will appear on the ballot in an election, except through the duly appointed campaign manager, or campaign treasurer of the candidate, slate of candidates, or registered committee. Any person making an independent expenditure, shall report these expenditures when the expenditures by that person exceed five hundred dollars ($500) in the aggregate in any one (1) election, on a form provided by the registry and shall sign a statement on the form, under penalty of perjury, that the expenditure was an actual independent expenditure and that there was no prior communication with the campaign on whose behalf it was made.

(2) Except as provided in KRS 121.180(10), the solicitation from and contributions by campaign committees, political issues committees, permanent committees, and party executive committees to any religious, charitable, civic, eleemosynary, or other causes or organizations established primarily for the public good is expressly prohibited; except that it shall not be construed as a violation of this section for a candidate to contribute to religious, civic, or charitable groups.

(3) No candidate, slate of candidates, committee, or contributing organization, nor anyone acting on their behalf, shall accept any anonymous contribution in excess of fifty dollars ($50), and all anonymous contributions in excess of fifty dollars ($50) shall be returned to the donor, if the donor can be determined. No candidate, slate of candidates, committee, or contributing organization, nor anyone acting on their behalf shall accept anonymous contributions in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) in the aggregate in any one (1) election. A contribution made by cashier's check or money order which identifies both the payor and payee shall be treated as a contribution made by check for purposes of the contribution limits contained in this section. No person shall make a cash contribution in excess of fifty dollars ($50) in the aggregate in any one (1) election to a candidate, committee, or contributing organization, nor anyone on their behalf.

(5) No candidate, slate of candidates, committee, contributing organization, nor anyone on their behalf, shall accept any

(8) No permanent committee shall contribute funds to another permanent committee for the purpose of circumventing contribution limits of subsection (6) of this section.

(9) No person shall contribute funds to a permanent committee, political issues committee, or contributing organization for the purpose of circumventing the contribution limits of subsection (6) of this section.

(10) No person shall contribute more than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) to all permanent committees and contributing organizations in any one (1) year.

(11) No person shall contribute more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) to the state executive committee of a political party and its subdivisions and affiliates in any one (1) year. (12) No person shall make a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money to another person to contribute to a candidate, committee, contributing organization, or anyone on their behalf. No candidate, committee, contributing organization, nor anyone on their behalf shall accept a contribution made by one (1) person who has received a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit or gift of money from another person to contribute to a candidate, committee, contributing organization, or anyone on their behalf.

(14) No candidate or slate of candidates for nomination to any state, county, city, or district office, nor their campaign committees, nor anyone on their behalf, shall solicit or accept contributions for primary election expenses after the date of the primary. No person other than the candidate or slate of candidates shall contribute for primary election expenses after the date of the primary.

(15) No slate of candidates for nomination for election to the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, nor its campaign committees, nor anyone on their behalf, shall solicit or accept contributions for runoff primary election expenses after the date of the runoff primary. No person other than the slated candidates shall contribute for runoff primary election expenses after the date of the runoff primary.

(16) No candidate or slate of candidates for any state, county, city, or district office at a regular election, nor their campaign committees, nor anyone on their behalf, shall solicit or accept contributions for regular election expenses after the date of the regular election. No person other than the candidate or slate of candidates shall contribute for regular election expenses after the date of the regular election.

(17) No candidate or slate of candidates for nomination or election to any state, county, city, or district office, nor their campaign committees, nor anyone on their behalf, shall solicit or accept contributions for special election expenses after the date of the special election. No person other than the candidate or slate of candidates shall contribute for special election expenses after the date of the special election.

(18) Nothing in subsections (14) to (17) of this section shall be deemed to prohibit a slate of candidates from receiving transfers from the election campaign fund established by KRS 121A.020 for which it is eligible for matches of qualifying contributions received prior to the date of the election but for which no transfer from the fund had been made prior to the date of the election.

(19) The provisions of subsections (14) and (16) of this section shall apply only to those candidates in a primary or regular election which shall be conducted subsequent to January 1, 1989. The provisions of subsections (15) and (17) of this section shall apply only to those candidates or slates of candidates in a runoff primary or special election which shall be conducted subsequent to January 1, 1993.

(20) The provisions of subsections (14) to (17) of this section shall not apply to post-election contributions made to an independent expenditures committee. Any person may contribute at any time for expenses of an independent expenditures committee.

(21) No slate of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor or their immediate families shall loan any money, service, or other thing of value to their campaign, and all moneys, services, or other things of value which are loaned shall be deemed a contribution, which may not be recovered by the slate of candidates, except to the extent of a combined total of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(22)[~~(21)~~] No candidate, slate of candidates, committee, except a political issues committee, or contributing organization, nor anyone on their behalf, shall knowingly accept a contribution from a corporation, directly or indirectly.

(23)[~~(22)~~] Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the ability of a corporation to administer its permanent committee insofar as its actions can be deemed not to influence an election as prohibited by KRS 121.025.

(24)[~~(23)~~] In addition to the prohibitions set forth in this section, no slate of candidates shall accept any contribution during the twenty-eight (28) days immediately preceding a primary or regular election except as provided in KRS 121A.030(5).

(25)[~~(24)~~] No candidate, slate of candidates, or committee, nor anyone on their behalf, shall solicit a contribution of money or services from a state employee, whether or not the employee is covered by the classified service provisions of KRS Chapter 18A. (26)[~~(25)~~] (a) A candidate for elective public office, except slates of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, shall not accept contributions from permanent committees which, in the aggregate, exceed fifty percent (50%) of the total contributions accepted by the candidate in any one (1) election or ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in any one (1) election, whichever is the greater amount. The percentage of the total contributions or dollar amounts of contributions accepted by a candidate in an election that is accepted from permanent committees shall be calculated as of the day of each election. Funds in a candidate's campaign account which are carried forward from one (1) election to another shall not be considered in calculating the acceptable percentage or dollar amount of contributions which may be accepted from permanent committees for the election for which the funds are carried forward. A candidate may, without penalty, contribute funds to his campaign account not later than twenty (20) days following the election so as not to exceed the permitted percentage or dollar amount of contributions which may be accepted from permanent committees or the candidate may, not later than twenty (20) days after the end of the election, refund any excess permanent committee contributions on a pro rata basis to the permanent committees whose contributions are accepted after the aggregate limit has been reached.

No person shall make a contribution, including an in-kind contribution, from funds in a federal campaign account to any candidate or slate of candidates for any office in this state.

Section 3. KRS 121.175 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No candidate, slate of candidates, or campaign committee[~~, or contributing organization~~] shall permit funds in a campaign account to be expended for any purpose other than for allowable campaign expenditures. "Allowable campaign expenditures" means expenditures including reimbursement for actual expenses, made directly and primarily in support of or opposition to a candidate,[~~ constitutional amendment, or public question which will appear on the ballot~~] and includes, but is not limited to, expenditures for staff salaries, gifts and meals for volunteer campaign workers, food and beverages provided at a campaign rally, advertising, office space, necessary travel, campaign paraphernalia, purchases of advertisements in athletic and scholastic publications, communications with constituents or prospective voters, polling and consulting, printing, graphic arts, or advertising services, postage, office supplies, stationery, newsletters, and equipment which is used primarily for the administration of the campaign. "Allowable campaign expenditures" does not include expenditures of funds in a campaign account for any purpose made unlawful by other provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes or which would bestow a private pecuniary benefit, except for payment of the reasonable value of goods and services provided upon a candidate, member of the candidate's family, or campaign committee,[~~ or contributing organization,~~] or any of their employees, paid or unpaid, including: tickets to an event which is unrelated to a political campaign or candidacy; items of personal property for distribution to prospective voters except items bearing the name, likeness, or logo of a candidate or a campaign-related communication; expenditures to promote or oppose a candidacy for a leadership position in a governmental, professional, or political organization, or other entity; and equipment or appliances the primary use of which is for purposes outside of the campaign. The provisions of KRS 121.190 notwithstanding, a candidate shall not be required to include a disclaimer on campaign stationery purchased with funds from his campaign account. A member of the General Assembly may utilize funds in his campaign account to purchase admission tickets for political party functions, to purchase items with a value of not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) for donation to a political party for auctions and fundraisers, and to participate in or support other events sponsored by a political party. A member of the General Assembly may make allowable campaign expenditures in both election years and nonelection years.

(2) By December 31, 1993, the registry shall promulgate administrative regulations to implement and enforce the provisions of subsection (1).

(3) In lieu of the penalties provided in KRS 121.140 and 121.990 for a violation of this section, the registry may, after hearing:

(a) For a violation which was not committed knowingly, order the violator to repay the amount of campaign funds which were expended for other than allowable campaign expenditures, and if not repaid within thirty (30) days, may impose a fine of up to one hundred dollars ($100) for each day the amount is not repaid, up to a maximum fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000); and

(b) For a violation which was committed knowingly, in addition to referring the matter for criminal prosecution, order the violator to repay the amount of campaign funds which were expended for other than allowable campaign expenditures, and if not repaid within thirty (30) days, may impose a fine of up to one hundred dollars ($100) for each day the amount is not repaid, up to a maximum fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Section 4. KRS 121.180 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee shall be exempt from filing any preelection finance reports required by subsection (3) of this section or KRS 121A.020(5), whichever is applicable, if the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman files a form prescribed and furnished by the registry stating that contributions will not be accepted or expended in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election to further the candidacy or to support or oppose a constitutional amendment or public question which will appear on the ballot. For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing preelection campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (k)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(b) Any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee shall be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports required by subsections (3) and (4) of this section or KRS 121A.020(5), whichever is applicable, if the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman files a form prescribed and furnished by the registry stating that currently no contributions have been received and that contributions will not be accepted or expended in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) in any one (1) election. For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (k)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(c) For a primary election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than the deadline for filing nomination papers and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. For a runoff primary election, a slate of candidates shall file its request for exemption not later than five (5) days after the date of the preceding primary election and shall be bound by its terms unless rescinded in writing not later than ten (10) days after the date of the preceding primary election. For a regular election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file or rescind in writing a request for exemption not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date of the preceding primary election, or runoff primary, if one is held, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection. For a special election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the candidate or slate of candidates is nominated for a special election and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date on which the nomination for a special election is made. A political issues committee chairman shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the date on which the committee registers with the registry and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the date on which the request for exemption is filed.

(d) 1. A candidate or slate of candidates that revokes a request for exemption in a timely manner may exercise the remaining option or may file all reports required of a candidate intending to raise or spend in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in an election. If a candidate or slate of candidates elects to exercise a different option, the candidate or slate of candidates shall file the appropriate form with the officer who received the filing papers of the candidate or slate of candidates not later than the deadline for filing a revocation.

2. A candidate for any city or county office or for any school board office, who is exempted from some or all campaign finance reporting requirements pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection but who accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the exempted amount in an election, shall file all applicable reports required for the remainder of that election, based upon the amount of contributions or expenditures the candidate accepts or receives in that election. The filing of applicable required reports by a candidate after the exempted amount is exceeded shall serve as notice to the registry that the initial exemption has been rescinded. No further notice to the registry shall be required and no penalty for exceeding the initial exempted amount shall be imposed against the candidate, except for failure to file applicable reports required after the exempted amount is exceeded.

(e) Any candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline and that intends to execute a request for exemption shall file the appropriate request for exemption not later than the filing deadline and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. A candidate or slate of candidates that is covered by this paragraph shall have the same reversion rights as those provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(f) Any candidate or slate of candidates that will appear on the ballot in a regular election that has signed either request for exemption for that election may exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection if a candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline subsequently files in opposition to the candidate or slate of candidates. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, a candidate or slate of candidates covered by this paragraph shall comply with the deadline for rescission provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(g) Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption for a regular election that later is opposed by a person who has filed a declaration of intent to receive write-in votes may rescind the request for exemption and exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(h) Any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption may petition the registry to determine whether another person is campaigning as a write-in candidate prior to having filed a declaration of intent to receive write-in votes, and, if the registry determines upon a preponderance of the evidence that a person who may later be a write-in candidate is conducting a campaign, the candidate or slate of candidates, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, may petition the registry to permit the candidate or slate of candidates to exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(i) If the opponent of a candidate or slate of candidates is replaced due to his withdrawal because of death, disability, or disqualification, the candidate or slate of candidates, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, may exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection not later than fifteen (15) days after the party executive committee nominates a replacement for the withdrawn candidate or slate of candidates.

(j) Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, the campaign committee of any candidate or slate of candidates that has filed a request for exemption or a political issues committee whose chairman has filed a request for exemption shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in a timely manner and no new request for exemption has been executed.

(k) 1. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee that is exempt from filing campaign finance reports pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), or (e) of this subsection that accepts contributions or makes expenditures, or whose campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures, in excess of the applicable limit in any one (1) election without rescinding the request for exemption in a timely manner shall comply with all applicable reporting requirements and, in lieu of other penalties prescribed by law, pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) plus the amount by which the spending limit was exceeded.

2. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, a candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, or political issues committee that is exempt from filing campaign finance reports pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), or (e) of this subsection that knowingly accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the applicable spending limit in any one (1) election without rescinding the request for exemption in a timely manner shall comply with all applicable reporting requirements and shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(2) State and county executive committees shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry, of all money, loans, or other things of value, received from any source, and expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, since the date of the last report, including:

(a) For each contribution of any amount made by a permanent committee, the name and business address of the permanent committee, the date of the contribution, the amount contributed, and a description of the major business, social, or political interest represented by the permanent committee;

(b) For other contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), the full name, address, age if less than the legal voting age, the date of the contribution, the amount of the contribution, and the employer and occupation of each contributor. If the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business shall be listed;

(c) The total amount of cash contributions received during the reporting period; and

(d) A complete statement of expenditures authorized, incurred, or made. The complete statement of expenditures shall include the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure is made in excess of twenty-five dollars ($25), and the amount, date, and purpose of each expenditure. This report shall be made to the registry within thirty (30) days after the primary, runoff primary if slates of candidates of that party participate, and regular elections. If an individual gives a reportable contribution to a state or county executive committee with the intention that the contribution or a portion of the contribution go to a candidate or slate of candidates, the name of the contributor and the sum shall be indicated on the committee report. The receipts and expenditures of funds remitted to each political party under KRS 141.071 to 141.073 shall be separately accounted for and reported to the registry in the manner required by KRS 121.230. The separate report may be made a separate section within the report required, by this subsection, to be submitted within thirty (30) days after each regular election.

(3) (a) Except for candidates or slates of candidates, campaign committees, or political issues committees exempted from reporting requirements pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, each campaign treasurer of a candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, or political issues committee who accepts contributions or expends, expects to accept contributions or expend, or contracts to expend more than three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election, and each fundraiser who secures contributions in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election, shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry, of all money, loans, or other things of value, received from any source, and expenditures authorized, incurred, and made, since the date of the last report, including:

3. For each contribution in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) made to any candidate or campaign committee other than those specified in subparagraph 2. or a political issues committee, the full name, address, age if less than the legal voting age, the date of the contribution, the amount of the contribution, and the employer and occupation of each other contributor. If the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business shall be listed;

4. The total amount of cash contributions received during the reporting period; and

5. A complete statement of all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made. The complete statement of expenditures shall include the name, address, and occupation of each person to whom an expenditure is made in excess of twenty-five dollars ($25), and the amount, date, and purpose of each expenditure.

(b) Reports of all candidates, campaign committees, political issues committees, and registered fundraisers shall be made as follows:

1. Candidates as defined in KRS 121.015(8), campaign committees, political issues committees, and fundraisers which register in the year before the year an election in which the candidate or public question shall appear on the ballot, shall file financial reports with the registry at the end of the first calendar quarter after the person becomes a candidate or following registration of the committee or fundraiser, and each calendar quarter thereafter, ending with the last calendar quarter of that year. Candidates, committees, and registered fundraisers shall make all reports required by this section during the year in which the election takes place;

(4) Except for candidates, slates of candidates, and political issues committees, exempted pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section, all candidates, regardless of funds received or expended, campaign committees, political issues committees, and registered fundraisers shall make post-election reports within thirty (30) days after the election.

(5) In making the preceding reports, the total gross receipts from each of the following categories shall be listed: proceeds from the sale of tickets for events such as testimonial affairs, dinners, luncheons, rallies, and similar fundraising events, mass collections made at the events, and sales of items such as campaign pins, buttons, hats, ties, literature, and similar materials. When any individual purchase or the aggregate purchases of any item enumerated above from a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office or a campaign committee for a candidate or slate of candidates for a statewide-elected state office exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), the purchaser shall be identified by name, address, age, if less than the legal voting age, occupation, and employer and the employer of the spouse of the purchaser or, if the purchaser or the spouse of the purchaser is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business, and the amount of the purchase. The lists shall be maintained by the campaign treasurer, political issues committee treasurer, registered fundraiser, or other sponsor for inspection by the registry for six (6) years following the date of the election.

(6) Each permanent committee, except a federally-registered out-of-state permanent committee, inaugural committee, or contributing organization shall make a full report, upon a prescribed form, to the registry of all money, loans, or other things of value, received by it from any source, and all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, since the date of the last report, including:

(a) For each contribution of any amount made by a permanent committee, the name and business address of the permanent committee, the date of the contribution, the amount contributed, and a description of the major business, social, or political interest represented by the permanent committee;

(b) For other contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), the full name, address, age if under the legal voting age, the date of the contribution, the amount of the contribution, and the employer and occupation of each contributor. If the contributor is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business shall be listed;

(c) An aggregate amount of cash contributions, the amount contributed by each contributor, and the date of each contribution; and

(d) A complete statement of all expenditures authorized, incurred, or made, including independent expenditures. This report shall be made by a permanent committee, inaugural committee, or contributing organization to the registry on the last day of the first calendar quarter following the registration of the committee with the registry and on the last day of each succeeding calendar quarter until such time as the committee terminates. A contributing organization shall file a report of contributions received and expenditures made on forms prescribed by the registry not later than the last day of each calendar quarter in which contributions are received or expenditures are made. All reports to the registry shall be postmarked or received not later than five (5) days after each filing deadline.

(7) If the final statement of a candidate, campaign committee, independent expenditures committee, or political issues committee shows an unexpended balance of contributions, continuing debts and obligations, or an expenditure deficit, the campaign treasurer shall file with the registry a supplemental statement of contributions and expenditures not more than thirty (30) days after the deadline for filing the final statement. Subsequent supplemental statements shall be filed annually, to be in the hands of the registry or postmarked not later than ten (10) days after November 1 of each year, until the account shows no unexpended balance, continuing debts and obligations, expenditures, or deficit, or until the year before the candidate seeks to appear on the ballot for the same office for which the funds in the campaign account were originally contributed, in which case the candidate shall file the supplemental annual report not later than ten (10) days after November 1 of that year or at the end of the first calendar quarter of that year after the candidate files his nomination papers for the next year's primary or regular election. All contributions shall be subject to KRS 121.150.

(8) All reports filed under the provisions of this chapter shall be a matter of public record open to inspection by any member of the public immediately upon receipt of the report by the registry. A duplicate copy of each report filed with the registry shall be filed by the candidate, slate of candidates, or committee with the county clerk in the county in which the candidate or persons running as a slate of candidates reside at the same time. County clerks shall maintain these reports for public inspection for a period of one (1) year from the date the last report is required to be filed.

(9) A candidate or slate of candidates is relieved of the duty personally to file reports and keep records of receipts and expenditures if the candidate or slate states in writing or on forms provided by the registry that:

(a) Within five (5) business days after personally receiving any contributions, the candidate or slate of candidates shall surrender possession of the contributions to the treasurer of their principal campaign committee without expending any of the proceeds thereof. No contributions shall be commingled with the candidate's or slated candidates' personal funds or accounts. Contributions received by check, money order, or other written instrument shall be endorsed directly to the campaign committee and shall not be cashed or redeemed by the candidate;

(b) The candidate or slate of candidates shall not make any unreimbursed expenditure for the campaign, except that this paragraph does not preclude a candidate or slate from making an expenditure from personal funds to the designated principal campaign committee, which shall be reported by the committee as a contribution received; and

(c) The waiver shall continue in effect as long as the candidate or slate of candidates complies with the conditions under which it was granted.

(10) No candidate, slate of candidates, campaign committee, political issues committee, or contributing organization shall use or permit the use of contributions or funds solicited or received for the person or in support of or opposition to a public issue which will appear on the ballot to further the candidacy of the person for a different public office, to support or oppose a different public issue, or to further the candidacy of any other person for public office; except that nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to prohibit a candidate or slate of candidates from using funds in the campaign account to purchase admission tickets for any fundraising event or testimonial affair for another candidate or slate of candidates if the amount of the purchase does not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per event or affair. Rule 3. Call of the House. Upon a call of the House, the Clerk shall call the roll. Absentees are then only noted, but no excuses shall be made until the full roll is called. The Clerk shall then call the absentees again. Excuses will be heard at this time. The doors of the House Chamber shall then be closed and the absentees not excused by the House may be sent for and arrested by the Sergeant-at-Arms and the House shall determine upon what conditions they shall be discharged from arrest. MOTIONS

Rule 6. Reading of Motions. When a motion has been made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or, being in written form, it shall be read by the Clerk before debate, amendment or motion concerning it shall be in order.

Rule 7. Withdrawal of Motions. Every oral motion after it has been stated by the Speaker, and every written motion, bill, resolution or other paper, after it has been read by the Clerk, shall be the property and in the possession of the House and shall not be withdrawn without consent of the House. Every written motion, report or measure may be committed or recommitted at the pleasure of the House.

Rule 8. Order of Questions. All questions, whether in Committee of the Whole or in the House, when not privileged questions, shall be propounded in the order in which they were moved, except that in filling blanks the smallest sum and the most remote date shall be put first.

Rule 9. Precedence of Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be in order except:

1. To call the House when there is no quorum present.
2. To fix the time to which the House shall adjourn.
3. To adjourn.

5. To lay on the table.
6. For the previous question.
7. To limit or extend limits of debate.

The above several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged and the first seven of them shall not be debatable.

A second motion to adjourn, to take a recess, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to limit or extend limits of debate, to postpone to a time certain, to lay on the Clerk's desk, to refer or commit or to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order on the same day, upon the same question, and at the same status unless other business intervenes; provided, however, that amendments may be made to the time to which it is proposed to adjourn, to take a recess or to postpone to a fixed time.

Rule 10. Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn, to take a recess, or a motion to adjourn to a time certain, shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, while a vote is being taken or when the Committee on Committees is reporting; subject, however, to the limitations set out in Rule 9. A motion to adjourn or a motion to adjourn to a time certain shall be taken by roll call vote.

Rule 11. Motion to Table. The adoption of the motion to table, under these rules, defeats the subject matter under consideration. The reconsideration of the motion to table shall require approval of a majority of the members elected.

Rule 12. Previous Question. The previous question may be ordered by a majority of the members elected. On the call of the roll, no member shall be allowed to speak more than three minutes to explain his vote and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question[~~When the previous question has been ordered, a vote shall be taken immediately upon the pending measure and such pending amendments as are in order~~]. The effect of the previous question shall be to put an end to all debate; to prevent the offering of additional amendments and to bring the House to an immediate vote upon the measure and amendments that have been called and are in order[~~aforesaid. The previous question may be ordered by a majority of the members elected. On the call of the roll, no member shall be allowed to speak more than three minutes to explain his vote and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question~~]. After the previous question has been ordered, and before the vote upon the main question, the opponents of the measure shall have ten minutes, and proponents of the measure shall have ten minutes.

Rule 13. Motion to Set the Limits on Debate. A motion to set a time limit for debate on a measure, in excess of that permitted under Rule 12, shall be in order unless the previous question shall have been ordered on the measure. The time limit set for debate under this rule shall be allotted by the Speaker evenly between the opponents of the measure and the proponents of the measure. Adoption of a motion under this rule does not prevent the offering of additional amendments.

Rule 14. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider a vote shall not be in order unless made by a member who voted upon the prevailing side of the question, nor shall such motion be in order unless made within two legislative days in which the House is in session next after the date the vote was taken; however, the motion to reconsider when coupled with the additional motion to lay that motion upon the table may be made by any member.

Rule 15. Motion to Lay on Clerk's Desk. The effect of the adoption of a motion to lay on the Clerk's desk under these rules is to place in charge of the Clerk the pending question and everything adhering to it. A motion laid on the Clerk's desk may be taken from the desk and proceeded with at any time in the same order as when laid on the Clerk's desk.

Rule 16. Motion to Strike Out Enacting Clause. A motion to amend by striking out the enacting words of a bill or resolution shall have precedence over a motion to amend; and, if adopted, shall have the same effect as though the bill or resolution were regularly voted upon and rejected.

Rule 17. Motion to Separate Part of a Measure. A motion to commit, recommit, or postpone a part of a measure so as to separate that part of the measure from the remainder shall not be in order.

Rule 19. Reading of Pending Papers. Any pending bill, resolution, motion or report shall be read~~[by the Clerk]~~ upon the request~~[demand]~~ of any member, with the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to the House, but it shall not again be read on the same day unless so ordered by the House.

Rule 20. Nominations. In all elections a previous nomination shall be made.

MEMBERS

Rule 21. Attendance of Members. No member shall absent himself from a session of the House without leave from the House. Written request for leave of absence may be obtained from the Clerk of the House and shall be submitted to the Speaker. The request shall state thereon the member's excuse for obtaining the leave. No excuse for leave of absence shall be heard from the floor.

Rule 22. Decorum of Members. No member shall designate another member by name.

Rule 22A. Point of Personal Privilege. To be in order, a point of personal privilege must relate to allegations regarding the rights, reputation, or conduct of a member personally, in his or her capacity as a representative, that, if true, would incapacitate them for membership. Members who have the floor after claiming a point of personal privilege shall confine themselves to defending their own rights, reputations, or conduct, and not those of other members. Members wishing to make general comments about pending legislation, media coverage, or other matters that would be out of order if raised as a point of personal privilege shall use Motions, Petitions, and Communications.

Rule 23. Call to Order. If any member, in speech or otherwise, transgress the rules of order or decorum, he shall immediately be called to order by the chair and shall take his seat. The Clerk shall reduce the objectionable words to writing and read them to the House. After hearing a short explanation from the member called to order, or upon the withdrawal of the objectionable language, the Speaker may permit the member to proceed, or may compel silence upon him until the matter is disposed of. The ruling of the chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House. A member offending the House shall be liable to censure.

Rule 24. Debate. No member may speak more than once to the same subject until all members desiring to be heard have spoken, but nothing in this rule shall do away with the previous question if then in effect, nor permit debate on an undebatable motion.

No member shall speak more than thirty minutes in the aggregate on any question or measure, at the end of which period, or any portion thereof, the floor shall be returned to the Speaker.

Rule 25. Members Shall Vote at Seats. A member shall vote only when at his seat or visibly approaching it.

During the pendency of an appeal to the House from a decision of the chair, the Speaker shall vacate the chair and call the Speaker Pro Tempore to preside. When the Speaker Pro Tempore is presiding on an appeal to the House from a decision of the Chair, no motion or business shall be in order except the motion on appeal from the decision of the Chair, and that motion shall not be debatable.

Rule 28. Speaker Pro Tempore. The House shall elect a Speaker Pro Tempore. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall perform the duties of the Speaker when the Speaker is absent from the House or when empowered by the Speaker to perform the duties of the Chair.

No record which is in the hands of the Commission staff and is required by law to be entered upon the Journal of the House shall be copied by any person until same shall have been entered upon the Journal and said Journal shall have been approved.

House refuses to concur in said amendment, or when a Senate bill has been amended in the House and the Senate refuses to concur in said amendment and when neither will recede from such action, the Committee on Committees shall appoint a Conference Committee[~~ on Conference~~] to meet a like committee from the Senate. The Conference Committee[~~ on Conference~~] shall confer with the Senate Committee and report back to the House within a reasonable time, in the same manner as reports are made for House bills. The conference report shall make no recommendation other than agreement upon or rejection of the matter or matters in controversy, and shall be voted upon, and, if adopted the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Should a conference committee[~~ on conference~~] report its inability to submit a report, or if either house refuses to adopt its report, each house may appoint a free conference committee[~~ on free conference~~], consisting of three or more members. A free conference committee[~~ on free conference~~] shall propose no new appropriation or any appropriation above the level originally designed by either chamber. Once the majority or minority report is adopted, the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Except for report of disagreement, the question of consideration of the report of a conference committee or a free conference committee shall not be in order on the same legislative day as distribution of copies of the report together with a staff analysis of the report to the members of the House.

The Committee on Committees, in conference with committee chairmen, shall schedule a definite time and place for the regular weekly meetings of each committee, such schedule to be posted in the House Chamber and published in the Legislative Record. A committee shall meet at the regular weekly scheduled time and place so long as business is pending before the committee. Nothing herein shall prevent the Chairman or a majority of any committee from calling a special meeting in addition to those regularly scheduled.

The Chairman shall keep a record of the attendance of members at meetings, which record shall be filed with the Clerk.

The Director of the Legislative Research Commission, under the direction of the Committee on Committees, shall assign a secretary to each committee and provide any professional, clerical or other employees required by any committee.

"With the expression of opinion that the same should not pass."

Rule 47. Standing and Special Committee[~~Majority and Minority~~] Reports. It shall require a majority of the committee membership to report a bill. The chairman shall keep a record of the vote of each member on the disposition of each bill, and shall report the total vote on each side to the House. The chairman may sign reports on behalf of a majority of the committee members. His signature shall attest to the action of a majority, but shall not be construed as his personal approval or disapproval of the bill.

A committee report may be accompanied by a minority report, signed by those members who have dissented from the committee's report, and it shall be in order to move the adoption of the minority report as a substitute for the committee's report when the committee offers its report. It shall require a majority of the members elected to adopt the minority report. The committee's report shall always be read before the minority report is read. Where both majority and minority reports are submitted, a motion to adopt the majority report shall first be considered, and a motion to adopt a minority report shall not be in order unless a motion to adopt the majority report fails.

Rule 48. Discharge Petition[~~Failure to Report~~]. Whenever a committee fails or refuses to report within a reasonable time a bill submitted to it, any member may sponsor and file[~~by filing~~] with the Clerk a written request signed by twenty-five or more members, call the same up for consideration on the next succeeding legislative day after the filing of the[~~said~~] request. If a majority of the members elected to the House concur[~~ therein~~], the bill shall be considered as though it had been regularly reported, and sent to the Rules Committee.

Rule 49. Procedure in Committee. The rules of procedure in the House shall be observed in committee insofar as the same are applicable. The committee chairman, or the committee by majority vote in a regularly called meeting, shall post at least three calendar days prior to their consideration the bills and resolutions to be considered by the committee at its next meeting provided that no bill or resolution shall be posted by the chairman or the committee by a majority vote unless and until a request for posting form has been filed with the committee chairman or secretary and approved as containing satisfactory information by the committee chairman. No measure shall be considered except those posted, unless the measure is one which has been recommitted to the same committee from which it was previously reported with a favorable expression. A list of the measures to be considered shall be filed with the Clerk at least three calendar days prior to the meeting. In the case of prefiled bills receiving a favorable expression from the interim joint committee to which they were assigned, posting by the chairman or the committee shall occur during the first week of the session, and such bills shall be considered by the appropriate committee during the first three weeks of the session. No posting request shall be required for such prefiled bills. This rule does not apply to bills with a fiscal impact of more than $20,000.

In any bill seeking to repeal existing sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes said sections sought to be repealed shall be identified by way of inclusion of the headnotes applied to each such section as it appears in the Kentucky Revised Statutes. The Legislative Research Commission staff shall see that all bills introduced have been prepared through the computerized bill preparation system of the Legislative Research Commission.

A fiscal statement shall be considered a public document upon introduction of the bill or amendment for which it was prepared. The chairman of the committee to which a bill has been referred may require that a fiscal statement be attached to the bill prior to posting. The chairman or a majority of the committee to which a bill has been referred may require that a fiscal statement be attached to the bill, or amendment thereof, prior to final committee action. Rule 53. Analysis of Administrative Regulation Promulgation Authority. In such instance, the analysis shall be attached to the bill, or amendment thereof, prior to final consideration of the bill on the floor of the House.

Rule 54. Retention of Administrative Regulation Promulgation Authority Analyses. The Director of the Legislative Research Commission shall cause analyses prepared pursuant to Rule 53 to be filed for informational purposes with the Administrative Regulations Compiler of the Legislative Research Commission.

Rule 55. Reference of Bills. The Committee on Committees shall refer all bills to the proper standing committee not later than the second day in which the House is in session after the date of introduction. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and has been returned to the House for concurrence in the amendment, it shall be referred to the Rules Committee. In these instances, the Clerk shall distribute copies of the bill and its proposed amendment to each member of the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee may post these bills to the Orders of the Day for consideration of the amendment, and final passage, giving precedence to these bills over all other matters posted. When bills with amendments for concurrence are reached in the Orders of the Day, the Speaker shall first put the question of concurrence in the amendment, whereupon if such is favorable, the bill shall be put immediately upon its final passage. Bills originating in and passed by the Senate when reported to the House shall be referred to the Committee on Committees and shall take the same course as other bills.

Rule 56. Printing of Bills. Upon receipt of a bill, the Legislative Research Commission shall examine the form of the bill to ensure that it is free from errors of form or typography and has been assigned the proper KRS section or chapter numbers. If a formal change is necessary the Commission shall request the sponsor of the bill to sign a form approving the specified changes. If a bill is found to be correct, or corrections have been approved, the Commission shall authorize its printing.

The Legislative Research Commission shall have printed at least two hundred copies of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law introduced in the House and of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law acted on by the Senate and reported to the House. Bills shall be printed in the order in which they are introduced and shall be distributed to members immediately upon receipt from the printer.

Rule 57. Readings of Bills. If a bill be reported with the expression of opinion that it should not pass a vote may then be taken on whether it shall be read at length and be placed on the Calendar, if a majority of the members elected to the House shall concur therein. When reported favorably by the committee, the bill shall then be given its first reading at length and shall be placed by the Commission staff upon the Calendar to be kept by the staff, and shall then be entitled to its second reading the next succeeding legislative day.

Every bill shall be read at length on three different legislative days; but the second and third readings thereof at length may be dispensed with by a majority of all the members elected to the House and the bill read by its title.

Rule 58. Calendar; Consent Calendar. (1) In order to reduce the time required for final passage of bills posted in the Orders of the Day, a consent procedure for the consideration of uncontested bills shall be established and designated as follows:

(3) A Standing Committee may at the time of favorably reporting any House or Senate Bill, recommend that it be placed in the Consent Calendar provided:

(a) The primary sponsor has so requested when it is a House Bill, and

(b) The bill receives a "should pass" or "should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached" recommendation from such committee by a unanimous vote of the members present.

Any House or Senate Bill thus reported shall be first placed in the Consent Calendar on the day on which it is entitled to a second reading and shall continue to be shown in said Calendar until taken therefrom by the Rules Committee and posted in the Consent Orders. Bills receiving a second reading should be so designated to distinguish them from bills which have already received their second reading.

(4) A certificate shall be attached to each bill recommended for the Consent Calendar showing the request of the sponsor of any House Bill, and the unanimous recommendation of the members present signed by the Chairman.

(5) After a sufficient number of bills have accumulated in the Consent Calendar, the Rules Committee may post any or all of said bills to the Consent Orders for a day certain. On that day certain the Consent Orders shall be called before the Regular Orders.

(6) Upon the call of the Consent Orders each bill in said Orders shall be given a third reading by title only. The Speaker shall then allow a reasonable time for questions from the floor and any explanation necessary by the sponsor or committee chairman. Consent Order bills may not be amended from the floor.

(7) The Commission staff shall attach a roll call to each bill in the Consent Calendar and any member may at any time prior to passage of the Consent Orders record with the Commission staff his "nay" or "pass" vote on any bill within the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders.

(8) Upon the call for the question on the Consent Orders, the Speaker shall instruct the Commission staff to announce the "nay" and "pass" votes previously filed on each bill in the Consent Orders. All other members present in the chamber on the day and at the time the Consent Orders are called shall be considered as having voted "aye" and the roll call attached to each bill shall so reflect as the final vote.

(9) Upon the written petition of any five members objecting to the placement or retention of any bill in the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders, such bill shall cease to be so considered and shall be placed in the Regular Calendar or Regular Orders as provided in these rules.

Rule 59. Orders of the Day. When a bill has had its second reading it shall be placed in the Orders of the Day, or be recommitted, and when next reached in the House it shall be ready for recommitment, or to be read a third time and placed upon its passage, and the Speaker shall so announce to the House.

A bill may be recommitted or amended in accordance with these rules at any time before its passage. Bills shall be placed in the Orders of the Day in the order in which they have been given their second reading, and shall be taken therefrom in accordance with Rule 41. When a House bill is in the Orders of the Day, it shall be in order on motion of the author to substitute for it an identical Senate bill which is in the Calendar of the House.

No bill shall be taken from the Orders of the Day unless it shall have been printed and previously distributed to members.

Rule 60. Final Passage. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House has concurred in the amendment, or a Senate bill has been amended in the House, but the Senate refuses to concur, and the House recedes from its amendment, the bill[~~as amended~~] shall immediately be placed upon its passage.

If a budget unit or other source of funds is specified, the amendment shall include all necessary language to effect the changes.

And after sufficient pause shall lock the roll call system and instruct the Clerk to record the vote. It shall be the responsibility of each member to determine the accuracy of his individual vote as registered opposite his name on the electrical roll call board and advise the Speaker of any desired change before the roll call system is locked.

The Clerk shall immediately start the recording equipment, and when completely recorded, shall present the result to the Speaker who shall announce same to the House. The Clerk shall enter upon the Journal the result in the manner provided by the rules of the House.

Is insolvent, either in the sense that his liabilities exceed his assets or in the sense that he cannot meet his obligations as they mature; but the commissioner may not enter an order against a broker-dealer or investment adviser under this paragraph without a finding of insolvency as to the broker-dealer or investment adviser;~~[or]~~

9. Is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience, or knowledge of the securities business, except as provided in paragraph (b) below; or the commissioner may by order, deny, suspend, or revoke any registration if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or registrant:

a. Has failed reasonably to supervise his agents if he is a broker-dealer or his employees or investment adviser representatives if he is an investment adviser; or

b. Has failed to pay the proper filing fee; but the commissioner may enter only a denial order under this clause, and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected.

The commissioner may not institute a suspension or revocation proceeding on the basis of a fact or transaction known to him when registration became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within the next thirty (30) days; or

10. Has violated the law of a foreign jurisdiction governing or regulating any aspect of the business of securities or banking; or within the past five (5) years, has been the subject of an action of a securities regulator or a foreign jurisdiction denying, revoking, or suspending the right to engage in the business of securities as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative or is the subject of an action of any securities exchange or self-regulatory organization operating under the authority of the securities regulator of a state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction suspending or expelling the person from membership in the exchange or self-regulatory organization.

(b) The following provisions govern the application of subparagraph 9. of paragraph (a) of this subsection:

1. The commissioner may not enter an order against a broker-dealer on the basis of the lack of qualification of any person other than the broker-dealer himself if he is an individual or an agent of the broker-dealer;

2. The commissioner may not enter an order against an investment adviser on the basis of the lack of qualification of any person other than the investment adviser himself if he is an individual or any other person who represents the investment adviser in doing any of the acts which make him an investment adviser;

3. The commissioner may not enter an order solely on the basis of lack of experience if the applicant or registrant is qualified by training or knowledge or both;

4. The commissioner shall consider that an agent who will work under the supervision of a registered broker-dealer need not have the same qualifications as a broker-dealer;

5. The commissioner shall consider that an investment adviser is not necessarily qualified solely on the basis of experience as a broker-dealer or agent. When he finds that an applicant for initial or renewal registration as a broker-dealer is not qualified as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative, he may by order condition the applicant's registration as a broker-dealer upon his not transacting business in this state as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative;

6. The commissioner may by rule provide for an examination, which may be written or oral or both, to be taken by any class of or all applicants, as well as investment adviser representatives and persons who represent or will represent an investment adviser in doing any of the acts which make him an investment adviser.

(c) The commissioner may by order summarily postpone an application for registration or suspend a registration pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. A summary suspension of an existing registration shall only be made based upon a finding by the commissioner that such action is in the public interest and that there is substantial evidence of a violation of law that constitutes an immediate danger to the public. KRS 13B.125 shall apply to the entry of a summary suspension of a registration. An appeal of a summary suspension shall address only the necessity of a summary action and shall not constitute an appeal of the merits of the underlying violation of the law. Upon the entry of the order, the commissioner shall promptly notify the applicant or registrant, as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is an agent, that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the commissioner, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

(d) If the commissioner finds that any registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to do business as a broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, or is subject to an adjudication of mental disability or to the control of a conservator or guardian, or cannot be located after reasonable search, the commissioner may by order cancel the registration or application.

(e) Withdrawal from registration as a broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative becomes effective thirty (30) days after receipt of an application to withdraw or within such shorter period of time as the commissioner may determine, unless a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending when the application is filed or a proceeding to revoke or suspend or to impose conditions upon the withdrawal is instituted within thirty (30) days after the application is filed. If a proceeding is pending or instituted, withdrawal becomes effective at such time and upon such conditions as the commissioner by order determines. If no proceeding is pending or instituted and withdrawal automatically becomes effective, the commissioner may nevertheless institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under subparagraph 2. of paragraph (a) of this subsection within one (1) year after withdrawal became effective and enter a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective. A notice filing may be withdrawn or terminated by providing notice of the withdrawal or termination, as the case may be, to the commissioner; the withdrawal or termination is effective upon receipt by the commissioner of the notice.

(f) No order may be entered under any part of this section except the first sentence of paragraph (c) of this subsection without appropriate prior notice to the applicant or registrant (as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is an agent or representative), opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(14) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, any broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser or investment adviser representative, or transaction or class of transactions by such persons, for which the commissioner expressly by rule or order finds that registration is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors shall be exempt from registration under this section. The commissioner may require that persons exempted from registration under this provision file such forms and information for notice purposes and be bound by one (1) or several provisions of this section as the commissioner deems necessary and appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and the commissioner may impose filing fees in connection therewith, provided however, that the amount of the fee shall not exceed the fee which would be due in the event the exempt person were required to obtain registration.

Section 6. KRS 292.340 is amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to offer or sell any security in this state, unless the security is registered under this chapter, or the security or transaction is exempt under this chapter, or the security is a covered security[~~except securities exempt under KRS 292.400 or when sold in transactions exempt under KRS 292.410, unless such security is registered under this chapter~~].

Section 7. KRS 292.360 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any security for which a registration statement[~~ has been filed~~] under the Securities Act of 1933 or an offering statement under Regulation A of the Securities Act of 1933 has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the same offering may be registered by coordination.

(2) A registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to payment of the registration fee prescribed in KRS 292.380, and, if required under KRS 292.430, a consent to service of process meeting the requirements of that section:

(a) One(1) copy[~~Three (3) copies~~] of the latest form of prospectus or offering circular filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or Regulation A promulgated under that Act together with all amendments thereto;

(b) The amount of securities to be offered in this state;

(c) The states in which a registration statement or similar document in connection with the offering has been or is expected to be filed;

(d) Any adverse order, judgment, or decree previously entered in connection with the offering by any court or the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(e) If the commissioner by rule or otherwise requires, a copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws (or their substantial equivalents) of the issuer currently in effect, a copy of any agreements with or among underwriters, a copy of any indenture or other instrument governing the issuance of the security to be registered, and a specimen or copy of the security;

(f) If the commissioner requests, any other information, or copies of any other documents, filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or Regulation A promulgated under that Act; and

(g) An undertaking to forward promptly to the commissioner all amendments to the federal registration statement or offering statement, other than an amendment which merely delays the effective date.

(3) A registration statement under this section automatically becomes effective with the commissioner at the moment the federal registration statement or offering statement becomes effective or is qualified, if all the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) No stop order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under KRS 292.390;

(b) The registration statement has been on file with the commissioner for at least ten (10) days; and

(c) A statement of the maximum and minimum proposed offering prices and the maximum underwriting discounts and commissions has been on file for two (2) full business days or such shorter period as the commissioner permits by rule or otherwise and the offering is made within those limitations. The registrant shall promptly notify the commissioner by telephone,[~~or~~] telegram, or other electronic means of the date and time when the federal registration statement or offering statement became effective or was qualified and the content of the price amendment, if any, and shall promptly file a post-effective amendment, containing the information and documents in the price amendment. "Price amendment" means the final federal amendment which includes a statement of the offering price, underwriting and selling discounts or commissions, amount of proceeds, conversion rates, call prices, and other matters dependent upon the offering price.

(4) Upon failure to receive the required notification and post-effective amendment with respect to the price amendment, the commissioner may enter a stop order, without notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with subsection (3) of this section, if he promptly notifies the registrant by telephone or telegram (and promptly confirms by letter or telegram when he notifies by telephone) of[~~or~~] the issuance of the order. If the registrant proves compliance with the requirements of subsection (3) of this section as to notice and post-effective amendment, the stop order is void as of the time of its entry. The commissioner may by rule or otherwise waive either or both of the conditions specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (3) of this section. If the federal registration statement or offering statement becomes effective or is qualified before all these conditions are satisfied and they are not waived, the registration statement automatically becomes effective with the commissioner as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the registrant advises the commissioner of the date when the federal registration statement or offering statement is expected to become effective or to be qualified, the commissioner shall promptly advise the registrant by telephone,[~~or~~] telegram, or other electronic means, at the registrant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether he then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under KRS 292.390; but this advice by the commissioner does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any time.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3) of this section, a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 that becomes effective immediately upon filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission shall become effective under this section automatically at the time the registration statement, in the form filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, is properly filed, along with the appropriate fee, with the commissioner.

Section 8. KRS 292.370 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any security may be registered by qualification.

(2) A registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to payment of the registration fee prescribed in KRS 292.380 and, if required under KRS 292.430, a consent to service of process meeting the requirements of that section:

(h) The estimated cash proceeds to be received by the issuer from the offering; the purposes for which the proceeds are to be used by the issuer; the amount to be used for each purpose; the order or priority in which the proceeds will be used for the purposes stated; the amounts of any funds to be raised from other sources to achieve the purposes stated, and the sources of any such funds; and, if any part of the proceeds is to be used to acquire any property (including good will) otherwise than in the ordinary course of business, the names and addresses of the vendors, the purchase price, the cost basis or book value of the assets in the hands of the vendors (if they are officers, directors, partners, or controlling shareholders of the issuer), the names of any persons who have received commissions in connection with the acquisition and the amounts of any such commissions and any other expenses in connection with the acquisition (including the cost of borrowing money to finance the acquisition);

(p) Financial statements of the issuer that meet the following requirements:

1. If the maximum proceeds to be received from the offering do not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000), a balance sheet as of the end of the most recent fiscal year and, if the date of the most recent fiscal year end is more than four (4) months prior to the date of filing, a balance sheet as of a date within four (4) months prior to the filing of the registration statement; and statements of income for the last fiscal year preceding the date of the most recent balance sheet filed and for the period, if any, between the close of such fiscal year and the date of the most recent balance sheet filed. The balance sheet and income statement for the most recent fiscal year shall be audited if the financial statements have previously been audited for other purposes. Otherwise, all financial statements may be unaudited;

2. If the maximum proceeds to be received from the offering do not exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000), a balance sheet as of the end of the most recent fiscal year and, if the date of the most recent fiscal year end is more than four (4) months prior to the date of filing, a balance sheet as of a date within four (4) months prior to the filing of the registration statement; and statements of income, cash flows, and changes in stockholders equity for each of the two (2) fiscal years preceding the date of the most recent balance sheet filed and for the period, if any, between the close of the most recent of the fiscal years and the date of the most recent balance sheet filed. The balance sheet and statements of income, cash flows, and changes in stockholders equity for the most recent fiscal year shall be audited; all other financial statements may be unaudited;

3. *If the maximum proceeds to be received from the offering exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000), a balance sheet as of the end of the most recent fiscal year and, if the date of the most recent fiscal year end is more than four (4) months prior to the date of filing, a balance sheet as of a date within four (4) months prior to the filing of the registration statement; and statements of income, cash flows, and changes in stockholders equity for each of the three (3) fiscal years preceding the date of the most recent balance sheet filed and for the period, if any, between the close of the most recent of the fiscal years and the date of the most recent balance sheet filed. 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, if the issuer has been in existence for less than one (1) fiscal year, the balance sheet shall be as of a date not more than four (4) months prior to the date of filing of the registration statement, and the statements of income, cash flows, and changes in stockholders equity shall be for the period from inception through the date of the balance sheet filed;

The statements of income, changes in stockholders equity, and changes in financial position shall be certified for the latest fiscal year presented~~];

(q) The written consent of an accountant, engineer, appraiser, or other person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by him, if the person is named as having prepared or certified a report or valuation (other than a public and official document or statement) which is used in connection with the registration statement; and

(r) Such additional information as the commissioner requires by rule or order.

Section 9. KRS 292.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, a registration statement under this chapter becomes effective when the commissioner so orders. The commissioner may require as a condition of registration under this chapter that a prospectus containing any designated part of the appropriate information specified in this chapter be sent or given to each person to whom an offer is made before or concurrently with:

(a) The first written offer made to him (otherwise than by means of a public advertisement) by or for the account of the issuer or any other person on whose behalf the offering is being made, or by any underwriter or broker-dealer who is offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by him as a participant in the distribution;

(b) The confirmation of any sale made by or for the account of any such person;

(c) Payment pursuant to any such sale; or

(d) Delivery of the security pursuant to any such sale, whichever first occurs; but the commissioner shall accept for use under any such requirement a current prospectus or offering circular regarding the same securities filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or regulations thereunder.

(2) A registration statement may be filed by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf the offering is to be made, or a registered broker-dealer. Any document filed under this chapter or a predecessor law within five (5) years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the document is currently accurate. The commissioner may by rule or otherwise permit the omission of any item of information or document from any registration statement.

(3) The commissioner may require as a condition of registration by qualification or coordination that (a) the proceeds from the sale of the registered security be impounded until the issuer receives a specified amount or (b) any security issued within the past three (3) years, or to be issued, to a promoter for a consideration substantially different from the public offering price, or to any person for a consideration other than cash, be delivered in escrow. The commissioner may by rule or order determine the conditions of any escrow or impounding required hereunder. The commissioner shall not reject a depository solely because of location in another state. All securities delivered in escrow to the commissioner or some other depository satisfactory to him prior to January 1, 1968, which have not previously been released shall be released from escrow and all securities delivered in escrow to the commissioner or some other depository satisfactory to him subsequent to January 1, 1968 which have not previously been released shall be released from escrow no later than ten (10) years after the date of delivery into escrow.

(4) The commissioner may also require as a condition of registration by qualification that the issuer undertake to keep the securities registered under this chapter for a period of up to five (5) years or until the securities become exempt securities under Section 12 of this Act or become covered securities[~~KRS 292.410~~], and that the issuer forward to its security holders audited annual financial statements[~~financials~~] during the period for which the shares are registered. The commissioner may by rule or order impose other undertakings.

(5) For the registration of securities by notification,[~~ or~~] coordination, or qualification, there shall be paid to the commissioner an examination fee of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) and a registration fee of three-fiftieths of one percent (0.06%) of the aggregate offering price of the securities which are to be offered in this state, but the registration fee shall in no case be less than sixty dollars ($60) nor more than one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200). The examination fee and the registration fee shall be payable in separate checks. When a registration statement is withdrawn before the effective date or a pre-effective stop order is entered under KRS 292.390, the commissioner shall retain the examination fee.[~~ For the registration of securities issued by a face-amount certificate company or a redeemable security issued by an open-end management company or unit investment trust, as those terms are defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, a new registration fee and examination fee shall be paid each year that the registration remains in effect, based upon the aggregate offering price of such securities which are to be offered in this state during that year, even though the maximum fee was paid the preceding year; and the registration statement for such securities may be amended to increase the amount of securities to be offered.~~] For a registration by notification for market-making purposes only the examination fee need be paid.

(6) When securities are registered by notification or by coordination or by qualification, they may be offered and sold by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf they are registered or by any registered broker-dealer. Every registration statement is effective for one (1) year from its effective date, or any longer period during which the security is being offered or distributed in a nonexempted transaction by or for the account of the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by any underwriter or broker-dealer who is still offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by him as a participant in the distribution, except during the time a stop order is in effect under KRS 292.390. All outstanding securities of the same class as a registered security are considered to be registered for the purpose of any nonissuer transaction:

(a) So long as the registration statement is effective; and

(b) Between the thirtieth day after the entry of any stop order suspending or revoking the effectiveness of the registration statement under KRS 292.390 (if the registration statement did not relate in whole or in part to a nonissuer distribution) and one (1) year from its effective date if any securities of the same class are outstanding. A registration statement may be withdrawn otherwise only in the discretion of the director.

~~[(7) The commissioner may require the person who filed the registration statement to file reports, not more often than quarterly, to keep reasonably current the information contained in the registration statement and to disclose the progress of the offering. The commissioner shall impose a fee of ten dollars ($10) for each such report filed with him.]~~

Section 10. KRS 292.390 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, any registration statement if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that:

(a) The registration statement as of its effective date or as of any earlier date in the case of an order denying effectiveness, or any amendment under KRS 292.380(5) as of its effective date,~~[or any report under KRS 292.380(7),]~~ is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact;

(b) Any provision of this chapter or any rule, order, or condition lawfully imposed under this chapter has been willfully violated, in connection with the offering by:

1. The person filing the registration statement;

2. The issuer, any partner, officer, or director of the issuer, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer, but only if the person filing the registration statement is directly or indirectly controlled by or acting for the issuer; or

3. Any underwriter;

(c) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of an administrative stop order or a similar order or a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state act applicable to the offering; but:

1. The commissioner may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this paragraph more than one (1) year from the date of the order or injunction relied on; and

2. He may not enter an order under this paragraph on the basis of an injunction entered under any other state act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section;

(d) The issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities which are illegal where performed;

(e) The offering has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

(f) The offering has been, or would be, made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters' and sellers' discounts, commissions, or other compensations, or promoters' profits or participation, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options;

(g) When a security is sought to be registered by notification it is not eligible for such registration;

(h) When a security is sought to be registered by coordination, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by KRS 292.360(2)(g);

(i) The applicant or registrant has failed to pay the proper registration fee; but the commissioner may enter only a denial order under this paragraph and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected;

(j) Commissions, compensation, and selling and other transaction expenses~~[A commission or fee]~~ greater than twenty percent (20%) in the aggregate, or such other amount specified in the guidelines adopted by the North American Securities Administrators Association,~~[fifteen percent (15%)]~~ would be paid directly or indirectly, in consideration for the sale of securities sought to be registered~~[and this fee shall exclude reasonable legal and accounting expenses]~~.

(2) The commissioner may not enter a stop order against an effective registration statement on the basis of a fact or transaction known to him when the registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within the next thirty (30) days.

(3) The commissioner may by order summarily postpone or suspend the effectiveness of the registration statement pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. Upon the entry of a stop order under any part of this section, the commissioner shall promptly notify the issuer of the securities, the applicant or registrant, and the person on whose behalf the securities are to be or have been offered that the order has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested within fifteen (15) days and none is ordered by the commissioner, the commissioner shall enter his written findings of fact and conclusions of law and the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to the issuer and to the applicant or registrant, shall enter his written finding of fact and conclusions of law and may modify or vacate the order. The commissioner may modify or vacate a stop order if he finds that the conditions which prompted its entry have changed or that it is otherwise in the public interest to do so.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The commissioner shall require the filing of the following documents with respect to a covered security under Section 18(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933:

Section 14. KRS 292.415 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Before any security may be issued as an exempt security under subsections (9) or[~~,~~] (12) of Section 12 of this Act[~~, (13), or (14) of KRS 292.400, or offered for sale or sold as an exempt transaction under KRS 292.410(1)(i) or (k)~~], a claim of exemption must first be filed with the commissioner and the commissioner by order shall not have determined that the exemption is unavailable within the next ten (10) full business days. A claim of exemption filed under this section shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner by rule or order requires and each offering shall be effective for a maximum of twelve (12) consecutive months unless the commissioner by rule or order extends such period of time, not to exceed five (5) years.

(2) The issuer may make offers, but not sales, before and during the ten (10) business day period required by subsection (1) of this section, if:

(a) Each prospective purchaser is advised in writing that the offer is preliminary and subject to material change; and

(b) No enforceable offer to purchase the securities may be made by a prospective purchaser, and no consideration in any form may be accepted or received, directly or indirectly, from a prospective purchaser, before the termination of the ten (10) business day period and any order disallowing the exemption has been vacated.

The commissioner may, by rule or order, prohibit offers by a particular class of issuers before the expiration of the ten (10) business day period required by subsection (1) of this section, or may require issuers to comply with additional conditions and requirements prior to making offers before the expiration of the period, if appropriate in furtherance of the intent of this chapter[~~For every claim of exemption filed with the commissioner there shall be paid to the commissioner a filing fee of one hundred dollars ($100), except that for a claim of exemption filed under subsection (9) of KRS 292.400 the filing fee is one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the maximum aggregate offering price at which the securities are to be offered in this state, but the fee shall in no case be less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than five hundred dollars ($500). The commissioner shall have authority to amend or rescind under this subsection such filing fees by rule or order if the commissioner determines that such fee is excessive under the circumstances~~].

(3) [~~Any person who fails to comply with this section shall be liable for a fee in the amount of five (5) times the initial filing fee and~~]The commissioner may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of an exemption, if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that any security has been or is about to be offered or sold in violation of this section. If the commissioner finds it appropriate in the public interest or necessary for the protection of investors, the commissioner may order any issuer in violation of this section to make an offer of rescission.

(4) Failure by any person to file a claim of exemption under this section shall not give rise to a private right of action under KRS 292.330(1), 292.340, or 292.480 which would not otherwise be available under the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Any person who fails to file a claim of exemption under this section, unless he does so intentionally, shall not be subject to KRS 292.991.

Section 15. KRS 292.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exemption or an exception from a definition is upon the person claiming it.

(2) The commissioner may require any person, who is selling or offering for sale or who is about to sell or offer for sale or who has sold or offered for sale any security within this state, to file a statement of the claim of exemption, if any, upon which such person is relying, and if any time, in the opinion of the commissioner, the information contained in such statement filed is misleading, incorrect, inadequate, or fails to establish the right of exemption, he may require such person, agent, or investment adviser to file such information as may in his opinion be necessary to establish the claimed exemption. The refusal to furnish information as required by order of the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, within a reasonable time to be fixed by the commissioner, shall be proper ground for the entry of an order by the commissioner suspending and/or canceling the registration of the broker-dealer, agent or investment adviser.

(3) The commissioner shall have authority at all times to consider and determine whether any proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security is entitled to an exemption or an exception from the definition accorded by this chapter, provided, however, that the commissioner in his discretion may decline to exercise such authority as to any proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security. Any interested party desiring the commissioner to exercise such authority shall submit to the commissioner a verified statement of all material facts relating to the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security, which verified statement shall be accompanied by a request for a ruling as to the particular exemption or exception from definition, together with a filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)[~~one hundred dollars ($100)~~]. After such notice to interested parties as the commissioner shall deem proper and after a hearing, if any, the commissioner may enter an order finding the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security entitled or not entitled to the exemption or the exception from definition as claimed. An order so entered, unless an appeal be taken therefrom in the manner prescribed in this chapter, shall be binding upon the commissioner, provided that the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security when consummated or issued conforms in every relevant and material particular with the facts as set forth in the verified statement as submitted.

Section 16. KRS 292.430 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every applicant for registration as a broker-dealer,[~~or~~] agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative under this chapter and every issuer which proposes to offer a security in this state through any person acting on an agency basis in the common law sense shall file with the commissioner, in such form as he by rule prescribes, an irrevocable consent appointing the commissioner or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against him or his successor executor or administrator which arises under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. A person who has filed such a consent in connection with a previous registration need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner, but it is not effective unless:

(a) The plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last address on file with the commissioner; and

A person who has filed a consent in connection with a previous notice filing need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner, but it is not effective unless:

(a) The plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him, sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last address on file with the commissioner; and

(b) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this subsection is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within the time as the court allows.

(3) When any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, and he has not filed a consent to service of process under subsection (1) or (2) of this section and personal jurisdiction over him cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, that conduct shall be considered equivalent to his appointment of the commissioner or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against him or his successor executor or administrator which grows out of that conduct and which is brought under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, with the same force and validity as if served on him personally. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner, and it is not effective unless:

(a) The plaintiff, who may be the commissioner, in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last known address or takes other steps which are reasonably calculated to give actual notice; and

(b) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this subsection is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

Section 17. KRS 292.450 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Neither the fact that an application for registration under KRS 292.330 or a registration statement under KRS 292.350, 292.360, or 292.370 has been filed, nor the fact that a person or security is effectively registered, constitutes a finding by the commissioner that any document filed under this chapter is true, complete, and not misleading.

(2) Neither any such fact nor the fact that an exemption or exception is available for a security or a transaction means that the commissioner has passed in any way upon the merits or qualifications of, or recommended or given approval to, any person, security, or transaction. It is unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to any prospective purchaser, customer, or client any representation inconsistent with this section.

(3) Neither the fact that a notice filing for a covered security or for a covered adviser has been filed, nor the fact that the person, security, or transaction is registered or exempt from registration, constitutes a finding by the commissioner that any document filed under this chapter is true, complete, and not misleading or that the person, security, or transaction is entitled to claim an exemption.

(4) It is unlawful to make or cause to be made to any prospective purchaser, customer, or client any representation inconsistent with this section.

Section 18. KRS 292.460 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner in his discretion:

(a) May make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as he deems necessary to determine whether any registration should be granted, denied, or revoked or whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter[~~hereunder~~], or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms hereunder;

(c) May publish information concerning any violation of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder.

(2) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the commissioner or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, any court of competent jurisdiction, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to that person an order requiring him to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by him, there to produce documentary evidence if so ordered or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(4) No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner, or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by him, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise) required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after claiming his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Section 19. KRS 292.470 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter[~~hereunder~~], he may in his discretion bring any or all of the following remedies:

(1) Issue a cease and desist order, with or without a prior hearing, appealable to Franklin Circuit Court, against the person or persons engaged in the prohibited activities directing that person or persons to cease and desist from illegal activity. In order to issue an order without a prior hearing, the commissioner must find that the delay in issuing a final cease and desist order will cause harm to the public;

(2) An action in the Franklin Circuit Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any such acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter[~~hereunder~~]. Upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The commissioner's findings of fact and conclusions of law contained in an order entered in compliance with subsection (3) of this section, if supported by substantial evidence and if not unlawful and unreasonable, shall be conclusive and shall not be disturbed by the court in granting relief sought in compliance with this subsection. In addition, upon a proper showing by the commissioner, the court may enter an order of rescission, restitution, or disgorgement directed to any person who has engaged in any act constituting a violation of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter. The commissioner may not be required to post a bond; or

(3) Issue a final order, after notice and a hearing, containing findings of fact and conclusions of law, directing any person or persons found to have engaged in, or about to be engaged in, activity that constitutes a violation of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter:

(a) To cease and desist from the activity;

(b) To offer rescission to purchasers of securities offered or sold in violation of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter and to honor the offer;

(f) To pay fines assessed under subsection (14) of Section 22 of this Act and costs assessed under subsection (15) of Section 22 of this Act.

Section 20. KRS 292.480 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person, who offers or sells a security in violation of this chapter or of any rules or orders[~~and regulations~~] promulgated hereunder or offers or sells a security by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in the light of the circumstances under which they are made not misleading (the buyer not knowing of the untruth or omission) and who does not sustain the burden of proof that he did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the untruth or omission is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at the legal rate[~~six percent (6%) per annum~~] from the date of payment costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, less the amount of any income received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if he no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less (a) the value of the security when the buyer is disposed of it and (b) interest at the legal rate[~~six percent (6%)~~] per annum from the date of disposition.

(2) Any person who purchases a security in violation of this chapter or of any administrative regulations or orders promulgated under this chapter or who purchases a security by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they are made not misleading, the seller not knowing of the untruth or omission, and who does not sustain the burden of proof that he did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the untruth or omission is liable to the person selling the security to him, who may sue either at law or in equity for:

(a) A return of the security, together with any income received by the purchaser on the security, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, upon a tender of the full amount of the consideration received for the security; or

(b) If the purchaser no longer owns the security, the difference between the fair value of the security at the date of the transaction and the consideration received for the security, together with interest on the difference at the legal rate compounded annually from the date of the transaction, and costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section, when the purchaser no longer owns the security, if a seller seeking relief under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section offers and presents admissible evidence of the highest intermediate value of the subject security as of some specific date occurring within a reasonable period of time after the date of the sale of the security but no later than the date an action under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section is filed, or of the total consideration received by the purchaser in a subsequent sale of that security, it shall be presumed until rebutted by a preponderance of evidence to the contrary that the value or sale price, as applicable, is the fair value of the security at the date of the transaction as those terms are used in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section to measure damages. For purposes of subsections (1) and (2) of this section and all other provisions of this chapter, statements and omissions may be either oral or written.

(4) Every person who directly or indirectly controls a seller or purchaser liable under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, every partner, officer or director (or person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions) or employee of[~~ such~~] a seller or purchaser who materially aids in the sale or purchase, and every broker-dealer or agent who materially aids in the sale or purchase is also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as the seller or purchaser, unless the nonseller or nonpurchaser who is so liable sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist. There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons so liable.

(5)[~~(3)~~] Any tender specified in this section may be made at any time before entry of judgment. Every cause of action under this statute survives the death of any person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant. No person may sue under this section more than three (3) years after the occurrence of the act, omission, or transaction constituting a violation of this chapter[~~contract of sale~~]. No person may sue under this section:

(a) If the buyer received a written offer, before suit and at a time when he owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at the legal rate[~~six percent (6%) per annum~~] from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security, and he failed to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt;[~~, or~~]

(b) If the buyer received[~~ such~~] an offer before suit and at a time when he did not own the security, unless he rejected the offer in writing within thirty (30) days of its receipt; or

(c) If paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section applies, and if the seller received a written offer before suit equal to the difference between the greater of the highest intermediate value of the security or the consideration received by the purchaser upon disposal of the security and the consideration received by the seller for the security, together with interest on the difference at the legal rate from the date of the transaction; or if paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section applies, and if the seller received a written offer to return the security together with any income received by the purchaser on the security; and in either case he failed to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt.

(6)[~~(4)~~] No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any[~~ such~~] contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract. Any condition, stipulation or provision binding any person acquiring any security to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

(7) The rights and remedies provided by this section are in addition to any other rights or remedies that may exist at law or in equity.

Section 21. KRS 292.490 is amended to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final order of the commissioner may obtain a review of the order by filing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B in the Franklin Circuit Court, within thirty (30)[~~sixty (60)~~] days after the entry of the order, a written petition praying that the order be modified or set aside in whole or in part. A copy of the petition shall be forthwith served upon the commissioner, and thereupon the commissioner shall certify and file in court a copy of the filing, testimony, and other evidence upon which the order was entered. When these have been filed, the court has exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, enforce, or set aside the order, in whole or in part. No objection to the order may be considered by the court unless it was urged before the commissioner or there were reasonable grounds for failure to do so. The findings of the commissioner as to the facts, if supported by substantial evidence, are conclusive. If either party applies to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the commissioner, the court may order the additional evidence to be taken before the commissioner and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such conditions as the court may consider proper. The commissioner may modify his findings as to the facts, by reason of the additional evidence so taken; and he shall file any modified or new findings, which if supported by substantial evidence shall be conclusive, and any recommendation for the modification or setting aside of the original order. The commencement of proceedings under this section does not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the commissioner's order. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the Franklin Circuit Court on any such appeal to the Court of Appeals on the same terms and conditions as an appeal is taken in civil actions.

Section 22. KRS 292.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The administration of the provisions of this chapter shall be under the Department of Financial Institutions.

(2) It is unlawful for the commissioner or any of his officers or employees to use for personal benefit any information which is filed with or obtained by the commissioner and which is not made public. Except as provided in subsection (18) of this section, no provision of this chapter authorizes the commissioner or any of his officers or employees to disclose any confidential information except among themselves or when necessary or appropriate in an administrative hearing or investigation under this chapter. No provision of this chapter either creates or derogates from any privilege which exists at common law or otherwise when documentary or other evidence is sought under a subpoena directed to the commissioner or any of his officers or employees.

(3) The commissioner may from time to time promulgate, amend, and repeal administrative regulations, forms, and orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including administrative regulations and forms governing registration statements, applications, notice filings, and reports and defining any terms, whether or not used in this chapter, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of administrative regulations and forms, the commissioner may classify securities, persons, and matters within his jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes.

(4) No administrative regulation, form, or order may be promulgated, amended, or repealed unless the commissioner finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provision of this chapter. In promulgating administrative regulations and forms, the commissioner may cooperate with the securities administrators of the other states and the Securities and Exchange Commission with a view to effectuating the policy of this statute to achieve maximum uniformity in the form and content of registration statement, applications, notice filings, and reports whenever practicable.

(5) The commissioner may by administrative regulation or order prescribe the form and content of financial statements required under this chapter and the circumstances under which consolidated financial statements shall be certified by certified public accountants. All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally-accepted accounting standards.

(6) All administrative regulations and forms of the commissioner shall be published.

(7) No provision of this chapter imposing any liability applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any administrative regulation, form, or order of the commissioner, notwithstanding that the administrative regulation, form, or order may later be amended or repealed or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(8) A document is filed when it is received by the commissioner or when the commissioner receives confirmation that a document has been filed pursuant to Sections 5, 7, 8, and 11 of this Act[~~KRS 292.330~~].

(9) Every administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and the provisions of this chapter, and shall be public unless the commissioner in his discretion grants a request joined in by all the respondents that the hearing be conducted privately.

(10) The commissioner shall keep a register of all applications for registration and registration statements and notice filings which are or have ever been effective under this chapter and all denial, suspension, or revocation final orders which have ever been entered under this chapter. The register shall be open for public inspection.

(11) The information contained in or filed with any registration statement, application, notice filings, or report may be made available to the public under administrative regulations as the commissioner may promulgate.

(12) Upon request and at reasonable charges as he prescribes, the commissioner shall furnish to any person photostatic or other copies (certified under his seal of office if requested) of any entry in the register or any document which is a matter of public record. In any administrative hearing or prosecution under this chapter, any copy so certified is prima facie evidence of the contents of the entry or document certified.

(13) The commissioner in his discretion may honor requests from interested persons for interpretative opinions.

(14) The commissioner may assess civil fines against any person who violates any provision of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter. Fines imposed under this subsection shall not be less than five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation.

(15) In addition to any fines levied under subsection (14) of this section, the commissioner may also assess the costs of any investigation, including attorney's fees incurred as a result of bringing enforcement actions under the provisions of this chapter and costs of holding any hearing as a result of an enforcement action.

(16) If fines or costs assessed under this section are not paid, the commissioner may notify the Attorney General who shall promptly institute an action in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in the Franklin Circuit Court for the recovery of the fines or costs.

(17) The remedies provided by this section are not exclusive and may be sought and employed in any combination to enforce the provisions of this chapter. The remedies set forth in this section shall not prohibit or restrict the commissioner from participating in any way whatsoever with respect to any joint examination, investigation, enforcement action, settlement, or other legal or regulatory action with securities administrators of other jurisdictions, the Securities and Exchange Commission, any self-regulatory organization, or any national securities exchange or national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, the commissioner may, at any time and in his sole discretion, share or cause to be shared by any employee of the department any information gained pursuant to an examination, investigation, filing, or from any other source, with other governmental agencies, jurisdictions, or governmental or self-regulating organizations or entities, to the extent the commissioner, in his sole discretion, deems that the sharing of information is or will be reasonably necessary or useful to the department or other agency in carrying out its regulatory responsibilities.

(18) The following materials, documentation, and other information are deemed to have been confidentially disclosed to the department and to be confidential information under the Kentucky Open Records Act and, specifically, the provisions of KRS 61.878(1)(b), to the extent described in this subsection and except as provided further in administrative regulation:

(a) Any materials, documentation, or other information provided to or otherwise obtained by the department during the course of a routine compliance examination of any broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative; and

(b) Any materials, documentation, or other information provided to or otherwise obtained by the department from any other regulatory or governmental body, including but not limited to any other state securities regulator, the Securities and Exchange Commission, any self-regulatory organization, any state or federal criminal agency, and any criminal prosecutorial body, and which the other body expressly deems to be confidential.

Section 23. KRS 292.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of this chapter is to:

(a) Protect Kentucky investors by preventing investment fraud and related illegal conduct or, if this fraud or illegal conduct has already occurred, remedying, where possible, the harm done to Kentucky investors through active implementation and application of this chapter's enforcement powers;

(b) Educate the investing public as to the best methods for making informed investment choices; and

(c) Assist companies in their legitimate attempts to raise capital and transact in securities in Kentucky.

(2) In addition, this chapter shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it and to coordinate the interpretation and administration of this chapter with the related federal regulation.

Section 24. KRS 292.540 is amended to read as follows:

All effective registrations under~~ ~~prior law and all conditions imposed upon such registrations remain in effect so long as they would have remained in effect if they had become effective under this chapter. They are considered to have been filed, entered or imposed under this chapter, except to the extent the conditions apply to securities that are now covered securities.

(3) For the purpose of this section, an offer to sell or to buy is made in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, when the offer originates from this state or is directed by the offeror to this state and received at the place to which it is directed (or at any post office in this state in the case of a mailed offer).

(4) For the purpose of this section, an offer to buy or to sell is accepted in this state when acceptance is communicated to the offeror in this state and has not previously been communicated to the offeror, orally or in writing, outside this state; and acceptance is communicated to the offeror in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, when the offeree directs it to the offeror in this state reasonably believing the offeror to be in this state and it is received at the place to which it is directed (or at any post office in this state in the case of a mailed acceptance).

(5) An offer to sell or to buy is not made in this state when the publisher circulates or there is circulated on his behalf in this state any bona fide newspaper or other publication of general, regular, and paid circulation which is not published in this state, or which is published in this state but has had more than two-thirds (2/3) of its circulation outside this state during the past twelve (12) months, or a radio or television program originating outside this state is received in this state.

(6) Subsections (2), (3), and (4) of KRS 292.320, as well as KRS 292.330(1) and 292.450 so far as investment advisers or investment adviser representatives are concerned, apply when any act instrumental in effecting prohibited conduct is done in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state.

Section 3. KRS 292.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person, in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of any security, directly or indirectly:

(a) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;

(b) To make any untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading; or

(c) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

(2) It is unlawful for any person who receives any consideration from another person primarily for advising the other person as to the value of securities or their purchase or sale, whether through the issuance of analyses or reports or otherwise:

(a) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud the other person; or

(b) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon the other person.

(3) It is unlawful for any investment adviser to enter into, extend, or renew any investment advisory contract unless it provides in writing:

(a) That the investment adviser shall not be compensated on the basis of a share of capital gains upon or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of the client;

(b) That no assignment of the contract may be made by the investment adviser without the consent of the other party to the contract; and

(c) That the investment adviser, if a partnership, shall notify the other party to the contract of any change in the membership of the partnership within a reasonable time after the change.

(4) Paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section does not prohibit an investment advisory contract which provides for compensation based upon the total value of a fund averaged over a definite period, or as of definite dates or taken as of a definite date.[~~ Paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section shall not prohibit investment advisers to investment companies as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940 from charging any incentive compensation fee not in violation of the Investment Company Act of 1940 or the rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder, provided that the commissioner shall approve in writing the incentive compensation fee arrangement as being fair and reasonable.~~] "Assignment", as used in paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section includes any direct or indirect transfer or hypothecation of an investment advisory contract by the assignor or of a controlling block of the assignor's outstanding voting securities by a security holder of the assignor; but, if the investment adviser is a partnership, no assignment of an investment advisory contract is considered to result from the death or withdrawal of a minority of the members of the investment adviser having only a minority interest in the business of the investment adviser, or from the admission to the investment adviser of one (1) or more members who, after admission, will be only a minority of the members and will have only a minority interest in the business.

Section 4. KRS 292.325 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the commissioner may by rule or order require the filing of any prospectus, pamphlet, circular, form letter, advertisement, or other sales literature, radio, television, or other advertising communication addressed or intended for distribution to prospective investors, including clients or prospective clients of an investment adviser, as part of a registered offering or as a part of an exemption offering required to be filed under KRS 292.415.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not require a covered adviser to file with the commissioner any documents listed in subsection (1) of this section or any document, except a prospectus, relating to a covered security.

Section 5. KRS 292.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to transact business in this state as a broker-dealer or agent, unless he is registered under this chapter. It is unlawful for any broker-dealer or issuer to employ an agent unless the agent is registered. It is unlawful for any investment adviser that is required to be registered under this chapter to employ an investment adviser representative unless the investment adviser representative is registered under this chapter. It is unlawful for any person to transact business in this state as an investment adviser unless:

It is unlawful for an investment adviser representative to be employed by a covered adviser who is required to make a notice filing with the commissioner unless the investment adviser representative is registered under this chapter.

(3) A broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative may apply for registration by filing with the commissioner or the commissioner's designee an application together with a consent to service of process pursuant to KRS 292.430 and payment of the fee prescribed in subsection (11)[~~(10)~~].

(a) Registration of a broker-dealer automatically constitutes registration of any agent who is a partner, officer, or director or a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions (except any partner, officer, or director or other such person whose registration as an agent is denied, suspended, or revoked under subsection (13)[~~(12)~~]) without the filing of applications for registration as agents or the payment of fees for registration as agents.

(b) Except for any partner, officer, director, or other person whose registration as an investment adviser representative is denied, suspended, or revoked under subsection (13) of this section, registration of an investment adviser automatically constitutes registration of any investment adviser representative who is a partner, officer, director, or a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, without the filing of applications for registration as investment adviser representatives or the payment of fees for registration, as investment adviser representatives.

(c) The registration application shall contain whatever information the commissioner requires concerning such matters as:

1.[~~(a)~~] The applicant's form and place of organization;

2.[~~(b)~~] The applicant's proposed method of doing business;

3.[~~(c)~~] The qualifications and business history of the applicant and in the case of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, any partner, officer, or director, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling the broker-dealer or investment adviser; and in the case of an investment adviser, the qualifications and business history of an employee;

4.[~~(d)~~] Any injunction or administrative order or conviction of a misdemeanor involving a security or any aspect of the securities business and any conviction of a felony; and

5.[~~(e)~~] The applicant's financial condition and history.

(4)[~~(3)~~] If no denial order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under subsection (13)[~~(12)~~], registration becomes effective at noon of the thirtieth day after an application is filed, except as otherwise noted in this subsection:[~~.~~]

(a) The commissioner may specify an earlier effective date and he may by order defer the effective date until noon of the thirtieth day after the filing of any amendment.

(b) The commissioner may by rule establish a procedure for transfer of an agent or an investment adviser representative whereby registration may become effective prior to the filing of an application; but any registration so transferred shall not be effective for more than thirty (30) days, unless within that thirty (30) days a properly completed application is filed.

(c) The thirtieth day effective day is tolled if, before 5 p.m. EST of the thirtieth day, the commissioner notifies the applicant that the application is incomplete or that he intends to deny the application, pending the completion of the application or a hearing and final order on the intent to deny the application or the waiver of a hearing through the failure to request a hearing with fifteen (15) days of receiving notice of the intent to deny the application, as applicable.

(5)[~~(4)~~] The commissioner may require as a condition of registration that the applicant (and, in the case of a corporation or partnership, the officers, directors, or partners) pass a written examination as evidence of knowledge of the securities business.

(6)[~~(5)~~] Subject to the limitations of Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the commissioner may by rule require the existence and maintenance of a minimum liquid net capital for registered broker-dealers and investment advisers and a minimum ratio between net capital and aggregate indebtedness, or both.

(7)[~~(6)~~] Subject to the limitations of Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the commissioner may by rule require registered broker-dealers, agents, and investment advisers to post surety bonds in an amount up to $25,000, and may determine their conditions, except under this subsection that no such bond may be required of any registrant whose net capital exceeds $100,000. An appropriate deposit of cash or securities shall be accepted in lieu of any required surety bond. Every surety bond shall provide for suit thereon by any person who has a cause of action under KRS 292.480, and every such bond shall provide that no suit may be maintained to enforce any liability on the bond unless brought within three (3)[~~two (2)~~] years after the later of the sale or other act upon which it is based or the discovery of the sale or act.

(8)[~~(7)~~] Subject to the limitations of Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the commissioner may by rule require registered broker-dealers to carry fidelity bonds, covering its agents, general partners, and officers, in such form, covering such risks, and in such amounts (not exceeding $250,000) as he deems necessary for the protection of the public; and he may by rule require registered broker-dealers to furnish satisfactory evidence that they have such bonds.

(9)[~~(8)~~] Every registration of a broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, and investment adviser representative and every notice filing shall be effective until December 31 of the year of registration or notice unless the commissioner by rule extends or lessens the[~~such~~] registration or notice period[~~and~~] may be renewed as hereinafter provided. The commissioner may by rule increase or reduce the registration fee or notice filing fee set forth in subsection (11)[~~(10)~~] of this section should the[~~such~~] registration period or notice period be extended or lessened.

(a) The registration of an agent is not effective during any period when he is not associated with an issuer or a registered broker-dealer specified in his application or a notice filed with the commissioner or the commissioner's designee. When an agent begins or terminates a connection with an issuer or registered broker-dealer, the agent and the issuer or broker-dealer shall promptly notify the commissioner or the commissioner's designee.

(b) The registration of an investment adviser representative is not effective during any period when he is not associated with an investment adviser specified in his application or with a covered adviser specified in a notice filed with the commissioner or the commissioner's designee. When an investment adviser representative begins or terminates a connection with an investment adviser, the investment adviser representative and the investment adviser shall promptly notify the commissioner or the commissioner's designee. When an investment adviser representative begins or terminates a connection with a covered adviser, the investment adviser representative shall notify the commissioner or the commissioner's designee.

(10)[~~(9)~~] Registration of a broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative may be renewed by filing with the commissioner or the commissioner's designee prior to the expiration thereof an application containing the[~~such~~] information[~~ as~~] the commissioner may require to indicate any material change in the information contained in the original application or any renewal application for registration as a broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative filed with the commissioner or the commissioner's designee by the applicant, payment of the prescribed fee and, in the case of a broker-dealer, a financial statement showing the financial condition of such broker-dealer as of a date within ninety (90) days. A notice filing by a covered adviser may be renewed by filing with the commissioner or the commissioner's designee a notice filing consisting of any documents filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as the commissioner may require by rule or order. A registered broker-dealer or investment adviser may file an application for registration of a successor and a covered adviser may file a notice filing for a successor, whether or not the successor is then in existence, for the unexpired portion of the year without payment of any fee.

(11) (a)[~~(10)~~] The fee for initial or renewal registration shall be one hundred twenty dollars ($120) for a broker-dealer, one hundred dollars ($100) for an investment adviser, fifty dollars ($50) for an agent, fifty dollars ($50) for an investment adviser representative, and fifty dollars ($50) for transfer of an agent or investment adviser representative, none of which fees shall be refundable.

(b) The fee for notice filings shall be two hundred dollars ($200) for a covered adviser.

(12)[~~(11)~~] (a) Every registered broker-dealer and investment adviser shall make and keep all accounts, correspondence, memoranda, papers, books, and other records which the commissioner by rule prescribes. All records required shall be preserved for three (3) years unless the commissioner by rule prescribes otherwise for particular types of records. All required records shall be kept within this state or shall, at the request of the commissioner, be made available at any time for examination by him either in the principal office of the registrant or by production of exact copies thereof in this state. If a broker-dealer is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the books and records required by this section are limited to those that the Securities Act of 1934 requires the broker-dealer to maintain. If an investment adviser has his principal place of business in another state, the requirements of this section shall be limited to those books and records requirements of that state, provided the adviser is registered in that state and in compliance with its recordkeeping requirements.

(b) Every registered broker-dealer and investment adviser shall file such reports as the commissioner by rule prescribes. If a broker-dealer is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the reports required by this section are limited to those required under the Securities Act of 1934. If an investment adviser has his principal place of business in another state, the requirements of this section shall be limited to the reporting requirements of that state, provided the adviser is registered in that state and in compliance with its reporting requirements.

(c) If the information contained in any document filed with the commissioner or the commissioner's designee is or becomes inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect, the broker-dealer or investment adviser, as applicable, shall promptly file a correcting amendment. In the case of a covered adviser, the adviser shall file only copies of those documents required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(d) The commissioner may make periodic examinations, within or without this state, of each broker-dealer and investment adviser at such times and in such scope as he determines. These examinations may be made without prior notice to the broker-dealer or investment adviser. The expense reasonably attributable to any such examination shall be paid by the broker-dealer or investment adviser whose business is examined but the expense so payable shall not exceed an amount which the commissioner by rule prescribes. For the purpose of avoiding unnecessary duplication of examinations, the commissioner, insofar as he deems it practicable in administering this subsection, may cooperate with securities administrators of other states, the securities and exchange commission, and any national securities exchange or national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(e) The commissioner may by rule prohibit unreasonable charges, profits, commissions, or other compensation of broker-dealers and investment advisers.

(f) The commissioner may prescribe rules for the conduct of business by broker-dealers and investment advisers which he finds appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(g) The commissioner may enter into an arrangement, agreement, or other working relationship with federal, other state, and self-regulatory authorities whereby documents may be filed and maintained in a central depository system with the National Association of Securities Dealers or other agencies or authorities. It is the intent of this paragraph that the commissioner be provided power to reduce duplication of filings, reduce administrative costs, and establish uniform procedures, forms, and administration with the states and federal authorities. The commissioner may permit initial and renewal registration filing~~s~~ required under this chapter to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, or other similar authorities. The commissioner may accept uniform securities examinations or other procedures designed to implement a uniform national securities regulatory system or facilitate common practices and procedures among the states.

(13)[~~(12)~~] (a) The commissioner may by order deny, suspend, or revoke registration of any broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, or bar or censure any registrant or any officer, director, partner, or person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions for a registrant, from employment with a registered broker-dealer or investment adviser, or restrict or limit a registrant as to any function or activity of the business for which registration is required in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer, or investment adviser, any partner, officer, or director, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling the broker-dealer or investment adviser:

1. Has filed an application for registration under this section which, as of its effective date, or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact;
2. Has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or a predecessor law or any rule or order under this chapter or a predecessor law;
3. Has been convicted, within the past ten (10) years, of any misdemeanor involving a security or any aspect of the securities business, or any felony, or has pending against him any such criminal charge;
4. Is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the securities business;

5. Is the subject of an order of the commissioner denying, suspending, or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, agent,~~[or]~~ investment adviser, or investment adviser representative;

6. Is the subject of any of the following orders that are currently effective and were issued within the last five (5) years:

    a. An order by the securities agency or administrator of another state or Canadian province or territory, or by the Securities and Exchange Commission, entered after notice and opportunity for hearing, denying, suspending, limiting or revoking the person's license as a broker-dealer, sales representative, or investment adviser, or the substantial equivalent of those terms;

    b. An order of a self-regulatory organization finding a violation of federal law or a rule of the self-regulatory organization;

    c. A United States Postal Service fraud order;

    d. A cease and desist or other administrative order entered after notice and opportunity for hearing by the commissioner, the securities agency or administrator of another state, or a Canadian province or territory, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the Commodity Futures Trading Commission; or

    e. An order by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission denying, suspending, or revoking registration under the Commodity Exchange Act~~[Is the subject of an order entered within the past five (5) years by the securities administrator of any other state or by the Securities and Exchange Commission denying or revoking registration as a broker-dealer or agent, or the substantial equivalent of those terms as defined in this chapter, or is the subject of an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission suspending or expelling him from a national securities exchange or national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or is the subject of a United States Post Office fraud order; but:~~

    ~~a. The commissioner may not institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under this paragraph more than one (1) year from the date of the order relied on; and~~

    ~~b. He may not enter any order under this paragraph on the basis of an order unless that order was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for an order under this section]~~;

7. Has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business;

8. Is insolvent, either in the sense that his liabilities exceed his assets or in the sense that he cannot meet his obligations as they mature; but the commissioner may not enter an order against a broker-dealer or investment adviser under this paragraph without a finding of insolvency as to the broker-dealer or investment adviser;~~[or]~~

9. Is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience, or knowledge of the securities business, except as provided in paragraph (b) below; or the commissioner may by order, deny, suspend, or revoke any registration if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or registrant:

    a. Has failed reasonably to supervise his agents if he is a broker-dealer or his employees or investment adviser representatives if he is an investment adviser; or

    b. Has failed to pay the proper filing fee; but the commissioner may enter only a denial order under this clause, and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected.

The commissioner may not institute a suspension or revocation proceeding on the basis of a fact or transaction known to him when registration became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within the next thirty (30) days; or

10. Has violated the law of a foreign jurisdiction governing or regulating any aspect of the business of securities or banking; or within the past five (5) years, has been the subject of an action of a securities regulator or a foreign jurisdiction denying, revoking, or suspending the right to engage in the business of securities as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative or is the subject of an action of any securities exchange or self-regulatory organization operating under the authority of the securities regulator of a state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction suspending or expelling the person from membership in the exchange or self-regulatory organization.

(b) The following provisions govern the application of subparagraph 9. of paragraph (a) of this subsection:

1. The commissioner may not enter an order against a broker-dealer on the basis of the lack of qualification of any person other than the broker-dealer himself if he is an individual or an agent of the broker-dealer;

2. The commissioner may not enter an order against an investment adviser on the basis of the lack of qualification of any person other than the investment adviser himself if he is an individual or any other person who represents the investment adviser in doing any of the acts which make him an investment adviser;

3. The commissioner may not enter an order solely on the basis of lack of experience if the applicant or registrant is qualified by training or knowledge or both;
4. The commissioner shall consider that an agent who will work under the supervision of a registered broker-dealer need not have the same qualifications as a broker-dealer;
5. The commissioner shall consider that an investment adviser is not necessarily qualified solely on the basis of experience as a broker-dealer or agent. When he finds that an applicant for initial or renewal registration as a broker-dealer is not qualified as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative, he may by order condition the applicant's registration as a broker-dealer upon his not transacting business in this state as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative;
6. The commissioner may by rule provide for an examination, which may be written or oral or both, to be taken by any class of or all applicants, as well as investment adviser representatives and persons who represent or will represent an investment adviser in doing any of the acts which make him an investment adviser.

(c) The commissioner may by order summarily postpone an application for registration or suspend a registration pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. A summary suspension of an existing registration shall only be made based upon a finding by the commissioner that such action is in the public interest and that there is substantial evidence of a violation of law that constitutes an immediate danger to the public. KRS 13B.125 shall apply to the entry of a summary suspension of a registration. An appeal of a summary suspension shall address only the necessity of a summary action and shall not constitute an appeal of the merits of the underlying violation of the law. Upon the entry of the order, the commissioner shall promptly notify the applicant or registrant, as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is an agent, that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the commissioner, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

(d) If the commissioner finds that any registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to do business as a broker-dealer, agent,[~~or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, or is subject to an adjudication of mental disability or to the control of a conservator or guardian, or cannot be located after reasonable search, the commissioner may by order cancel the registration or application.

(e) Withdrawal from registration as a broker-dealer, agent,[~~ or~~] investment adviser, or investment adviser representative becomes effective thirty (30) days after receipt of an application to withdraw or within such shorter period of time as the commissioner may determine, unless a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending when the application is filed or a proceeding to revoke or suspend or to impose conditions upon the withdrawal is instituted within thirty (30) days after the application is filed. If a proceeding is pending or instituted, withdrawal becomes effective at such time and upon such conditions as the commissioner by order determines. If no proceeding is pending or instituted and withdrawal automatically becomes effective, the commissioner may nevertheless institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under subparagraph 2. of paragraph (a) of this subsection within one (1) year after withdrawal became effective and enter a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective. A notice filing may be withdrawn or terminated by providing notice of the withdrawal or termination, as the case may be, to the commissioner; the withdrawal or termination is effective upon receipt by the commissioner of the notice.

(f) No order may be entered under any part of this section except the first sentence of paragraph (c) of this subsection without appropriate prior notice to the applicant or registrant (as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is an agent or representative), opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(14) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, any broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser or investment adviser representative, or transaction or class of transactions by such persons, for which the commissioner expressly by rule or order finds that registration is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors shall be exempt from registration under this section. The commissioner may require that persons exempted from registration under this provision file such forms and information for notice purposes and be bound by one (1) or several provisions of this section as the commissioner deems necessary and appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and the commissioner may impose filing fees in connection therewith, provided however, that the amount of the fee shall not exceed the fee which would be due in the event the exempt person were required to obtain registration.

Section 6. KRS 292.340 is amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to offer or sell any security in this state, unless the security is registered under this chapter, or the security or transaction is exempt under this chapter, or the security is a covered security[~~except securities exempt under KRS 292.400 or when sold in transactions exempt under KRS 292.410, unless such security is registered under this chapter~~].

Section 7. KRS 292.360 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any security for which a registration statement[~~ has been filed~~] under the Securities Act of 1933 or an offering statement under Regulation A of the Securities Act of 1933 has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the same offering may be registered by coordination.

(2) A registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to payment of the registration fee prescribed in KRS 292.380, and, if required under KRS 292.430, a consent to service of process meeting the requirements of that section:

(a) One(1) copy[~~Three (3) copies~~] of the latest form of prospectus or offering circular filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or Regulation A promulgated under that Act together with all amendments thereto;

(b) The amount of securities to be offered in this state;

(c) The states in which a registration statement or similar document in connection with the offering has been or is expected to be filed;

(d) Any adverse order, judgment, or decree previously entered in connection with the offering by any court or the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(e) If the commissioner by rule or otherwise requires, a copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws (or their substantial equivalents) of the issuer currently in effect, a copy of any agreements with or among underwriters, a copy of any indenture or other instrument governing the issuance of the security to be registered, and a specimen or copy of the security;

(f) If the commissioner requests, any other information, or copies of any other documents, filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or Regulation A promulgated under that Act; and

(g) An undertaking to forward promptly to the commissioner all amendments to the federal registration statement or offering statement, other than an amendment which merely delays the effective date.

(3) A registration statement under this section automatically becomes effective with the commissioner at the moment the federal registration statement or offering statement becomes effective or is qualified, if all the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) No stop order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under KRS 292.390;

(b) The registration statement has been on file with the commissioner for at least ten (10) days; and

(c) A statement of the maximum and minimum proposed offering prices and the maximum underwriting discounts and commissions has been on file for two (2) full business days or such shorter period as the commissioner permits by rule or otherwise and the offering is made within those limitations. The registrant shall promptly notify the commissioner by telephone,[~~ or~~] telegram, or other electronic means of the date and time when the federal registration statement or offering statement became effective or was qualified and the content of the price amendment, if any, and shall promptly file a post-effective amendment, containing the information and documents in the price amendment. "Price amendment" means the final federal amendment which includes a statement of the offering price, underwriting and selling discounts or commissions, amount of proceeds, conversion rates, call prices, and other matters dependent upon the offering price.

(4) Upon failure to receive the required notification and post-effective amendment with respect to the price amendment, the commissioner may enter a stop order, without notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with subsection (3) of this section, if he promptly notifies the registrant by telephone or telegram (and promptly confirms by letter or telegram when he notifies by telephone) of[~~or~~] the issuance of the order. If the registrant proves compliance with the requirements of subsection (3) of this section as to notice and post-effective amendment, the stop order is void as of the time of its entry. The commissioner may by rule or otherwise waive either or both of the conditions specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (3) of this section. If the federal registration statement or offering statement becomes effective or is qualified before all these conditions are satisfied and they are not waived, the registration statement automatically becomes effective with the commissioner as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the registrant advises the commissioner of the date when the federal registration statement or offering statement is expected to become effective or to be qualified, the commissioner shall promptly advise the registrant by telephone,[~~ or~~] telegram, or other electronic means, at the registrant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether he then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under KRS 292.390; but this advice by the commissioner does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any time.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3) of this section, a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 that becomes effective immediately upon filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission shall become effective under this section automatically at the time the registration statement, in the form filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, is properly filed, along with the appropriate fee, with the commissioner.

Section 9. KRS 292.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, a registration statement under this chapter becomes effective when the commissioner so orders. The commissioner may require as a condition of registration under this chapter that a prospectus containing any designated part of the appropriate information specified in this chapter be sent or given to each person to whom an offer is made before or concurrently with:

(a) The first written offer made to him (otherwise than by means of a public advertisement) by or for the account of the issuer or any other person on whose behalf the offering is being made, or by any underwriter or broker-dealer who is offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by him as a participant in the distribution;

(b) The confirmation of any sale made by or for the account of any such person;

(c) Payment pursuant to any such sale; or

(d) Delivery of the security pursuant to any such sale, whichever first occurs; but the commissioner shall accept for use under any such requirement a current prospectus or offering circular regarding the same securities filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or regulations thereunder.

(2) A registration statement may be filed by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf the offering is to be made, or a registered broker-dealer. Any document filed under this chapter or a predecessor law within five (5) years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the document is currently accurate. The commissioner may by rule or otherwise permit the omission of any item of information or document from any registration statement.

(3) The commissioner may require as a condition of registration by qualification or coordination that (a) the proceeds from the sale of the registered security be impounded until the issuer receives a specified amount or (b) any security issued within the past three (3) years, or to be issued, to a promoter for a consideration substantially different from the public offering price, or to any person for a consideration other than cash, be delivered in escrow. The commissioner may by rule or order determine the conditions of any escrow or impounding required hereunder. The commissioner shall not reject a depository solely because of location in another state. All securities delivered in escrow to the commissioner or some other depository satisfactory to him prior to January 1, 1968, which have not previously been released shall be released from escrow and all securities delivered in escrow to the commissioner or some other depository satisfactory to him subsequent to January 1, 1968 which have not previously been released shall be released from escrow no later than ten (10) years after the date of delivery into escrow.

(4) The commissioner may also require as a condition of registration by qualification that the issuer undertake to keep the securities registered under this chapter for a period of up to five (5) years or until the securities become exempt securities under Section 12 of this Act or become covered securities[~~KRS 292.410~~], and that the issuer forward to its security holders audited annual financial statements[~~financials~~] during the period for which the shares are registered. The commissioner may by rule or order impose other undertakings.

(5) For the registration of securities by notification,[~~ or~~] coordination, or qualification, there shall be paid to the commissioner an examination fee of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) and a registration fee of three-fiftieths of one percent (0.06%) of the aggregate offering price of the securities which are to be offered in this state, but the registration fee shall in no case be less than sixty dollars ($60) nor more than one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200). The examination fee and the registration fee shall be payable in separate checks. When a registration statement is withdrawn before the effective date or a pre-effective stop order is entered under KRS 292.390, the commissioner shall retain the examination fee.~~[For the registration of securities issued by a face-amount certificate company or a redeemable security issued by an open-end management company or unit investment trust, as those terms are defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, a new registration fee and examination fee shall be paid each year that the registration remains in effect, based upon the aggregate offering price of such securities which are to be offered in this state during that year, even though the maximum fee was paid the preceding year, and the registration statement for such securities may be amended to increase the amount of securities to be offered.]~~ For a registration by notification for market-making purposes only the examination fee need be paid.

(6) When securities are registered by notification or by coordination or by qualification, they may be offered and sold by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf they are registered or by any registered broker-dealer. Every registration statement is effective for one (1) year from its effective date, or any longer period during which the security is being offered or distributed in a nonexempted transaction by or for the account of the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by any underwriter or broker-dealer who is still offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by him as a participant in the distribution, except during the time a stop order is in effect under KRS 292.390. All outstanding securities of the same class as a registered security are considered to be registered for the purpose of any nonissuer transaction:

(a) So long as the registration statement is effective; and

(b) Between the thirtieth day after the entry of any stop order suspending or revoking the effectiveness of the registration statement under KRS 292.390 (if the registration statement did not relate in whole or in part to a nonissuer distribution) and one (1) year from its effective date if any securities of the same class are outstanding.

A registration statement may be withdrawn otherwise only in the discretion of the director.

~~[(7) The commissioner may require the person who filed the registration statement to file reports, not more often than quarterly, to keep reasonably current the information contained in the registration statement and to disclose the progress of the offering. The commissioner shall impose a fee of ten dollars ($10) for each such report filed with him.]~~

Section 10. KRS 292.390 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, any registration statement if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that:

(a) The registration statement as of its effective date or as of any earlier date in the case of an order denying effectiveness, or any amendment under KRS 292.380(5) as of its effective date,~~[or any report under KRS 292.380(7),]~~ is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact;

(b) Any provision of this chapter or any rule, order, or condition lawfully imposed under this chapter has been willfully violated, in connection with the offering by:

1. The person filing the registration statement;

2. The issuer, any partner, officer, or director of the issuer, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer, but only if the person filing the registration statement is directly or indirectly controlled by or acting for the issuer; or

3. Any underwriter;

(c) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of an administrative stop order or a similar order or a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state act applicable to the offering; but:

1. The commissioner may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this paragraph more than one (1) year from the date of the order or injunction relied on; and

2. He may not enter an order under this paragraph on the basis of an injunction entered under any other state act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section;

(d) The issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities which are illegal where performed;

(e) The offering has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

(f) The offering has been, or would be, made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters' and sellers' discounts, commissions, or other compensations, or promoters' profits or participation, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options;

(g) When a security is sought to be registered by notification it is not eligible for such registration;

(h) When a security is sought to be registered by coordination, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by KRS 292.360(2)(g);

(i) The applicant or registrant has failed to pay the proper registration fee; but the commissioner may enter only a denial order under this paragraph and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected;

(j) Commissions, compensation, and selling and other transaction expenses[~~A commission or fee~~] greater than twenty percent (20%) in the aggregate, or such other amount specified in the guidelines adopted by the North American Securities Administrators Association,[~~fifteen percent (15%)~~] would be paid directly or indirectly, in consideration for the sale of securities sought to be registered[~~, and this fee shall exclude reasonable legal and accounting expenses~~].

(2) The commissioner may not enter a stop order against an effective registration statement on the basis of a fact or transaction known to him when the registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within the next thirty (30) days.

(3) The commissioner may by order summarily postpone or suspend the effectiveness of the registration statement pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. Upon the entry of a stop order under any part of this section, the commissioner shall promptly notify the issuer of the securities, the applicant or registrant, and the person on whose behalf the securities are to be or have been offered that the order has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested within fifteen (15) days and none is ordered by the commissioner, the commissioner shall enter his written findings of fact and conclusions of law and the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to the issuer and to the applicant or registrant, shall enter his written finding of fact and conclusions of law and may modify or vacate the order. The commissioner may modify or vacate a stop order if he finds that the conditions which prompted its entry have changed or that it is otherwise in the public interest to do so.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The commissioner may require the filing of any of the following documents with respect to a covered security under Section 18(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933:

(2) The commissioner shall require the filing of, with respect to any security that is a covered security under Section 18(b)(4)(D) of the Securities Act of 1933, a notice on SEC Form D, a two hundred fifty dollar ($250) filing fee, and a consent to service of process signed by the issuer no later than fifteen (15) days after the first sale of such covered security in this state.

(3) The commissioner may require the filing of any document filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 with respect to a covered security under Section 18(b)(3) or (4) of the Securities Act of 1933, together with a filing fee in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(4) The commissioner may issue a stop order suspending the offer and sale of a covered security, except a covered security under Section 18(b)(1) of the Securities Act of 1933, upon finding that:

(a) The order is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors; and

(b) There is a failure to comply with any condition established under this section.

(5) The commissioner may waive any or all of the provisions of this section upon finding that they are not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

No such order may be entered without appropriate prior notice to all interested parties, opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law, except that the commissioner may by order summarily deny or revoke any of the specified exemptions pending final determination of any proceeding under this subsection. Upon entry of a summary order, the commissioner shall promptly notify all interested parties that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the commissioner, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to all interested persons, may modify or vacate the order to extend it until final determination. No order under this subsection may operate retroactively. No person may be considered to have violated this chapter by reason of any offer or sale effected after the entry of an order under this subsection if he sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the order. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exemption from a definition is upon the person claiming it.

Section 14. KRS 292.415 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Before any security may be issued as an exempt security under subsections (9) or[~~,~~] (12) of Section 12 of this Act[~~, (13), or (14) of KRS 292.400, or offered for sale or sold as an exempt transaction under KRS 292.410(1)(i) or (k)~~], a claim of exemption must first be filed with the commissioner and the commissioner by order shall not have determined that the exemption is unavailable within the next ten (10) full business days. A claim of exemption filed under this section shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner by rule or order requires and each offering shall be effective for a maximum of twelve (12) consecutive months unless the commissioner by rule or order extends such period of time, not to exceed five (5) years.

(2) The issuer may make offers, but not sales, before and during the ten (10) business day period required by subsection (1) of this section, if:

(a) Each prospective purchaser is advised in writing that the offer is preliminary and subject to material change; and

(b) No enforceable offer to purchase the securities may be made by a prospective purchaser, and no consideration in any form may be accepted or received, directly or indirectly, from a prospective purchaser, before the termination of the ten (10) business day period and any order disallowing the exemption has been vacated.

The commissioner may, by rule or order, prohibit offers by a particular class of issuers before the expiration of the ten (10) business day period required by subsection (1) of this section, or may require issuers to comply with additional conditions and requirements prior to making offers before the expiration of the period, if appropriate in furtherance of the intent of this chapter[~~For every claim of exemption filed with the commissioner there shall be paid to the commissioner a filing fee of one hundred dollars ($100), except that for a claim of exemption filed under subsection (9) of KRS 292.400 the filing fee is one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the maximum aggregate offering price at which the securities are to be offered in this state, but the fee shall in no case be less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than five hundred dollars ($500). The commissioner shall have authority to amend or rescind under this subsection such filing fees by rule or order if the commissioner determines that such fee is excessive under the circumstances~~].

(3) [~~Any person who fails to comply with this section shall be liable for a fee in the amount of five (5) times the initial filing fee and~~]The commissioner may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of an exemption, if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that any security has been or is about to be offered or sold in violation of this section. If the commissioner finds it appropriate in the public interest or necessary for the protection of investors, the commissioner may order any issuer in violation of this section to make an offer of rescission.

(4) Failure by any person to file a claim of exemption under this section shall not give rise to a private right of action under KRS 292.330(1), 292.340, or 292.480 which would not otherwise be available under the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Any person who fails to file a claim of exemption under this section, unless he does so intentionally, shall not be subject to KRS 292.991.

Section 15. KRS 292.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exemption or an exception from a definition is upon the person claiming it.

(2) The commissioner may require any person, who is selling or offering for sale or who is about to sell or offer for sale or who has sold or offered for sale any security within this state, to file a statement of the claim of exemption, if any, upon which such person is relying, and if any time, in the opinion of the commissioner, the information contained in such statement filed is misleading, incorrect, inadequate, or fails to establish the right of exemption, he may require such person, agent, or investment adviser to file such information as may in his opinion be necessary to establish the claimed exemption. The refusal to furnish information as required by order of the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, within a reasonable time to be fixed by the commissioner, shall be proper ground for the entry of an order by the commissioner suspending and/or canceling the registration of the broker-dealer, agent or investment adviser.

(3) The commissioner shall have authority at all times to consider and determine whether any proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security is entitled to an exemption or an exception from the definition accorded by this chapter, provided, however, that the commissioner in his discretion may decline to exercise such authority as to any proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security. Any interested party desiring the commissioner to exercise such authority shall submit to the commissioner a verified statement of all material facts relating to the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security, which verified statement shall be accompanied by a request for a ruling as to the particular exemption or exception from definition, together with a filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)[~~one hundred dollars ($100)~~]. After such notice to interested parties as the commissioner shall deem proper and after a hearing, if any, the commissioner may enter an order finding the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security entitled or not entitled to the exemption or the exception from definition as claimed. An order so entered, unless an appeal be taken therefrom in the manner prescribed in this chapter, shall be binding upon the commissioner, provided that the proposed sale, transaction, issue, or security when consummated or issued conforms in every relevant and material particular with the facts as set forth in the verified statement as submitted.

Section 16. KRS 292.430 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every applicant for registration as a broker-dealer,[~~ or~~] agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative under this chapter and every issuer which proposes to offer a security in this state through any person acting on an agency basis in the common law sense shall file with the commissioner, in such form as he by rule prescribes, an irrevocable consent appointing the commissioner or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against him or his successor executor or administrator which arises under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. A person who has filed such a consent in connection with a previous registration need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner, but it is not effective unless:

(a) The plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last address on file with the commissioner; and

(b) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this subsection[~~section~~] is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

(2) Every issuer of a covered security and every covered adviser who makes a notice filing with Kentucky under this chapter shall file with the commissioner, in the form as prescribed by administrative regulation, an irrevocable consent appointing the commissioner or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against him or his successor, executor, or administrator that arises under this chapter or under any rule or order under this chapter after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. A person who has filed a consent in connection with a previous notice filing need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner, but it is not effective unless:

(a) The plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him, sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last address on file with the commissioner; and

(b) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this subsection is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within the time as the court allows.

(3) When any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, and he has not filed a consent to service of process under subsection (1) or (2) of this section and personal jurisdiction over him cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, that conduct shall be considered equivalent to his appointment of the commissioner or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against him or his successor executor or administrator which grows out of that conduct and which is brought under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, with the same force and validity as if served on him personally. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner, and it is not effective unless:

(a) The plaintiff, who may be the commissioner, in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last known address or takes other steps which are reasonably calculated to give actual notice; and

(b) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this subsection is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

Section 17. KRS 292.450 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Neither the fact that an application for registration under KRS 292.330 or a registration statement under KRS 292.350, 292.360, or 292.370 has been filed, nor the fact that a person or security is effectively registered, constitutes a finding by the commissioner that any document filed under this chapter is true, complete, and not misleading.

(2) Neither any such fact nor the fact that an exemption or exception is available for a security or a transaction means that the commissioner has passed in any way upon the merits or qualifications of, or recommended or given approval to, any person, security, or transaction. It is unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to any prospective purchaser, customer, or client any representation inconsistent with this section.

(3) Neither the fact that a notice filing for a covered security or for a covered adviser has been filed, nor the fact that the person, security, or transaction is registered or exempt from registration, constitutes a finding by the commissioner that any document filed under this chapter is true, complete, and not misleading or that the person, security, or transaction is entitled to claim an exemption.

(4) It is unlawful to make or cause to be made to any prospective purchaser, customer, or client any representation inconsistent with this section.

Section 18. KRS 292.460 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner in his discretion:

(a) May make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as he deems necessary to determine whether any registration should be granted, denied, or revoked or whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter[~~hereunder~~], or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms hereunder;

(c) May publish information concerning any violation of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder.

(2) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the commissioner or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, any court of competent jurisdiction, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to that person an order requiring him to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by him, there to produce documentary evidence if so ordered or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(4) No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner, or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by him, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise) required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after claiming his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Section 19. KRS 292.470 is amended to read as follows:

Section 20. KRS 292.480 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person, who offers or sells a security in violation of this chapter or of any rules or orders[~~and regulations~~] promulgated hereunder or offers or sells a security by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in the light of the circumstances under which they are made not misleading (the buyer not knowing of the untruth or omission) and who does not sustain the burden of proof that he did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the untruth or omission is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at the legal rate[~~six percent (6%) per annum~~] from the date of payment costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, less the amount of any income received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if he no longer owns the security. (2) Any person who purchases a security in violation of this chapter or of any administrative regulations or orders promulgated under this chapter or who purchases a security by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they are made not misleading, the seller not knowing of the untruth or omission, and who does not sustain the burden of proof that he did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the untruth or omission is liable to the person selling the security to him, who may sue either at law or in equity for:

(3) For purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section, when the purchaser no longer owns the security, if a seller seeking relief under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section offers and presents admissible evidence of the highest intermediate value of the subject security as of some specific date occurring within a reasonable period of time after the date of the sale of the security but no later than the date an action under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section is filed, or of the total consideration received by the purchaser in a subsequent sale of that security, it shall be presumed until rebutted by a preponderance of evidence to the contrary that the value or sale price, as applicable, is the fair value of the security at the date of the transaction as those terms are used in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section to measure damages. For purposes of subsections (1) and (2) of this section and all other provisions of this chapter, statements and omissions may be either oral or written.

(4) Every person who directly or indirectly controls a seller or purchaser liable under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, every partner, officer or director (or person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions) or employee of[~~such~~] a seller or purchaser who materially aids in the sale or purchase, and every broker-dealer or agent who materially aids in the sale or purchase is also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as the seller or purchaser, unless the nonseller or nonpurchaser who is so liable sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist. There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons so liable.

(5)[~~(3)~~] Any tender specified in this section may be made at any time before entry of judgment. (6)[~~(4)~~] No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any[~~ such~~] contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract. Any condition, stipulation or provision binding any person acquiring any security to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

(7) The rights and remedies provided by this section are in addition to any other rights or remedies that may exist at law or in equity.

Section 21. KRS 292.490 is amended to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final order of the commissioner may obtain a review of the order by filing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B in the Franklin Circuit Court, within thirty (30)[~~sixty (60)~~] days after the entry of the order, a written petition praying that the order be modified or set aside in whole or in part. A copy of the petition shall be forthwith served upon the commissioner, and thereupon the commissioner shall certify and file in court a copy of the filing, testimony, and other evidence upon which the order was entered. When these have been filed, the court has exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, enforce, or set aside the order, in whole or in part. No objection to the order may be considered by the court unless it was urged before the commissioner or there were reasonable grounds for failure to do so. The findings of the commissioner as to the facts, if supported by substantial evidence, are conclusive. If either party applies to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the commissioner, the court may order the additional evidence to be taken before the commissioner and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such conditions as the court may consider proper. The commissioner may modify his findings as to the facts, by reason of the additional evidence so taken; and he shall file any modified or new findings, which if supported by substantial evidence shall be conclusive, and any recommendation for the modification or setting aside of the original order. The commencement of proceedings under this section does not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the commissioner's order. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the Franklin Circuit Court on any such appeal to the Court of Appeals on the same terms and conditions as an appeal is taken in civil actions.

Section 22. KRS 292.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The administration of the provisions of this chapter shall be under the Department of Financial Institutions.

(2) It is unlawful for the commissioner or any of his officers or employees to use for personal benefit any information which is filed with or obtained by the commissioner and which is not made public. Except as provided in subsection (18) of this section, no provision of this chapter authorizes the commissioner or any of his officers or employees to disclose any confidential information except among themselves or when necessary or appropriate in an administrative hearing or investigation under this chapter. No provision of this chapter either creates or derogates from any privilege which exists at common law or otherwise when documentary or other evidence is sought under a subpoena directed to the commissioner or any of his officers or employees.

(3) The commissioner may from time to time promulgate, amend, and repeal administrative regulations, forms, and orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including administrative regulations and forms governing registration statements, applications, notice filings, and reports and defining any terms, whether or not used in this chapter, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of administrative regulations and forms, the commissioner may classify securities, persons, and matters within his jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes.

(4) No administrative regulation, form, or order may be promulgated, amended, or repealed unless the commissioner finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provision of this chapter. In promulgating administrative regulations and forms, the commissioner may cooperate with the securities administrators of the other states and the Securities and Exchange Commission with a view to effectuating the policy of this statute to achieve maximum uniformity in the form and content of registration statement, applications, notice filings, and reports whenever practicable.

(5) The commissioner may by administrative regulation or order prescribe the form and content of financial statements required under this chapter and the circumstances under which consolidated financial statements shall be certified by certified public accountants. All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally-accepted accounting standards.

(6) All administrative regulations and forms of the commissioner shall be published.

(7) No provision of this chapter imposing any liability applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any administrative regulation, form, or order of the commissioner, notwithstanding that the administrative regulation, form, or order may later be amended or repealed or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(8) A document is filed when it is received by the commissioner or when the commissioner receives confirmation that a document has been filed pursuant to Sections 5, 7, 8, and 11 of this Act~~[KRS 292.330]~~.

(9) Every administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and the provisions of this chapter, and shall be public unless the commissioner in his discretion grants a request joined in by all the respondents that the hearing be conducted privately.

(10) The commissioner shall keep a register of all applications for registration and registration statements and notice filings which are or have ever been effective under this chapter and all denial, suspension, or revocation final orders which have ever been entered under this chapter. The register shall be open for public inspection.

(11) The information contained in or filed with any registration statement, application, notice filings, or report may be made available to the public under administrative regulations as the commissioner may promulgate.

(12) Upon request and at reasonable charges as he prescribes, the commissioner shall furnish to any person photostatic or other copies (certified under his seal of office if requested) of any entry in the register or any document which is a matter of public record. In any administrative hearing or prosecution under this chapter, any copy so certified is prima facie evidence of the contents of the entry or document certified.

(13) The commissioner in his discretion may honor requests from interested persons for interpretative opinions.

(14) The commissioner may assess civil fines against any person who violates any provision of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter.

(15) In addition to any fines levied under subsection (14) of this section, the commissioner may also assess the costs of any investigation, including attorney's fees incurred as a result of bringing enforcement actions under the provisions of this chapter and costs of holding any hearing as a result of an enforcement action. Costs and attorney's fees may only be assessed if there has been a final determination that a violation has occurred, and in an amount reasonably related to the costs of investigation and enforcement for those violations only.

(16) If fines or costs assessed under this section are not paid, the commissioner may notify the Attorney General who shall promptly institute an action in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in the Franklin Circuit Court for the recovery of the fines or costs.

(17) The remedies provided by this section are not exclusive and may be sought and employed in any combination to enforce the provisions of this chapter. The remedies set forth in this section shall not prohibit or restrict the commissioner from participating in any way whatsoever with respect to any joint examination, investigation, enforcement action, settlement, or other legal or regulatory action with securities administrators of other jurisdictions, the Securities and Exchange Commission, any self-regulatory organization, or any national securities exchange or national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, the commissioner may, at any time and in his sole discretion, share or cause to be shared by any employee of the department any information gained pursuant to an examination, investigation, filing, or from any other source, with other governmental agencies, jurisdictions, or governmental or self-regulating organizations or entities, to the extent the commissioner, in his sole discretion, deems that the sharing of information is or will be reasonably necessary or useful to the department or other agency in carrying out its regulatory responsibilities.

(18) The following materials, documentation, and other information are deemed to have been confidentially disclosed to the department and to be confidential information under the Kentucky Open Records Act and, specifically, the provisions of KRS 61.878(1)(b), to the extent described in this subsection and except as provided further in administrative regulation:

(a) Any materials, documentation, or other information provided to or otherwise obtained by the department during the course of a routine compliance examination of any broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative; and

(b) Any materials, documentation, or other information provided to or otherwise obtained by the department from any other regulatory or governmental body, including but not limited to any other state securities regulator, the Securities and Exchange Commission, any self-regulatory organization, any state or federal criminal agency, and any criminal prosecutorial body, and which the other body expressly deems to be confidential.

Section 23. KRS 292.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of this chapter is to:

(a) Protect Kentucky investors by preventing investment fraud and related illegal conduct or, if this fraud or illegal conduct has already occurred, remedying, where possible, the harm done to Kentucky investors through active implementation and application of this chapter's enforcement powers;

(b) Educate the investing public as to the best methods for making informed investment choices; and

(c) Assist companies in their legitimate attempts to raise capital and transact in securities in Kentucky.

(2) In addition, this chapter shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it and to coordinate the interpretation and administration of this chapter with the related federal regulation.

Section 24. KRS 292.540 is amended to read as follows:

All effective registrations under prior law and all conditions imposed upon such registrations remain in effect so long as they would have remained in effect if they had become effective under this chapter. They are considered to have been filed, entered or imposed under this chapter, except to the extent the conditions apply to securities that are now covered securities.

(1) A retired member who is receiving monthly retirement payments under any of the provisions of KRS 61.515 to 61.705 and 78.520 to 78.852 and who is reemployed as an employee by a participating agency shall have his retirement payments suspended for the duration of reemployment except as provided in subsection (7) of this section. Monthly payments shall not be suspended for a retired member who is reemployed if he anticipates that he will receive less than the maximum permissible earnings as provided by the federal Social Security Act in compensation as a result of reemployment during the calendar year. The payments shall be suspended at the beginning of the month in which the reemployment occurs.

(2) Employer and employee contributions shall be made as provided in KRS 61.515 to 61.705 and 78.520 to 78.852 on the compensation paid during reemployment except where monthly payments were not suspended as provided in subsection (1) of this section or would not increase the retired member's last monthly retirement allowance by at least one dollar ($1), and the member shall be credited with additional service credit.

(3) In the month following the termination of reemployment, retirement allowance payments shall be reinstated under the plan under which the member was receiving payments prior to reemployment.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the payments suspended in accordance with subsection (1) of this section shall be paid retroactively to the retired member, or his estate, if he does not receive more than the maximum permissible earnings as provided by the federal Social Security Act in compensation from participating agencies during any calendar year of reemployment;

(b) If the retired member is paid suspended payments retroactively in accordance with this section, employee contributions deducted during his period of reemployment, if any, shall be refunded to the retired employee, and no service credit shall be earned for the period of reemployment;

(c) If the retired member is not eligible to be paid suspended payments for his period of reemployment as an employee, his retirement allowance shall be recomputed under the plan under which the member was receiving payments prior to reemployment as follows:

1. The retired member's final compensation shall be recomputed using creditable compensation for his period of reemployment; however, the final compensation resulting from the recalculation shall not be less than that of the member when his retirement allowance was last determined;

2. If the retired member initially retired on or subsequent to his normal retirement date, his retirement allowance shall be recomputed by using the formula in KRS 61.595(1);

3. If the retired member initially retired prior to his normal retirement date, his retirement allowance shall be recomputed using the formula in KRS 61.595(2), except that the member's age used in computing benefits shall be his age at the time of his initial retirement increased by the number of months of service credit earned for service performed during reemployment;

4. The retirement allowance payments resulting from the recomputation under this subsection shall be payable in the month following the termination of reemployment in lieu of payments under subparagraph 3. The member shall not receive less in benefits as a result of the recomputation than he was receiving prior to reemployment or would receive as determined under KRS 61.691;

5. Any retired member who was reemployed prior to March 26, 1974, shall begin making contributions to the system in accordance with the provisions of this section on the first day of the month following March 26, 1974.

(5) A retired member, or his estate, shall pay to the retirement fund the total amount of payments which are not suspended in accordance with subsection (1) of this section if the member received more than the maximum permissible earnings as provided by the federal Social Security Act in compensation from participating agencies during any calendar year of reemployment, except the retired member or his estate may repay the lesser of the total amount of payments which were not suspended or fifty cents ($0.50) of each dollar earned over the maximum permissible earnings during reemployment if under age sixty-five (65), or one dollar ($1) for every three dollars ($3) earned if over age sixty-five (65).

(6) (a) "Reemployment" or "reinstatement" as used in this section shall not include a retired member who has been ordered reinstated by the Personnel Board under authority of KRS 18A.095; and

(b) A retired member who has been ordered reinstated by the Personnel Board under authority of KRS 18A.095 or by court order or by order of the Human Rights Commission and accepts employment by an agency participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System shall void his retirement by reimbursing the system in the full amount of his retirement allowance payments received.

(7) If a member is retired from a hazardous position, as defined by KRS 61.592, the member shall be permitted to seek and hold an elected city or county office under the provisions of this subsection:

(a) The member may receive the pay for the elected city or county office, but shall not contribute to, receive benefits from, or otherwise participate in the office's retirement system; and

(b) The member's pension and benefits received because of retirement from the hazardous position shall not be affected if he holds an elected city or county office.

(1) Each local government[~~in the State of Kentucky~~] shall employ a building official or inspector and other code enforcement personnel as necessary, or shall contract for inspection and code enforcement services in accordance with subsections (8) and (11) of this section to enforce the Uniform State Building Code within the boundaries of its jurisdiction,[~~ and shall neither adopt nor enforce any other ordinance regulating buildings which conflicts with the Uniform State Building Code,~~] except that permits, inspections, and certificates of occupancy shall not be mandatory for single-family residences unless a local government passes an ordinance requiring inspections of single-family residences[~~a building code adopted by a local government prior to March 28, 1978, may continue in effect until the time the Uniform State Building Code becomes mandatory within that local government jurisdiction~~].

(2) Local governments shall be responsible for the examination and approval or disapproval of plans and specifications for churches having a capacity of four hundred (400) or less persons, and six thousand (6,000) or less square feet of total floor area, and buildings of no more than three (3) stories in height, exclusive of attic and basement, which do not contain more than twenty thousand (20,000) square feet of floor area, and are not intended for educational, institutional, or high hazard occupancy; or assembly, business, or industrial occupancy in excess of one hundred (100) persons, except churches as stated in this subsection, or for use as a frozen food locker plant as defined in KRS 221.010. Local governments shall be responsible for the issuance and revocation of building permits, licenses, certificates, and similar documents which cover activities within their area of responsibility, and the inspection of all buildings pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the Uniform State Building Code. Each local government issuing a building or demolition permit or an initial certificate of occupancy on a new structure shall send a copy of the permit or certificate to the commissioner for his use in maintaining an accurate housing inventory for Kentucky.

(3) Urban-county governments may determine service districts within their boundaries within which farm dwellings and other farm buildings, not used in the business of retail trade or as a place of regular employment for ten (10) or more people, shall be exempt from the requirements of the Uniform State Building Code. The determination may be reviewed and altered by the board.

(4) With the exception of single-family dwellings, the department shall be responsible for the examination and approval or disapproval of plans and specifications for all buildings which are not the responsibility of local governments. The department may issue and revoke permits, licenses, certificates, and similar documents within its area of responsibility, and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with local governments for the inspection of all buildings pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the Uniform State Building Code. If the commissioner determines that the local jurisdiction is not adequately performing any portion of its program, he may recommend to the board that the department preempt that portion of a local program, except that the commissioner shall not preempt or assert jurisdiction for the enforcement of the code on single-family dwellings. The commissioner shall explain his reasons for preemption in writing and provide a copy to the board and the local jurisdiction. The local jurisdiction may appeal the recommended preemption directly to the board, and the board shall review the appeal according to the procedures found in subsections (8) to (10) of KRS 198B.070. No preemption by the department shall take place until the final decision of the board. (5) Any local government may petition the commissioner requesting that additional plan review functions be allocated to that local government. The petition shall include evidence of the local government's capability to perform additional plan review functions. The commissioner, after review of the petition and supporting evidence, may grant or deny to the local government any part of a request for additional responsibility. If the commissioner denies any part of a petition, he shall explain his reasons for denial in writing, and provide a copy to the board and the local government. A local government may appeal the denial directly to the board, and the board shall review the appeal according to the procedures found in subsections (8) to (10) of KRS 198B.070. If the local government is granted additional responsibility by the commissioner or the board, the department shall hold concurrent jurisdiction over the additional responsibility, but the local government shall collect any fees for functions it performs pursuant to the additional responsibility.

(6) Any local government may also petition the commissioner requesting that plans and specifications inspection, building inspection, and approval responsibility relating to the application of local plumbing permits for local installations be allocated to the local government. The petition shall not be granted unless the local government has demonstrated to the commissioner that it can perform these functions in accordance with the provisions of KRS 198B.050 to 198B.090.

(7) The commissioner shall expedite the review of plans and specifications by assigning responsibilities and coordinating review activities among the department's various functional offices so as to prevent unnecessary duplication in the review of plans and specifications.

(8) ~~[Upon the effective date of the Uniform State Building Code,]~~No building shall be constructed in this state until a local building official and an official representing the department, if the department has jurisdiction, issue a permit for the construction. Nothing in this subsection shall require a single-family dwelling to be permitted or inspected unless a local government has established a building inspection program as set out in this section.

(9) The local building official or the representative of the department shall issue a permit if the proposed building satisfies the requirements of the Uniform State Building Code and if the party desiring to construct the building has complied with all other legal requirements concerning the location and construction of the building. The applicant for a building permit, by the act of applying for the permit, shall be deemed to have consented to inspection~~[,]~~ by the local government or the department, of the building during construction and upon the completion of construction for the purpose of determining that the building is constructed in compliance with the Uniform State Building Code.

(10) (a) No permit for building, construction, reconstruction, renovation, demolition, or maintenance or for any activity related to building, construction, reconstruction, renovation, demolition, or maintenance shall be issued by any building department or by any political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to any person seeking the permit unless the person shall assure, by affidavit, that all contractors and subcontractors employed, or that will be employed, on activity covered by the permit shall be in compliance with Kentucky requirements for workers' compensation insurance according to KRS Chapter 342 and unemployment insurance according to KRS Chapter 341.

(b) Any person who fails to comply with the assurances required under paragraph (a) of this subsection upon such finding by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined an amount not to exceed four thousand dollars ($4,000) or an amount equal to the sum of all uninsured and unsatisfied claims brought under the provisions of KRS Chapter 342 and unemployment insurance claims for which no wages were reported as required by KRS Chapter 341, whichever is greater.

(c) The penalty imposed in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be enforced by the county attorney for the county in which the violation occurred.

(11) A certified electrical inspector shall be employed by, or contracted for, or contracted with a local government or area development district having responsibility over buildings as set out in this section as part of its building inspection program. After a certified electrical inspector has been~~[employed, contracted for or with, or otherwise]~~ provided for by the local government or the department, no utility shall initiate permanent electrical service to any new building, or any building which has been moved, until a final certificate of approval has been issued by a certified electrical inspector. Unless the department shall notify the utility in writing as to which buildings are subject to departmental approval, it shall be presumed by the utility that the building is subject to the jurisdiction of the local government. However, nothing in this section shall prohibit the supply or use of necessary electrical services during the construction and testing process.

(12) This section shall apply to industrialized building systems, but destructive disassembly of industrialized building systems which carry a seal of approval pursuant to a manufactured building law in the state in which they were manufactured, which seal of approval is accepted by the Board of Housing, Buildings and Construction, shall not be performed in order to conduct the tests or inspections.

(13) No building on which construction was begun nor any industrialized building system on which site preparation and assembly were begun after the Uniform State Building Code became effective shall be occupied until the local building official or a representative of the department issues a certificate of occupancy certifying that the building was constructed in conformance with the standards of the Uniform State Building Code, or assembled or installed in conformance with applicable instructions. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require a certificate of occupancy to be issued for any single-family dwelling unless a local government has established jurisdiction for the enforcement of the Uniform State Building Code under this section.

(14) A local government may associate with other local governments, and may seek the technical assistance of other agencies or area development districts in order to provide for the local enforcement of the Uniform State Building Code.

(1) Each local government[~~in the State of Kentucky~~] shall employ a building official or inspector and other code enforcement personnel as necessary, or shall contract for inspection and code enforcement services in accordance with subsections (8) and (11) of this section to enforce the Uniform State Building Code within the boundaries of its jurisdiction,[~~, and shall neither adopt nor enforce any other ordinance regulating buildings which conflicts with the Uniform State Building Code,~~] except that permits, inspections, and certificates of occupancy shall not be mandatory for single-family residences unless a local government passes an ordinance requiring inspections of single-family residences[~~a building code adopted by a local government prior to March 28, 1978, may continue in effect until the time the Uniform State Building Code becomes mandatory within that local government jurisdiction~~].

(2) Local governments shall be responsible for the examination and approval or disapproval of plans and specifications for churches having a capacity of four hundred (400) or less persons, and six thousand (6,000) or less square feet of total floor area, and buildings of no more than three (3) stories in height, exclusive of attic and basement, which do not contain more than twenty thousand (20,000) square feet of floor area, and are not intended for educational, institutional, or high hazard occupancy; or assembly, business, or industrial occupancy in excess of one hundred (100) persons, except churches as stated in this subsection, or for use as a frozen food locker plant as defined in KRS 221.010. Local governments shall be responsible for the issuance and revocation of building permits, licenses, certificates, and similar documents which cover activities within their area of responsibility, and the inspection of all buildings pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the Uniform State Building Code. Each local government issuing a building or demolition permit or an initial certificate of occupancy on a new structure shall send a copy of the permit or certificate to the commissioner for his use in maintaining an accurate housing inventory for Kentucky.

(3) Urban-county governments may determine service districts within their boundaries within which farm dwellings and other farm buildings, not used in the business of retail trade or as a place of regular employment for ten (10) or more people, shall be exempt from the requirements of the Uniform State Building Code. The determination may be reviewed and altered by the board.

(4) With the exception of single-family dwellings, the department shall be responsible for the examination and approval or disapproval of plans and specifications for all buildings which are not the responsibility of local governments. The department may issue and revoke permits, licenses, certificates, and similar documents within its area of responsibility, and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with local governments for the inspection of all buildings pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the Uniform State Building Code. If the commissioner determines that the local jurisdiction is not adequately performing any portion of its program, he may recommend to the board that the department preempt that portion of a local program, except that the commissioner shall not preempt or assert jurisdiction for the enforcement of the code on single-family dwellings. The commissioner shall explain his reasons for preemption in writing and provide a copy to the board and the local jurisdiction. The local jurisdiction may appeal the recommended preemption directly to the board, and the board shall review the appeal according to the procedures found in subsections (8) to (10) of KRS 198B.070. No preemption by the department shall take place until the final decision of the board. If the department preempts any portion of a local program, it shall collect the fees applicable to that portion of the program.

(5) Any local government may petition the commissioner requesting that additional plan review functions be allocated to that local government. The petition shall include evidence of the local government's capability to perform additional plan review functions. The commissioner, after review of the petition and supporting evidence, may grant or deny to the local government any part of a request for additional responsibility. If the commissioner denies any part of a petition, he shall explain his reasons for denial in writing, and provide a copy to the board and the local government. A local government may appeal the denial directly to the board, and the board shall review the appeal according to the procedures found in subsections (8) to (10) of KRS 198B.070. If the local government is granted additional responsibility by the commissioner or the board, the department shall hold concurrent jurisdiction over the additional responsibility, but the local government shall collect any fees for functions it performs pursuant to the additional responsibility.

(6) Any local government may also petition the commissioner requesting that plans and specifications inspection, building inspection, and approval responsibility relating to the application of local plumbing permits for local installations be allocated to the local government. The petition shall not be granted unless the local government has demonstrated to the commissioner that it can perform these functions in accordance with the provisions of KRS 198B.050 to 198B.090.

(7) The commissioner shall expedite the review of plans and specifications by assigning responsibilities and coordinating review activities among the department's various functional offices so as to prevent unnecessary duplication in the review of plans and specifications.

(8) ~~[Upon the effective date of the Uniform State Building Code,]~~No building shall be constructed in this state until a local building official and an official representing the department, if the department has jurisdiction, issue a permit for the construction. Nothing in this subsection shall require a single-family dwelling to be permitted or inspected unless a local government has established a building inspection program as set out in this section.

(9) The local building official or the representative of the department shall issue a permit if the proposed building satisfies the requirements of the Uniform State Building Code and if the party desiring to construct the building has complied with all other legal requirements concerning the location and construction of the building. The applicant for a building permit, by the act of applying for the permit, shall be deemed to have consented to inspection~~[,]~~ by the local government or the department, of the building during construction and upon the completion of construction for the purpose of determining that the building is constructed in compliance with the Uniform State Building Code.

(10) (a) No permit for building, construction, reconstruction, renovation, demolition, or maintenance or for any activity related to building, construction, reconstruction, renovation, demolition, or maintenance shall be issued by any building department or by any political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to any person seeking the permit unless the person shall assure, by affidavit, that all contractors and subcontractors employed, or that will be employed, on activity covered by the permit shall be in compliance with Kentucky requirements for workers' compensation insurance according to KRS Chapter 342 and unemployment insurance according to KRS Chapter 341.

(b) Any person who fails to comply with the assurances required under paragraph (a) of this subsection upon such finding by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined an amount not to exceed four thousand dollars

($4,000) or an amount equal to the sum of all uninsured and unsatisfied claims brought under the provisions of KRS Chapter 342 and unemployment insurance claims for which no wages were reported as required by KRS Chapter 341, whichever is greater.

(c) The penalty imposed in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be enforced by the county attorney for the county in which the violation occurred.

(11) A certified electrical inspector shall be employed by, or contracted for, or contracted with a local government having responsibility over buildings as set out in this section as part of its building inspection program. After a certified electrical inspector has been[~~ employed, contracted for or with, or otherwise~~] provided for by the local government or the department, no utility shall initiate permanent electrical service to any new building, or any building which has been moved, until a final certificate of approval has been issued by a certified electrical inspector. Unless the department shall notify the utility in writing as to which buildings are subject to departmental approval, it shall be presumed by the utility that the building is subject to the jurisdiction of the local government. However, nothing in this section shall prohibit the supply or use of necessary electrical services during the construction and testing process.

(12) This section shall apply to industrialized building systems, but destructive disassembly of industrialized building systems which carry a seal of approval pursuant to a manufactured building law in the state in which they were manufactured, which seal of approval is accepted by the Board of Housing, Buildings and Construction, shall not be performed in order to conduct the tests or inspections.

(13) No building on which construction was begun nor any industrialized building system on which site preparation and assembly were begun after the Uniform State Building Code became effective shall be occupied until the local building official or a representative of the department issues a certificate of occupancy certifying that the building was constructed in conformance with the standards of the Uniform State Building Code, or assembled or installed in conformance with applicable instructions. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require a certificate of occupancy to be issued for any single-family dwelling unless a local government has established jurisdiction for the enforcement of the Uniform State Building Code under this section.

(14) A local government may associate with other local governments, and may seek the technical assistance of other agencies or area development districts in order to provide for the local enforcement of the Uniform State Building Code.

(15) Local governments or associations of local governments may contract with a person, firm, or company to perform the plans and specifications inspection or building inspection functions required of the local government by the provisions of this section if:

(a) The person performing the plans and specifications inspection is certified by the department as having successfully completed the test requirements provided by KRS 198B.090 to practice as a certified plans and specifications inspector;

(b) The person performing the building inspection is certified by the department as having successfully completed the test requirements provided in KRS 198B.090 to practice as a certified building inspector;

(c) The person, firm, or company does not have a conflict of interest between its plan review or inspection functions and any other employment or business activities;

(d) The person performing the plumbing inspection is certified by the department as having successfully completed the requirements provided in KRS 318.140 to practice as a certified plumbing inspector; and

(e) The person, firm, or company does not have a conflict of interest between its plan review or inspection functions and any other employment or business activities.

(16) If the department has reason to believe that an inspector is not enforcing, or is improperly enforcing, the provisions of the Kentucky building codes, it shall conduct an informal hearing to review the inspector's procedures and return in written form the required corrections resulting from the hearing to the inspector, or may take action to suspend or revoke the inspector's certificate.

(17) If, after written notification from the department to the inspector of any corrections required, the inspector fails to comply within sixty (60) days, the department shall suspend the inspector's certification until the inspector complies. Any action to suspend or revoke an inspector's certificate may be appealed to the board, and upon appeal an administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(18) Each local government and the department may establish a schedule of fees for the functions performed under the provisions of this chapter. The fees shall be designed to fully cover the cost of the service performed but shall not exceed the cost of the service performed. Fees payable to the department shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to a trust and agency fund to be used by the department in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. No part of this fund shall revert to the general fund of the Commonwealth.

Section 3. KRS 67.380 is amended to read as follows:

The fiscal court of any county shall have authority, by order or resolution, to adopt, and to enforce, regulations governing construction as defined by KRS 198B.010[~~(12)~~] pursuant to the provisions of KRS 198B.060.

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby recognizes and honors Carhartt, Inc. Manufacturers of "Original Equipment for American Workers". The members of the House of Representatives are pleased to join with Representative Lonnie Napier in commending this increasingly successful manufacturer of durable work clothes. Operating since 1889, and based in Michigan, Carhartt has eleven of its fifteen manufacturing and distribution centers in Kentucky and provides employment to 1,500 Kentuckians. Irvine is home to the company's longest-running plant, which opened in 1932. We applaud Carhartt's recent announcement of plans to expand its Madisonville plant over the next five years, creating an additional 400 jobs; and we further commend the decisions made by this family-owned business to produce an exemplary product and to manufacture that product at a fair wage and with fair labor practices in the United States of America. With so many textile manufacturing jobs having been lost recently in Kentucky, it is a pleasure today that the Kentucky House of Representatives expresses its gratitude to Carhartt and wishes for its continued success. Legislative Citation No. 21 was adopted without objection.

The House of Representatives joins with Representative Richard Murgatroyd in honoring this team for its many achievements and in wishing its members every success as they further their academic and athletic careers. Legislative Citation No. 20 was adopted without objection.

Representative Gooch moved the adoption of the following Legislative Citation No. 19. Agreed.

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby extends its sincerest condolences and genuine expressions of sympathy for the grievous death of Jimmy Demsey country western guitarist extraordinaire whose phenomenal talent sanctioned him to accompany such accomplished artists as Jerry Lee Lewis, Merle Haggard and Little Jimmy Dickens. Whereas, Jimmy Demsey has been sharing his music with Kentuckians since the age of two and one-half, has recorded his own solo albums and has been recognized by his peers by being inducted into the Atlanta Country Music Hall of Fame and the North American Country Music Association International Hall of Fame. It has been said that music is the sweetest, most harmonious configuration of feeling and surely this incredible Kentucky musician is now serene beyond the care and worries of this world and is now wearing that crown of jewels so ardently deserved and surely is playing first guitar in that heavenly "ole opry." The Kentucky House of Representatives doth hereby adjourn this fourteenth day of January, nineteen hundred and ninety-eight, in memory of this extraordinary person who charmed and entertained Kings and Commoners without distinction. Legislative Citation No. 19 was adopted without objection.

Representative Vincent moved the adoption of the following Legislative Citation No. 27. Agreed.

Representative Cave has reached, on this auspicious occasion, the age whereupon he may file to run for the Presidency of this nation as well as the age whereupon he should probably leave the gravy off his morning repast of sausage and biscuits. To the respected Gentleman from Fayette, we hereby extend best wishes on this day of celebration. Legislative Citation No. 27 was adopted without objection.
